"THE LOVE PARADE"
NOW AT McDONALD

Although "The Love Parade," the talking screen's first original musical romance, now playing at the Fox McDonald Theatre, is a costume production, it is as modern as tomorrow's newspaper, according to Ernst Lubitsch, who directed it.

The story deals with the love of a queen for a prince, but she is a modern young man. The fact made the problem of costuming a difficult one.

Maurice Chevalier is starred in "The Love Parade" which features a large cast of musical comedy and screen favorites, including Jeanette MacDonald, Lupino Lane, Lillian Roth and Eugene Pallette.

With an all star cast, Warner Bros' screen adaptation of the famous stage success, "The Time, the Place and the Girl," opens an engagement at the Fox McDonald on Sunday. Howard Bretherton directed Robert Lord's screen play version of the famous comedy of college life and football victories.
