Ralph R. Mulholland is a special student in history.

FARMERS' WEEK TO BE HELD JANUARY 20-24

A special "farmers' week" will be conducted in Eugene the week beginning January 20 by the Lane County Agricultural Council cooperating with the Oregon Agricultural college, according to County Agent O. S. Fletcher.

Each day of the week will in reality be a one-day farmers' institute, devoted to some phase of agriculture of importance in Lane county. The schedule for the week is as follows: Monday, January 20, poultry day; Tuesday, January 21, horticultural day; Wednesday, January 22, livestock day; Thursday, January 23, dairy day; and Friday, January 24, farm crops day.

The Eugene Chamber of Commerce will take charge of the program from 12 o'clock noon to 2:00 o'clock on dairy day, and the visiting farmers will be the guests of the merchants of Eugene at a luncheon and program. Speakers will be arranged.

The county agent and cooperating project committees of the Lane Agricultural council are working on programs for the various days. Watch our issue of next week for more information in regard to the programs.

Father: Was Jack intoxicated when he came home last night?

Daughter: I didn't notice, but he asked for a mirror so he could see who he was.

Host: Do you like codfish balls?

Guest: Dunno; I never attended one.

EIGHTH GRADE EXAMINATIONS

The eighth grade examinations will be given in districts where they have pupils who have complied with the conditions and are ready to take them, on Thursday and Friday, January 16-17, 1930. This is particularly for pupils who have finished all the work of the seventh grade and are ready to take the examination in geography; but conditioned pupils may work off their conditioned subjects at that time also. Applications for questions should be made to

FORMER TEACHER SEEKS STATE HIGHWAY OFFICE FOR WESTERN OREGON

J. E. Torbert, of Roseburg, wants to be appointed State Highway Commissioner for the Western Oregon district to succeed C. E. Gates, of Medford, whose term expires on March 31 of this year. Several Springfield business men have received cards from him requesting that his appointment be urged at the expiration of Mr. Gates' term.

Torbert is a former school principal in Springfield, and had held similar positions in other parts of the state since leaving this city.

The candidate for the highway position lists a large number of changes which he desires to inaugurate if chosen, chief of which is the gradual elimination of bad curves and sharp grades from the Pacific highway, a shorter route between Salem and Portland, a short route to Crater Lake, and better connecting links between the Pacific and Roosevelt highways.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS ACCEPT INVITATION TO PLAY RADIO CONCERT

The Girls' glee club and the orchestra at the high school have accepted an invitation extended to them by McMoran and Washburn's store in Eugene to sing and play over the radio as part of the regular McMoran and Washburn radio program on Friday afternoon, February 7, starting at 3:30. The store will entertain the musicians at a banquet in the store following the concert.

The present personnel of the glee club is as follows: first soprano, Vernice Hawke, Eva Louk, Ruth Bettis, Leonia Gates and Julia May; second soprano: Hazel Wilson, Beulah Richardson, Daisy Tomseth, Betty Anderson and Pessie Beals; Alto: Lela Squires, Nellie Wright, Lela Mexyell and Evelyn Buell.

Both of these organizations are being directed by Ernest McKinney, instructor of music at the high school.

FIRST FIRE OF YEAR RESULTS IN NO DAMAGE

The first fire for the year 1930 to be reported to the city fire department occurred at the F. B. Hamlin property, Fourth and C streets, about 10:30 Friday morning. It was only a flue fire and was extinguished before any damage was done to the property.

Not one fire was reported to the fire department during the entire Christmas holidays, which speaks well for the care exercised by the residents of Springfield in the matter of handling the various forms of lighting devices.
