NOTICE

WHEREAS in chapter 127, general laws of Oregon, enacted in 1919, it is declared to be the duty of every person, firm, copartnership, company and corporation owning, leasing, occupying or having charge of or dominion over any land, place, building, structure, wharf, pier or dock which is infested with ground squirrels and other noxious rodents or predatory animals, or as soon as the presence of the same shall come to this, their or its knowledge, at once proceed and to continue in good faith to exterminate and destroy such rodents by poisoning, trapping or other appropriate and effective means; and

WHEREAS gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) are noxious rodents in Lane County, Oregon. Now, therefore, all of such persons, firms, copartnerships, corporations and companies owning or having dominion over land in said Lane County, Oregon, are hereby required to take steps to exterminate said gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) within thirty days from the date of the first publication of this notice. If such steps are not taken, a person or persons appointed by the County Court of said Lane County will enter upon said lands and proceed to exterminate said gray digger ground squirrels (Citellus douglasii) and the cost of said extermination will be levied against said lands.

The county agricultural agent hereby designates Monday, April 1st, as a day to be known as "squirrel poisoning day" throughout the said Lane County, and it is hereby recommended that the undersigned and representatives of the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, be used for the purpose of such extermination. Such poisoned barley may be secured from the undersigned at his office in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon at approximately the cost of preparation.

Date of first publication of this notice March 7th, 1929.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF LANE

James M. Blakeley, Jr., Plaintiff, vs. Bertha Blakeley, Defendant.

To Bertha Blakeley, the above named defendant.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before the 4th day of April, 1929 said date being more than four weeks from the day of the first publication of this summons herein entered of record and if you fail to appear and answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief in his complaint against you demanded, to-wit:

For a judgment and Decree of Divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, James M. Blakeley, Jr., and the Defendant, Bertha Blakeley on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and for such other relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.

That this summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Springfield News, a newspaper of general circulation, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, duly made and entered of record on the 5th day of March, 1929, ordering that this summons be published once each week for four successive and consecutive weeks in said Springfield News and that the date of the first publication will be on the 7th day of March, 1929, and the date of the last publication will be with the issue of April 4th, 1929.

Milady's Beauty Secrets

By Helena Rubinstein

Those cherries fairly do disclose Of orient pearl a double row Which, when her lovely laughter shows, They look like rosebuds fill'd with snow.

—Champion.

Teeth are decidedly a permanent part of your anatomy. The skin and its cells change and with the constant process of rebuilding we are practically re-made every few years.

But after baby teeth have gone the permanent set comes; and after that, "your teeth are your teeth, all your life"—unless by your neglect you lose them.

The tooth-buds of the infant develop prenatally, many months, in fact, before the child is born. And because of this development the expectant mother must begin to build up in her own body the necessary elements required by the child.

Calcium, which is richly present in milk, is one of the most important ingredients for the mother to introduce into her system, for calcium is an actual part of the teeth. If in the last three months that the mother is carrying her baby she does not make up the terrific drain made upon her own system for the development of the teeth and bones of the unborn child, her own bones will become soft through the absorption of the lime salts from them.

After the child is born its milk teeth must be carefully attended to, kept scrupulously clean by brushing with a tiny brush and a little milk of magnesia as early as the first two teeth appear. On the care and the resultant health of these milk teeth depend the strength of the permanent teeth later on.

Lime water is often added to the baby's milk on the physician's advice. The best and simplest way to care for the new baby's gums is to dip a fine
