

BAPTISTS SHOWER COUPLE AT CHURCH LAST NIGHT

Nearly the entire membership of the Baptist church gathered at the church parlors last night for a surprise shower for Myrtle Harvey and Jerry Adams, whose wedding date has been set for June 10. A social evening with games and stunts, which included a mock wedding, was enjoyed by the large number of friends of the couple who gathered for the event. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served during the evening. Many gifts were presented to the couple.

The gathering had been secretly planned by the pastor, Rev. Mulholland, and a few members of the congregation. It was announced from the pulpit last Sunday as a general social evening at which every member was to be present.

BROTHERHOOD TO HEAR LOCAL PROBLEMS TALKED

Talks by local businessmen on their community projects will be a feature of the Monday evening meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church. The matter of the annual picnic will also be discussed, and this will be the final meeting of the present season. A dinner will be served in the church parlors at 6:45.

Trees and Tree Surgery will be discussed by the two Davidson brothers, of West Springfield. Dr. W. C. Rehban will make a short talk on What an Accredited Airport Means for Springfield. S. C. Griffin, of the Springfield creamery, will discuss the relationship of the plant to the community. Charles Paddock will discuss greenhouses and their products, and Rev. Pike will give a short talk on the Relationship of the Church to the Community. Everyone is welcome to attend the meeting.

MRS. JEMIMA MILLER DIES EARLY MONDAY

Mrs. Jemima Miller, 54, a resident of Springfield since 1913, passed away Monday morning at the home of her son, Ransom, 1511 High street, Eugene, following a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Miller was born at Berwick, Ontario, on September 16, 1846. She was married to R. H. Miller in New York and in 1878 they moved to Iowa, where they made their home until they came to Oregon in 1913.

She is survived by six children, Mrs. G. Ranks, Oxnard, California; Mrs. Effie Dunwiddie, Glendale, California; Mrs. Anna M. Jackson, Los Angeles; Miss Lillian Miller, St. Paul, Minnesota; Miss Imogene Miles, Bakersfield, California; and Ransom Miller, Eugene.

The funeral service was held yesterday afternoon from the Walker-Poole funeral home with Rev. J. T. Moore, retired Methodist minister of this city, officiating. Interment was made at the Laurel Grove cemetery.

NEWPORT PEOPLE ARE GUESTS AT DINNER SUN.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chase entertained at their home here Sunday with a delightful dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pengra of Newport, their house guests for the week end. Among those invited for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Pengra, Mr. and Mrs. John Avitt, Noah Smith, Herman Chepluck, Mr. Cunningham, of Portland, and the Chase family.

Sunday School Hears Music
Beatrice Gillette played a piano solo and the orchestra at the Methodist Sunday school played several numbers last Sunday during the Sunday school hour in honor of Mother's Day. Eldred Glaspy played a violin solo.

SPRINGFIELD FARMERS PLANT MANY ARTICHOKE DURING PAST WEEK

Springfield farmers are well represented in the group which recently received a pool shipment of artichoke plants, which were obtained by the county agent from Watsonville, California, and which were received and distributed last week.

Raising of globe artichokes, considered a delicacy in metropolitan restaurants, is being watched with interest here. It is thought that an off season supply of these can be produced here to put on the market when the California growers are idle, thinks Mr. Fletcher.

The farmers who received the shipment of artichokes are: R. S. Thompson, Waltherville; George A. Dorris, Springfield; C. E. Christy, Crow Stage; R. B. Oldham, rural route 2, Eugene; Chase Gardens; S. E. Fish, rural route 2, Eugene; W. L. Baker, Canary; J. B. Rauch, rural route 2, Springfield; L. E. Stafford, Goshen; M. E. Weller, rural route 1, Springfield; J. L. Zehner, rural route 2, Springfield; W. I. Patrick, rural route 1, Springfield; Paul Meyers, route 2, Springfield; and James Gardens, route 2, Eugene.

MANY STARS SEEN IN PARAMOUNT PARADE

More than 35 of Hollywood's best known stars and featured players will entertain at the Fox McDonald theatre in Eugene the rest of this week in one of the gayest entertainments ever brought out of Hollywood.

Stars who have enamored the public imagination engage in joyous rivalry of acting, singing, dancing, comedy and love making in this festival of the stars. Featured players who have drawn crowds to see them when they appeared alone are here joined together in one big melange of sprightly happiness. "Paramount on Parade" is an intimate medley of mirth and music, the new type screen frolic originated by Paramount.

A fascinating and intriguing Elinor Glyn story and a cast of unusual excellence make "Such Men are Dangerous," Fox Movietone all talking drama, a triumphant success as a screen entertainment.

Warner Baxter who came into prominence for his performance as the "Cisco Kid" in "Old Arizona," portrays the leading male role and reveals a new and delightful Baxter in a most difficult characterization. The leading feminine role is enacted by Catherine Dale Owen.

"Such Men are Dangerous" which opens Sunday at the Fox McDonald, embraces everything to recommend it—suspense, thrills, and dramatic situations that make the heart beat fast.

A Kentucky mountain court, where the men of the hills take the law into their own hands and where justice seldom fails is one of the highly dramatic episodes of "Mountain Justice," Ken Maynard's latest Universal all talking picture, which opens on Friday at the Fox Rex theatre.

Another picturesque feature of the picture is a real, old-fashioned mountain "shindig," or dance, at which Maynard performs as a fiddler and Kathryn Crawford, who appears opposite him as the girl in the story, sings the quaint songs of the Kentucky hill country.

Gooseberries to be Canned
The first of the gooseberry crop for this season will be received the latter part of the week at the Eugene Fruit Growers association, according to officials at that plant. The canning is now busy with rhubarb, which will last a few weeks longer.

WANT BARRELS FOR MARKERS AT AIRPORT

An appeal for 50 gallon barrels for markers for the boundary of the Springfield airport was made today by Lee Inman, manager at the field. The barrels conform with the size and shape of the standard markers and if people have a number of them that might be donated it will save the expense and work of making the markers. The barrels would be painted yellow and be placed around the boundary of the field.

Anyone having a barrel or so that they would donate is requested to phone Mr. Inman at the airport or leave word at the News office.
