Jail With No Keys Hoquiam, Wash., July 11 (Auto-caster)—The local police department was recently confronted with the problem of a jail without keys. All prisoners were transferred from the old jail into the new one and placed in cells. But there were no keys to lock them in. The prisoners were taken back to the old jail.

Now the Corn Cob is in Diplomacy Washington, D. C., July 11 (Auto-caster)—While Ambassador Dawes has been introducing his famous underslung pipe into diplomatic circles in London, Joseph P. Cotton, the Under Secretary of State, has been introducing his corn cob pipe into the department.

Thus far, he has always remembered to lay his corn cob aside when called to the office of Secretary Stimson.

Store Interior Changed

The interior of the A. R. Sneed grocery was changed considerably last week-end. The counters and refrigerator, which were in the center, were moved to the sides of the room, leaving the large center space for merchandise displays. Mr. Sneed has not yet completed his plans for the displays there.
