“THE ARIZONA KID” IS FEATURE AT McDONALD; FRENCH STAR COMING

Brimful of realism, of action, of suspense, of romance—with its scenes laid along the scenic wonder of Zion National park in southwestern Utah and marvelous photography keeping pace with its rapid and delightful story—with the peerless Warner Baxter and the charming Mona Maris in the leading roles—that's “The Arizona Kid,” the Fox Movietone offering which set new standards for the western talkies in its opening at the Fox McDonald theatre yesterday.

Baxter again essays the alluring role of a gay, reckless bandit who captures hearts as he does everything else. Those millions who enjoyed him in the screen's first western talkie, “In Old Arizona,” will go wild over his performance in this new and finer celluloid chapter of frontier days.

Maurice Chevalier stars in his third Paramount release at the Fox McDonald theatre on Sunday next when “The Big Pond” comes here for a three-day run. He sings a number of new songs in his own irrefragable style, and carries the play through many stirring comedy and romance scenes.

Claudette Colbert, herself French-born, plays the leading feminine role. “The Big Pond” is based on an original Broadway comedy-drama by George Middleton and A. E. Thomas, veteran American playwrights.

Hobart Henry who directed “The Lady Lies” and “Roadhouse Nights,” was the director of “The Big Pond.”

Richard Arlen, the loveable young hero of “Wings,” “Manhattan Cocktail,” “The Man I Love,” seen here recently in “The Virginian,” will be the stellar attraction at the Fox Rex theatre for three days, starting today, in “Burning Up.”

Mary Brian is his sweetheart in his first starring picture and an able supporting cast, including four of the most popular character actors on the screen, carry the colorful subordinate parts.

“Burning Up” is a fast action-romance with Arlen as a youthful automobile racing demon. Mixed up with a gang of crooked race promoters and in love with Mary Brian whose father is marked as a victim by the gang, Arlen defends his reputation, defeats the gang, and wins the girl in one of the most thrilling climaxes ever seen in either a silent or talking moving picture.

One of Broadway's greatest comedy hits of all time comes to the screen of the Fox Rex Sunday when “The Fall Guy,” scintillating talking picture adaptation of the original play opens for a run.

“The Fall Guy” is the humorous tale of a white-collar man who loses his job and takes a fling at bootlegging to keep the home fires burning. He is made a “fall guy” for the gang and the most humorous of complications develop.

Mulhall's work in “The Fall Guy” fulfills all predictions. He is supported by a notable cast including Mae Clarke, Wynne Gibson, Ned Sparks, Pat O'Malley, Tom Jackson, Al Roscoe and Ann Brody.

SURPRISE PARTY HELD AT PLEASANT HILL HOME

The young people of the Pleasant Hill district gathered for a surprise party on last Wednesday evening in honor of Lyman Tinker who was celebrating his nineteenth birthday anniversary. The young people met at the high school and then drove up to the Tinker home.

The early evening was spent playing ball, and dancing to radio music and piano music furnished by the Misses Loree Laird and Emma Olson. Chaperones were Mrs. Andy Olson and Mrs. J. A. Phelps. Dainty refreshments consisting of cream puffs filled with ice cream and covered with hot chocolate syrup, together with punch were served under the direction of the Misses Shirley Wiley and Laura Hult.

Among those present for the evening were Miss Shirley Wiley from Salem, Ida Shelly, Nina McPeck, Emma Olson, Arelene Mitchell, Thelma Circle, Loree Laird, Veda Daley, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, Sheldon Stutz, Del Stutz, Francis Phibbs, Alvin Olson, Henry Olson, Eugene Peebles, Raymond Hills, Nils Hult, Evelyn Phelps, Bonnie Jean Tankekr, and Lyman Tinker.

Chops Fingers With Axe—Mrs. W. E. Fritts nearly severed two of her fingers Monday when she struck them with an axe while chopping wood at her home. Several stitches were required to close the wounds and it is expected that they will heal without difficulty.

LUM'S GAS STATION IS REOPENED ON SATURDAY

Lum's service station, owned by Lum Anderson, now acting as chief of police in the city, was reopened last Saturday after having been closed for several weeks. It has been leased to Matt Hart. Mr. Hart has been employed in Eugene by the water board for the last six years and is interested in some log trucking.

WOMEN IN CHARGE OF BAPTIST PROGRAM SUNDAY

The women will be in charge of the service at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 8, providing the music and other attractive features. The pastor will use as his subject “A Woman Who Talked for the Family.”

The young people's meeting is held at 7 p. m. Bible school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11. Address, “A Contagious Life.”

SMALL CHILD CUTS KNEE WHILE PLAYING IN YARD

Patricia, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tomseth, received a bad cut on her knee while playing Tuesday morning and it was necessary to take two stitches to close the wound. She was playing by herself and no one knows just how she injured herself, but it is believed that she fell on a bit of broken glass.
