Notice of Sale of Government Timber, General Land Office, Washington D. C., Dec. 31, 1929. Notice is hereby given that subject to the conditions and limitations of the act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), as amended by the act of May 17, 1928, (45 Stat. 597, Public No. 417), subject also to the provisions of the act of February 26, 1919 (40 Stat. 1179), and pursuant to departmental regulations approved July 29, 1929, as amended, the timber on the following lands will be sold Feb. 17, 1930 at 10 o'clock a. m. at public auction at the United States land office at Roseburg, Oregon, to the highest bidder at not less than the appraised price as shown by this notice, sale to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The purchase price, with an additional sum of one-fifth of one per cent thereof, being commission allowed, must be deposited when the right to purchase is awarded by the Register, but certificate of sale will not issue until the purchaser has complied fully with said regulations of July 29, 1929, as to the execution of the contract of sale and bond required thereunder. The money deposited will be returned if sale is not approved, otherwise patent will issue for the timber, which must be removed within ten years. Bids will be received from citizens of the United States, associations of such citizens and corporations organized under the laws of the United States or any State territory or district thereof only. Upon application of a qualified purchaser the timber on any legal subdivision will be offered separately before being included in any offer of a larger unit. OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

Three carloads of Jefferson county work horses have been shipped to Texas and Colorado recently. A new baseball league to take in Eugene, Albany, Salem and Corvallis is in prospect if plans of Eugene baseball fans are adopted.

The county boundary board of Jackson county has ordered a reduction of nearly $6000 in the school budget of the Butte Falls district. The Farmers' Exchange Cooperative of Jackson county has refused by a vote of 59 to 27 to accept the resignations of the board of directors.

The Alsea school buildings were entirely destroyed by fire recently. The grammar school and entire contents were a total loss, but all the equipment was saved from the high school. During the month of December there were 36 herds, containing 607 cows, on test by the Willows County Dairy Improvement association.

The American Legion post of La Grande has set aside $1000 of its funds to form a loan fund to assist worthy students attending the Eastern Oregon normal school to carry on their education. During 1929 the state grain inspection department inspected a total of 34,406,452 bushels of grain at Portland, St. Johns and Astoria, according to the annual report of Seymour Jones, state market agent.

The board of directors of the Pendleton Round-up fixed dates for the event as August 28, 29 and 30. The weather, tourists and students were factors in changing the dates from September to August. A company has been organized at Ontario with sufficient funds subscribed to build the settling basins and reconstruct the filter system at the municipal water plant and lease the same to the city.

The total tax rate for Salem for 1930 will be 55.6 mills as compared with 54.2 mills last year. The property valuation for this year is slightly lower than last year, due to the elimination of bank share taxes. The Canby high school bus, driver by J. A. Giger, skidded off the Wilsonville road near Aurora and turned partly over. A telephone pole near the road saved the car and its 24 passengers from serious accident.

The value of Linn county's road and bridge building equipment, shop and plant sites January 1 was $136,930 according to an inventory made by the county court. This is an increase of $18,357 over the preceding year. Robert Weber, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weber of Eugene, died from burns received when his night-gown caught fire. He was standing in front of the fireplace at home when the gown was ignited from the blaze.

While there is no apparent danger that the disease exists in southern Oregon cattle, the matter of undulant fever has been brought to the attention of the Jackson county health unit by the United States public health service. Growth of the Oregon co-operative prune exchange during the past year is indicated by the fact that an anticipated pool of 8,000,000 pounds turned out to be more than 11,000,000 pounds by the end of the season, according to M. H. Harlow of Eugene, director of the association.

Wheat—Big Bend bluestem, $1.33 1/2; soft white and western white, $1.22 1/2; hard winter, northern spring and western red, $1.20 1/2. Hay—Alfalfa, $23.50@24 per ton; valley timothy, $20.50@21; eastern Oregon timothy, $23@23.50; clover, $20; oat hay, $19; oats and vetch, $20@20.50.

Butterfat—31@37c. Eggs—Ranch, 30@35c. Cattle—Steers, good, $11@11.50. Hogs—Good to choice $8.50@10.50. Lambs—Good to choice, $11.50@12. Seattle Wheat—Soft white and western white, $1.22; hard winter, western red and northern spring $1.21; Big Bend bluestem, $1.33.

Spokane Cattle—Steers, good, $9.75@10.50. Hogs—Good, choice, $10.35@10.55. Lambs—Medium to good, $9.25@10.50.

A proposal to increase the Crown-Willamette game refuge in Clatsop county to an approximate total of 90,000 acres has been rejected by the state game commission. The present refuge of 66,000 acres is regarded as large enough. Baby Nineteen-thirty arrived in Ashland January 14, ending one of the longest periods without births in the history of the city.

Chinese pheasants and other valley game birds will be fed grain if the present snow stays on the ground and the temperature stays below freezing point a few days longer, according to Rodney Roach, deputy state game warden at Eugene. Excellent butterfat yields are reported by the Yamhill County Dairy Herd Improvement association for December.

The dairy herd of Pete Ribbers produced 42.54 pounds of butterfat, which is the best record made for a herd of less than 12 cows. Final cost of the new Klamath Falls-Bend The Dalles line of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, now under construction, will be $1,400,000. The last unit of the line, extending from Bolter's ranch, in northern Jefferson county, to The Dalles, will be completed in June.

The largest single movement of beef cattle from central Oregon to the California market since the construction of the Great Northern line was shipped out of Bend recently. It consisted of a trainload of 16 cars consigned to San Francisco. At Chemult the cars will move over the Southern Pacific track.

An increase of 10.94 per cent was reported for orders for lumber above the output of the commodity by 213 mills in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, was reported by the West Coast Lumbermen's association. This is the second consecutive week orders have shown an increase over production. Salem again led in the state, outside of Portland, in building construction during the year 1929.

Salem's construction represented $2,063,972. Klamath Falls, which was second, had building permits aggregating $1,750,810. Medford was third with permits totaling $650,576, and Eugene fourth with $571,772. Sale to the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company of Bend by the Deschutes national forest of 23,123,000 board feet of yellow pine and intermixed species in the Fort Rock district was announced at Bend. The sale covers 3318 acres, and is in the vicinity of Fox butte, scene of two big forest fires in recent years.

Mrs. Ella Shultz Wilson was elected secretary of the Oregon state fair board for the seventh consecutive year. Mrs. Wilson formerly served as assistant secretary of the fair board. A. C. Marsters of Roseburg was re-elected president. The financial report of the secretary showed that the 1929 fair was a success. Holders of grazing leases on Klamath Indian lands are concerned about the movement on the part of the Indians to rescind leases, on the claim that they want the lands for private use.

The lessees have on the lands a total of 40,000 sheep and 3500 head of cattle, against the 1000 sheep and 1300 head of cattle of the Indians. With a total foreign trade of 1,506,437 tons, the shipping board's annual report received by the maritime commerce department of the Portland chamber of commerce, lists Portland 13th among the ports of the United States in foreign trade for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1929. This is a drop of two points as compared with the total for 1928.

The state tax commission has sent out 250,000 intangibles tax blanks and approximately 8000 corporate excise tax blanks. Laws providing for the collection of these taxes were enacted at the 1929 legislative session. Intangibles tax blanks were sent to all registered voters in Oregon, while the excise tax blanks were sent to all corporations. Taxes under these laws are due March 1.

Road construction is in progress, or about to begin, on all sides of western Lane's seaport, Florence. Work on the south or the Glenada sector of the Roosevelt highway shows the 60-foot slip between the ferry float and trestle, a heavy piece of work, completed, and movement work, done only at low tide, requiring 400 tons of rock, placed at a rate of about 30 tons daily, brought by scow down river from government quarry at Beck.

John Withycombe of Arlington was elected president of the eastern Oregon Wheat league at the conclusion of the annual meeting at Pendleton. Withycombe, son of ex-Governor Jas. Withycombe, is one of eastern Oregon's largest wheat operators. New machinery for use in the gold diggings in upper Willamette has just arrived from California, according to the managers, and pay dirt is now being removed. It is expected that mining activities will be resumed when the weather moderates.
