GRADE CROSSINGS SHOULD GO

The horrible accident last week when a firetruck was hit by a train in Eugene shrould conshould be eliminated. We have far too many grade crossings in Lane county and it is a dull month when there is not a collision on some one of them. A city with main line grade crossings on busy streets is backward, especially where the crossings are neither guarded by warning bells when it is cut new forests will begin to grow.

·To have an acident of this character happen under the shadows of a university building would seem to us that learning and scientific knowledge had not progressed far in this world when it comes to safeguarding life.

THE ECONOMY OF AIR PASSAGE

Greater and greater becomes the number of Air Lines now in use. Now there is a daily passenger and mail plane service from New York to Montthis form of transportation.

The trip takes from 7 o'clock in the morning until fifteen minutes after eeven, or a little more than four hours.

It would cost a hundred thausond dollars a mile, excusive of terminals, to build a new railroad line from New York to Montreal.

A new, modern highway would cost from thirty to fifty thousand dollars a mile.

The outlay for the "roadbed" of the Air Line is not one cent! The only cost is an insignificant one, that of Air Beacons for night flying. This lack of "overhead" makes air transportation the cheapest in the world. Pending developments will eliminate the lack of landing places that has been one of the great drawbacks to a more general use of planes in transportation.

The New York State Federation of Women's Clubs endorses an amendement to the Domestic Relations Law that would give a woman the same civil rights against her husband that he now enenjoys against her. Just Waiting for the Door To Open

MR. PINCHOT WESTS' ENEMY

Advocating public control of lumbering, we have received a letter from Gifford Pinchot, Milford, Pennsylavnia. Twenty years ago in school we debated long and vigorously on the conservation of our natural resources. We used Mr. Pinchot's literature which proved statistically that there would not be a tree standing in 15 years so rapid were they being slaughtered by the lumber industry.

Mr. Pinchot was wrong then. He is wrong now when he advocates government control of the lumber industry-or any other industry that deserves prosperity.

Mr. Pinchot has done more than any other man 1922, (42 Stat., 465) to exchange with his propaganda to injure the lumber industry—to cause large operators to make no money and small ones to go bankrupt. His cry that forests were being depleted so rapidly that in a few years there would be none has caused the nation to turn the large setting of the large setting setting to exchange the wighter with the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting that the large setting the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting that the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting the large setting that the large setting that the large setting the large setting the large setting that the large setting tha there would be none has caused the nation to turn NE4 NE4 SE4 SE4 NE4 SE to wood substitutes and the per capita consump- 14. Mr. Pinchot says that the "lumber industry is Mr. Pinchot says that the "lumber industry is spending millions of dollars on propaganda to forestall public control of lumbering." We challenge him to prove this statement. We believe that time will tell he is mistaken in this just the that time will tell he is mistaken in this just the thirty days from the date of first pubsame as he was in his predictions on the last tree lication of this notice, which first publication is December 6, 1928.
