DOUBLE HANDICAP

It is not so much that Commander George of the American Legion made an error in fact when he sharply answered the Salem head of the War Mothers' club, but that he started an argument with a woman. This was a grievous error, and a controversy in which he could never expect to have the last word, even were it an apology. No man should start a public argument with a woman, right or wrong, because he is beaten before he starts. Better go butt your head against the wall when you are provoked beyond control. The last thing the angry male should do is to write a letter. These have ever been used against men by woman.

HOG WILD

About forty per cent of the accidents to motor cars at grade crossings in the state of Wisconsin last year were caused by motorists driving into the sides of trains, some of which were standing still at the time the accident occurred. Approximately one-half the accidents occurred at crossings where there was absolutely no obstruction to view.

"NOR OIL COMPANIES"

Correct carburetor adjustment would save the average car owner the price of his automobile license, tests show made by the engineer department at the Oregon State College. "Simple apparatus for making such tests is available but has not been put in general use by garages," says the report.

You can't blame the college students for not being enumerated in Eugene when dad and mother had given them in to boost the census in the old home town. We wonder what the census director will say when he finds them enumerated in both places.

What we call the height of civic enterprise is for a little city to stop a crew of Mexican section hands and enumerate them in the city's census report. Since Will Rogers says he has accepted an offer to be enumerated in Oklahoma we have been thinking it would be well if this city had imported a band of gypsies.

Watchful waiting is a job for a chaperone.

THE NEW CREAMERY

Splendid support is reported by the managers of the new Springfield creamery both from the townspeople and farmers. Every day sees new customers for the plant and new dairymen bringing in cream. The creamery is filling a long felt need in this community and it should have 100 per cent support in order that it may be successful from the start.

Governor Norblad was once a union musician. Before the campaign is over he should be able to call out the brass band.

Away of Life by BRUCE BARTON

SIDE LINES

This is the business record of John Smith, who is now forty-one.

He started work on a newspaper, and while he was there, he pieced out his income by selling real estate. Then he transferred into the bond business and sold insurance on the side.

He is now selling wall-paper, which, according to him, is such a poor job that he has to carry samples of floor wax and a patent attachment for radiators in order to keep going.

John is honest and hard-working. His complaint about the meagre returns from business caused a friend of mine to make an investigation. It revealed the following facts:

One of the men who started on the newspaper with John Smith is now part owner of the paper and has an income of more than twenty-five thousand dollars a year.

Real estate has steadily advanced in the city where John Smith played with real estate as a side line, and a number of real estate men, no older or smarter than John, are now very well-to-do.

Both the insurance business and the bond business has prospered in John's old town, providing automobiles and comfortable homes for several men who were formerly his colleagues.

As for wall paper, I myself happened to be riding with the sales manager of a wall paper company a few days after hearing John's story.

"I understand your business is a poor business," I said. "Does anybody ever make a really good thing out of it?"

Said he: "Old Adrian Meeker is the best answer to that. He worked for us as salesman for twenty years. Hard territory his was, too. The other day he retired with one hundred and fifty thousand dollars and took his family out to California."

So it seems that each of the businesses which John Smith tried on the side has been very good to the people who stayed with it on full time.

J. C. Penney told me the other day about a young man who might have been one of his first partners. The young man played the trombone and was compelled to leave the store early every night because he made five dollars a week by tooting his horn in an orchestra. He is still tending store in the daytime and tooting at night. Mr. Penney is the head of more than eight hundred stores.

There are men who have made fortunes by running bootblack stands, by buying junk from automobile factories, and even by contracting with a city to collect its garbage. Almost any business seems to be a good business if a man gives it all he's got.

But the side-line is the side-line.

REGISTRATION FIGURES SHOW LARGE INCREASE

The registration figures for the primary election on May 16, as received by Hal Hoss, secretary of state, shows there are 31,255 more voters registered now than there were two years ago. The total registration now is 398,749, as compared with the former figure of 317,491.

Of this figure 284,241 are Republicans and 103,295 are Democrats. The gain over the previous figure for the Republicans is 62,102, while the Democrats increased their strength by 19,891 votes during the same period.

Other registrations included 229 Progressive, 703 Prohibitionists, 1095 Socialists, and 9928 miscellaneous.

Lane county showed an increase of 4,114 in the present registrations. The total figure now is 22,721 as compared with 18,608 two years ago.

Of the county total, 12,995 are men, and 9,728 women. There are 15,567 Republicans and 6,322 Democrats, 101 Socialists, 56 Prohibitionists, 29 Progressives, and 646 Independent and miscellaneous.

The total registration for the general election is expected to pass well over the 25,000 mark. Two years ago the registration was 25,152.

The poll books will be open for registration again immediately after the primaries, and anyone who did not register and who is eligible to vote will be permitted to register after May 17.

2 Glasses Water, Not Too Cold, Help Constipation

One glass of water is not enough—take 2 glasses a half hour before breakfast. You get quicker and better results by adding a little simple glycerin, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika) to one glass.

Unlike other remedies, Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes old poisons you never thought were in your system. Adlerika stops GAS and sour stomach in 10 minutes. Relieves constipation in 2 hours.—Flanery's Drug Store.

BOOTH-KELLY OFFICIAL HEADS LUMBER MAKERS

A. C. Dixon, general manager of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company, was elected president of the National Lumber manufacturers association at their annual convention in Chicago on Friday. He succeeds E. L. Carpenter, of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mr. Dixon has served in the capacity of vice-president and also as a director of the national association previous to his election to the office of president. He has also served as president and as treasurer of the West Coast Lumbermen's association and during the years between 1925 and 1928 he was a federal reserve bank director.

Baptist Choir Entertained

The choir of the Baptist church was entertained last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chase. A social time was enjoyed following their regular rehearsal.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderite has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the large, dry evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderite at night. Next day, bright Get 24 for 25c today at Flanery's Rexall Drug Store.

A statement from

HARRY L. CORBETT

Republican Candidate for Governor

"I aspire to the office of governor because I should like to be of service to the state in which I was born, which my ancestors helped to develop and in which my children will live after me."

"I will enforce the laws with sincerity and justice and will appoint no man to enforce a law who does not observe the law."

"I will use ceaseless vigilance to prevent waste in state expenditures. I will be ready to spend a tax dollar for progress if convinced that the state will receive full value for it."

"I believe in the steady completion of our highway system. I shall continue to oppose interfering with the duties of the State Highway Commission for the purpose of log-rolling. The state will pass the peak of its road bond retirement in 1932, and I hope that greater aid may then be given our program of market roads."

"If elected, I will not be obligated to make any appointment in return for political support.
I will make every appointment on the basis of merit.
I will work for the greater development and welfare of Oregon.
These things I shall take upon myself as a serious duty and a solemn pledge to the people of the State."
