

HONOR PUPILS ARE LISTED AT SCHOOL

Number of Names on the Honor Roll Greater Than for First Six Weeks. Attendance Records of Grade Students Commendable.

The second six-weeks' list of honor students at the three Springfield schools is even greater than the first six-weeks list was. Every grade in each of the schools have more than one person on the scholastic honor roll. Several of the grades have also sent in the lists of those students with perfect attendance for the last six weeks of school. The high school and junior high school lists are only for those high in scholastic averages.

It is necessary for a student to have not less than a "two" in all his or her work at the high school to be on the honor roll. In the grade schools the students must have an average of 90 or above to be on the list. No perfect attendance lists are printed for the high school and the junior high schools.

POSTPONED PLAY GIVEN AT H. S. ON WEDNESDAY

"Enter the Hero" the one act play which the members of the junior class at the high school were to have given some time ago, was postponed for several weeks and was given at the high school yesterday at the assembly period.

Miss Clara Wagner, class advisor, directed the play, which had the following cast: Jack Hulett, who played the part of Harold; Daisy Tomseth, Anne; Dorothy Fisher, Ruth; and Betty Anderson, the mother.

Leaves for South—C. B. Manning left Springfield Monday for DeRidder Louisiana, where he will visit friends and relatives. He expected to stop for a short visit with some relatives at Houston, Texas, before going to the other city.

Gifts for the HOME

The home—the castle of every family—where mother, dad, sister and brother seek relaxation and repose. . . . It is it any wonder then, that furniture plays such an important part in one's homelife. . . . It is logical to conclude that throughout the year and at Christmas more than any other time the furnishings are of the utmost importance. So what would make a more timely and appropriate gift than a dining room suite—a bed room suite or any one of a hundred other pieces of furniture?

Bedroom Suites or Individual Pieces For Gifts

Powers have any number of 3 and 4-piece bedroom suites—excellent furniture and unbeatable gifts. There are suites for large or small rooms and any number of individual pieces that will match your present bedroom furniture. Why not buy a vanity to match the one you have now?
