WHO'LL BE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE?

George Joseph is dead and the Republican party finds itself after the primary election without a candidate. It now devolves upon the state central committee consisting of a delegate from each of the 36 counties to elect a candidate. If these men act in accordance to the registered wish of their party in their respective counties then they must either vote for Governor Norblad or Harry Corbett, the next two high men at election who carried all the counties Mr. Joseph did not save one which was carried by Charles Hall.

Governor Norblad carried 18 counties and ran second in five of the counties carried by Mr. Joseph. Mr. Corbett carried seven counties and ran second in five counties carried by Mr. Joseph and in the one carried by Mr. Hall.

If these men act according to the voters' choice in their counties then Governor Norblad would receive 23 votes and Mr. Corbett 13. However, they are not bound to nominate either of the two men and may reason that a candidate might have disqualified himself since the primary and consider someone else. As the matter stands it seems that Governor Norblad has the inside track as he polled 46,074 votes to Mr. Corbett 33,861 which undoubtedly will have some weight with the second choice counties where the two men ran in some instances very even. Mr. Joseph was nominated by reason of his 27,672 votes in Multnomah county but Governor Norblad topped Mr. Corbett by more than 2000 for second place which must also be considered.

THE TARIFF AND BUSINESS

The "uncertainties in the business world" are expected largely to end with the signing of the tariff bill, expressed President Hoover. The bill, "largely directed to the interest of the farmers" should do much toward stabilizing business, industry and agriculture during the next few months.

While this is the highest tariff this nation has ever had, and there has been some threats of retaliation by other countries, it is not believed this will be the result. The average duty to importers under the new bill will be 16 per cent, and as Congressman Hawley expressed it, the United States market is worth the price.

The new bill carries a $1.00 per thousand board feet duty on dressed lumber and this is expected materially to assist the lumber industry, now in straightened circumstances. The feat of Congressman Hawley in getting the $1.00 duty on lumber into the tariff after it had been defeated by the House and passed by a single vote in the Senate deserves commendation. Mr. Hawley has often been criticized for not getting things done for Oregon. Being co-author of the new tariff bill he was able to do what undoubtedly no other congressman could have accomplished, and as a result we have the $1.00 duty when the east went overwhelmingly against it. Hats off to Mr. Hawley.

In the past ten years the Oregon penitentiary has increased its inmates from 250 to 900, or about 360 per cent. The census enumerators are having a hard time finding more than 30 per cent increase in our population. It appears we are rapidly becoming more lawless.

Eugene is having trouble with the procedure in her school election. The county seat is troubled with too many people who attempt to usurp the place of lawyers.

Eleven people were killed in Lane county in 1929 by automobiles. Let's not try to break this record in 1930.

NEW JOBS FOR OLD

What the machine age has taken away it has given back with interest. Those who revile the "iron man" base their lamentations on the fact that 2,000,000 jobs were lost during the 1920-27 period because of the robot's advent. But statistics tell a more hopeful story. Two million jobs might have been lost—but 2,500,000 were gained during the same period! And the gain was almost entirely due to increased use of machines.

In the radio industry, for example, there are 150,000 workers as compared with 25,000 seven years ago. Electric refrigeration, almost unknown in 1920, now gives employment to 40,000 people. Oil-heating has created 30,000 new jobs. And our leading entertainment, the motion picture, figures as an economic factor of benefit to 350,000 employees.

It must not be forgotten, however, that numerous workers displaced by machinery, have been unable to find any place for their abilities. Some of them are uneducated, others illiterate. A number have been trained to do work that has no particular value today. Our Federal Board for Vocational Education has cases of this kind under its advisement, and is doing everything possible to help these misfits adapt themselves to changed conditions. Careful planning, training and education, are the main ingredients of the proposed remedy.

by BRUCE BARTON
DO PEOPLE FEEL BETTER BECAUSE YOU PASSED BY?

I was in a doctor's office by appointment at five-thirty when his telephone rang. A woman's voice at the other end of the wire asked him to call at her house that evening.

His voice betrayed his irritation, but he promised to call. Then he snapped the receiver on the hook and exploded. "There is a woman who has nothing to do all day but gad about. She might just as easily have called me this morning or early in the afternoon. But no, she had to put it off and spoil my evening. Nobody but a doctor has any idea of how inconsiderate people can be."

On two recent trips with two different men I had an interesting opportunity to contrast their conduct toward their fellow beings.

One of them has made several million dollars in the past few years. Whenever he enters a dining car or a hotel he wanted everybody to understand that he is rich and important. Waiters dislike him, even though he tips them liberally. I sometimes felt embarrassed by his critical demands for attention.

The manner of the other man is the exact reverse. You never would guess that he is a power in world industry. He never gives orders, but makes suggestions or very courteous requests. He seems surprised that anybody should want to do him a favor. He can make a waiter or a station porter feel a new sense of self respect merely by his smile.

A noted preacher once remarked that one of the finest of all the sayings of Jesus is this: "I have compassion on the multitude."

Said the preacher: "Many men can be virtuous. Many can be honest in a hard, self-righteous way. But how many are really considerate? How many feel instinctive respect and sympathy? How many have compassion?"

A lot of twisted standards have somehow grown up in the world. A lot of very righteous people seem to think that a man is good if he does not smoke, does not take a drink, does not do this or that.

These are negative and unimportant. The real mark of a Christian and a gentleman is whether he treats other people as he would like to be treated.

Whether they feel better or worse because he has passed by.

BUD KINTZLEY WINS PRIZE FOR 20 COUGARS

By killing a total of 20 cougar during the twelve months ending June 1, Bud Kintzley of Fall Creek, Lane County won $175 in cash offered by the state game commission and won for himself the title of "champion cougar hunter of Oregon." George W. Ramsey of Estacada and Tony Eriebach of Tillier each accounted for 17 of the "big cats" and are tied for second and third prizes of $125 and $100 respectively. It is probable that the game commission will give each $112.50. For fourth and fifth prizes of $60 and $40 four men are tied with kills of 12 cougars each. They are Charles H. Erwin of Haglia, Gard Sawyers of Elkton, William Clark of Oakridge and Harry Wright of Glide.

During the contest period a total of 341 cougars were accounted for in all sections of the state. This exceeds by a considerable figure the record of any previous year. There is a state bounty of $25 on each cougar killed in Oregon woods but to inspire hunters to increased activity and thus aid in the protection of deer the commission offered, more than a year ago, prizes totaling $500 to be distributed among the five leading hunters. By the activity which followed the offering of the prizes it is safe to say that several hundred deer were saved. A cougar is said to account for the killing of at least one deer a week throughout each year, and makes greater inroads among deer than do hunters during the open season.

NEW POWER EXTENSION POLICY TO AID FARMERS

In order to extend present power lines to serve as many rural districts as possible and give the farmer the same service as the city customer, the Mountain States Power Company has announced a new extension policy to go into effect at once. This new policy provides for a considerable additional investment on the part of the power company to serve new customers and is based upon the estimated annual revenue. Under the new schedule the company will spend three times the amount of the estimated annual revenue for line construction, transformer equipment, etc., to serve new customers in the rural districts. This is a substantial increase over the former extension policy and means that many farmers who have been unable to secure the benefits of electricity will now be in a position to enjoy the efficiency of electric labor-saving devices. The new extension policy has been approved by the Public Service Commission as of June 15, 1930, and full details concerning it may be secured from any office of the Mountain States Power Company.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at Flanery's Rexall Drug Store.

Oh my dears! The Country is perfectly gorgeous! One place, though, they had a fierce dog, and he chased Henry clear to the car. I don't know why farmers are permitted to keep such ferocious, vicious animals.
I know where they're going to have the grandest green corn. I'll just motor back there a little later.
