HEADSTONES AVAILABLE FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

A. T. Moses of the Eugene post of the American Legion has sent for a number of headstones for the graves of ex-service men. When they arrive they will be available for the survivors of ex-service men.

The headstone is a gift of the government and can be secured free of charge. Mr. Moses has the application blanks and anyone wishing a headstone for a departed ex-service friend or relative may get the blank from Mr. Moses and fill it out and submit it to him and he will give them one of the stones.

Mr. Moses urges friends or relatives of all ex-service men to avail themselves of the opportunity of getting the government headstones. Mrs. M. B. Huntly of this city, will have blanks and can give information to those wishing it.

LEGION POST NO. 40 TO MEET NEXT FRIDAY

A meeting of the local post No. 40 of the American Legion will be held next Friday and members are urged to attend because matters of importance will be taken up.

Among other matters to come before the Friday night meeting will be the question of the honor board which soon is to be erected. Present plans are to have it placed on the south side of Main street between 4th and 5th.

Much secrecy enshrouds the membership drive now on between the two legion teams of which M. B. Huntly and J. M. Larson are the respective heads. Neither will tell how many members they have secured. This much is known that both sides are working hard and pleasing results are expected.

LIVESTOCK AND DAIRY PROBLEMS TO FEATURE "FARMERS" WEEK SOON

A special "Farmers' Week" will be conducted in the chamber of commerce rooms in Eugene February 18 to February 22 by the Lane County Agricultural Council cooperating with the Extension Service of the Oregon Agricultural College. The week will be made up of a series of special days, each day really being a one-day farmers' institute, according to O. S. Fletcher, county agent.

The schedule for the week is as follows: Monday, February 18, livestock day; Tuesday, February 19, horticulture day; Wednesday, February 20, farm crops day; Thursday, February 21, dairy day; and Friday, February 22, poultry day.

The executive committee of the County Agricultural Council will have general supervision of the conference. The Lane County Horticultural Society will be in charge of the program on horticulture day, the Lane County Dairymen's Association will be in charge on dairy day, the 4-H Club Poultry Association will be in charge on poultry day, and special committees appointed by the Agricultural Council will be in charge on livestock day and crops day.

On each day there will be talks on production problems and a discussion of the general economic outlook for the crop or commodity under consideration by specialists from the Oregon Agricultural College. The officers of the County Agricultural Council and the county agent hope to make this series of meetings one of the most successful ever held in Lane county.

LIBRARY BOARD TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY

A meeting of the Springfield library board will be held next Tuesday. Among the things to come to the attention of the board will be the matter of bringing in new subscription of magazine.

The following are members of the board: president Mrs. N. W. Emery; vice-president, Mrs. Fred Hinson; secretary, Mrs. L. K. Page. Other members of the board are Mrs. C. E. Blom, Mrs. D. Saltman and Mrs. Vina McClain.

Fifty books have arrived at the local library from the state library at Salem. The books are to be loaned to this library for three months, and were selected from three groups of fifty offered. Among the authors are included: Curwood, Materlink, Gilbert Parker, Mark Twain, and Stewart Edward White.

Mrs. Swarts at Kansas Group Meet

A group of former Kansas residents met last Friday for a social time and program at the Chamber of Commerce in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swarts are members of the club and both attended the meeting Friday. The club decided to have monthly meetings, the next one to be on February 22 at the chamber of commerce.
