Miss Smith, who was in charge, is a field worker for the Eugene Bible University, and was in charge of the Bible instruction in the local public schools during the past two years. During the summer she goes about over this section of the state conducting Bible schools in the various towns. She was at Drain before coming to Springfield.

4L to Have Picnic

The regular monthly meeting of the Springfield 4L will be held in connection with a basket dinner next Monday evening at Swimmers' Delight. It was announced by W. P. Tyson, president of the organization. Tyson and John King, secretary, are working out the plans for the meeting. All the members of the 4L are asked to come and bring their baskets. The occasion will be the time of an informal party in addition to the business meeting.

Civic Club Entertains

The Woman's Civic Club gave a party for Mrs. Ora Read Hemenway Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wheaton. Mrs. Hemenway, who has been principal of the Brattain School, has been active in civic work in Springfield for several years and is now moving to a farm near Cottage Grove.

The Civic Club presented Mrs. Hemenway with a beautiful scarf in appreciation of her work in Springfield. She invited the club to meet for a picnic on her farm this summer.

Two Employees Injured

Two men were slightly injured in minor accidents at the Booth-Kelly mill last week. Darrell Templeton bruised his arm quite badly when he struck it against a truck, and Clarence Johnson sprained his wrist. Both men lost several days work.

ROBERT INSULL MEDAL
GIVEN LAWRENCE DANKS FOR RESUSCITATION

The Robert Insull bronze medal, given for successful resuscitation from electrocution, was presented to Lawrence E. Danks, employee at the local Mountain States power plant at a meeting of the representatives of the company in the Knights of Pythias hall at Albany Tuesday night. The medal was presented by C. M. Brewer, vice-president of the Mountain States Power company. C. E. Merrill, assistant general manager of the company, and W. P. Tyson, president of the local 4L, also made short talks.

The medal was given to Danks for restoring to breathing by using the Shafer Prone Pressure method of resuscitation E. N. Dillard, electrician of the Booth-Kelly lumber company, who was electrocuted in an accident at the mill July 6, 1928. Danks brought Dillard back to life, but the electrician died at the hospital three hours later from a concussion of the brain, resulting from a fall following the shock. This was the second time that an employee of the Mountain States Power company has received an Insull medal.

LOCAL ENTRANTS IN EUGENE FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION ASKED

Springfield merchants and organizations are invited to enter floats and other features in the Fourth of July parade to be held in Eugene under the auspices of the Lane County Fair Association, according to Mabel H. Chadwick, secretary of the fair.

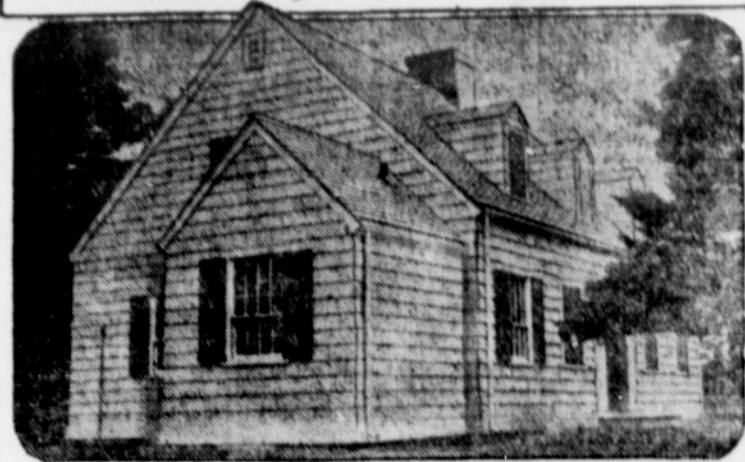

The parade will pass through the main streets of Eugene, beginning at 10 o'clock on Independence Day. It will include industrial pioneer and patriotic features, and Springfield people are invited to enter any such features, Mrs. Chadwick said.

Much interest is being shown in the parade, and it will be one of the chief features of the Fourth of July celebration in Eugene, which promises to attract thousands. Cal Young, noted Lane county pioneer, is assisting in planning the parade and is working up a pioneer feature for the event.

Springfield people who spend July 4 in Eugene will have the opportunity of attending the county fair rodeo, to be an event of the afternoon and evening of July 4, as well as the afternoon of July 3. Bucking horses, wild steers, yelling cowboys, pony races, and other features will make this a real western show. In addition, two buffalo, direct descendants of the wild herds of the western plains, have been brought to the show by Dove Anderson, stockman of Union. These buffalo will be ridden by the cowboys, and will give their riders and the stands a real thrill.

Mr. Young and Mr. Anderson have been busy attempting to tame the buffalo by yoking them to one of Mr. Young's steady, imperturbable bulls, and this method has proved highly successful.

Prize Winning Essay Gives Rules For Safety in Home

The following essay was awarded first prize in division three of the safety essay contest recently sponsored in the Springfield schools by the local 4L. It was written by Josephine Jones, a pupil of Miss Anne Gorrie in the fifth grade at the Brattain school.

What Safety Means to the Home
By JOSEPHINE JONES, 5th B.

You should not break glass all around the house, for you may cut yourself very badly.

Do not handle matches around gas, for it will explode.

If you get on fire roll on the floor or wrap up from your head to your feet. Do not play with the gas stove or kerosene.

If you can not swim do not go out in deep water, for you are liable to drown. When you go out in a boat sit still if you can not swim.

If you are going any place and see a wire hanging do not touch it, for it is liable to kill you or burn you very badly and leave a big scar that will not look good for the rest of your life.

When you go across the street look good before you cross and do not go cornerways across the street.

Do not play in the street. Thousands of children are killed every year in the streets. Some old people are killed in crossing the streets, too.

If you have an incubator you should be careful not to get gas or oil, for it will explode. Do not let little children get hold of matches.

Do not leave the electricity on when you are away from home, for it is liable to set the house on fire.

When you are driving do not go too fast and look out for children in the street.

When the house is on fire do not carry things out that will not break and things that will break throw out of the window.

If you have any fire extinguishers put it close to the stove, the furnace and stairs. Have fire escapes, ladders and hose near the windows.

Have your garage a safe distance from your house, because it has the gas, oil and things that would burn quickly.

Do not put old paper behind the stove and furnace, for it will catch on fire.

Do not get your stove pipe too close to the wall, and have it well connected.

Do not put oily dust cloths or mop rags behind the stove or furnace.

Do not have a well open in the yard or deep holes.

Be careful of old rotten board side walks and nails sticking up.

A clean house is less liable to burn down.

Keep children away from people that have contagious diseases.

Never point a weapon at any one. Treat a gun as if loaded, even if not.

Attempted Holdup Claimed

Whether or not an attempt was made to hold up Van Cleve's tent show at the closing performance here Saturday night has been a subject of much discussion in the Springfield vicinity this week. Van Cleve, the proprietor, appeared on the stage with the announcement that an attempt had been made to rob him of the gate receipts, but that he had driven the intruder away with his gun. Local officials are inclined to doubt the showman's story, as he made no report regarding the affair to either Chief of Police Gile or to Sheriff Bowen at Eugene.

Ables Leave for California

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ables and family left by train Monday for Modesto, California, where they have traded for a modern 600 acre dairy ranch. They took with them a car load of household goods and two Shetland ponies.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR TO ATTEND GATHERING AT SANTA CLARA SUNDAY

The local Christian Endeavor realized the sum of $21.40 on the bazaar and luncheon which was held last week in the I. O. O. F. building. The major part will be used to pay the local lodge of $20 to the national treasury of the organization.

Some time within the next two weeks the Christian Endeavor will sponsor a "dollar party." Each person attending the party will be expected to bring a dollar earned in some unique way, together with a bit of verse telling how he earned it. The public will be invited to attend the function.

A number of changes were made in the officers of the Christian Endeavor at the last business meeting. Barbara Adams was chosen vice-president, succeeding Bill Cox, who resigned, and Carl McKinis was named secretary-treasurer, succeeding Frances Frizell. Evelyn Harris was elected to take the place of Juanita Lombard Brown as chairman of the missionary committee.

Chris Jensen of Eugene will conduct a Bible study period at the Christian Endeavor meeting in three weeks. Sunday afternoon the 39 members of the local group will drive to Santa Clara to attend the Lane county Christian Endeavor rally there at 2:30 o'clock. Vesta Orrick of Eugene will be in charge of the meeting. Clark Aidelot of the Eugene Bible University will lead the singing, and Winifred Tyson of Springfield will play the piano.
