N. O. W. PREPARES BOXES FOR NEEDY FAMILIES

Donations are now being received to prepare three boxes for needy families in Springfield, the boxes to be made up by members of the Pine Circle No. 45 of the Neighbors of Woodcraft, who decided to make the boxes at a meeting of the organization last night.

All neighbors that were not present at the meeting last night as well as those who were there are urged by the committee in charge to bring their various donations to Eggmann's store before Friday night, when the food will be made up into three boxes, which was marked by the baseness of nearly two-thirds of the membership due to several cases of illness.

Visitors from Eugene included Mrs. Arah Hoyt Rae, Mrs. Lillian Andrews, and Mrs. Harris.

The food will be arranged in time to be put out on the Saturday morning delivery.

Regular order of business occupied the rest of the time of the meeting.
