MRS VINA MCLEAN DIES AT PORTLAND WEDNES.

Mrs. Vina McLean, pioneer resihome of her son, Fred Lemley, with whom she has been living for the past

She was born near Spencer Butte on August 19, 1861, the daughter of J. T. and Louisa Coyle Witter, early pioneers in this county. Her grandfather Coyle was one of the first settlers in this vicinity. She is survived by her son Fred, and by one brother, C. M. Witter.

Mrs. McLean was a graduate of the University of Oregon and taught school for many years. Her first was at Rattlesnake, near Pleasant Hill, which has since been abandoned. She later taught at the old Springfield school, near the site of the present high school building, and at Donna, Goshen and Wendling.

She was a member of the Methodist church, the Neighbors of Woodcraft of Eugene, and of the Springfield Rebekah lodge.
