

THURSTON

The high school baseball players motored to Crow last Friday afternoon where they played the team there and met their defeat.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hatchel, who have spent some time touring California, spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weaver. They left Friday morning for their home in Portland.

Frank Campbell and Fred Gray Jr. left last Friday for Klamath Falls where they expect to get employment.

Miss Golda Starr, principal of the grade school, visited her mother at Oakland over the week-end.

Many cars motored out from Eugene and other places every Sunday to the "Blossom Farm" owned by the Conley Brothers, to see their flowers at present. They have a wonderful lot of tulips blooming; these bulbs were imported from Holland a few years ago. The Conley Brothers donated several large bouquets for decorating the Thurston church last Sunday—Mothers' Day.

Mrs. Morelock, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Witts from Cottage Grove took Tuesday dinner with Mrs. John Edmiston.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Taylor last Thursday afternoon and quilted.

Clifford Weaver and Mrs. Mary McElroy from Salem spent the week-end with relatives and friends here. Jay Grant and Perry Price, students at O. S. C. at Corvallis were in Thurston last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Baugh are on a trip to Los Angeles, California, and expect to be gone two weeks.

Mrs. Kafoury Better — Mrs. Allen Kafoury is reported to be improved following a short illness.

Doctor: "What is your profession?" Patient (pompously): "I'm a gentleman."

"Well, you'll have to try something else; it doesn't agree with you."

Are you as proud as they? Are you among the 314 house wives who have proud husbands sharing your pride in a new electric range—just installed during our special low offer—which by the way closes May 15th? If not, and you simply must pension off that nasty old stove, you'd better hurry for two very good reasons—first, our low price and terms will soon be withdrawn and, second, so great has been the demand for these new models that we have had considerable difficulty in getting them for delivery.
