SMITH-CRUZAN WEDDING SOLEMNIZED ON SUNDAY

Miss Oneta Smith, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Smith, became the bride of Lee Cruzan of Dexter, at a beautiful ceremony on Sunday afternoon. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burnett, at 709 D street at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Elkins of Eugene performed the ceremony and the bride was given away by her oldest brother, L. R. Smith of Cottage Grove.

The bridal party entered the room and stood before the fireplace, which had been banked with ferns and flowers, while the ceremony was read. The flowers were calla lilies and baskets of pink roses and blue delphiniums. Rhododendrons and Canterbury bells formed the floral decorations for the other rooms of the house.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of egg shell lace with a net veil to match and carried a large bouquet of sweet peas, tea roses and calla lilies.

Mrs. Ben Weber of Springfield was the bridesmaid and Mr. Weber was best man. Mrs. Weber wore a lace dress of pastel green and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and yellow snap dragons.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony. The couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home at Dexter.

A group of about thirty relatives and close friends were present for the wedding.

A type of costume that makes a strong appeal to may women this spring consists of the one-piece frock and matching jacket. The silhouette and general effect of this sort of thing are precisely those of a suit, while to some women the one-piece dress has advantages over the separate blouse and skirt. Last spring we would have called this sort of thing an ensemble, but fortunately this word—always difficult for an American to pronounce—is heard less often at the present time and until something better is devised we must content ourselves with calling it simply a dress and jacket.

In the picture, shantung with brown and green figures is used with plain shantung for scalloping the jacket.

SMALL BOY INJURES EYE WHILE ON OUTING TRIP

Billy, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rodenbough is suffering from an injured eye which he received last week while on a camping trip with his parents. He ran a splinter into the eye while playing and pulled it out but the eye injury did not heal immediately. His physician says that he will not sustain any permanent injury from the accident.

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Pendleton is to be northwest headquarters for the Farmers' National Grain corporation, according to Henry W. Collins, district manager. There will also be branches in Portland, Seattle and Spokane. Mr. Collins stated that there is about 225,000 acres of wheat planted in Umatilla county this year.

Joseph Lee Weaver, 42, of Enterprise, died in a hospital from injuries suffered when he was pinned beneath an overturned automobile on the road between Shaniko and Antelope. Weaver's plight was discovered by a passing motorist, who was unable to lift the car from the injured man and had to return to Antelope for assistance.

Orders issued at the Oregon state hospital in Salem were to kill a large number of squirrels which have roamed the grounds there for several years. Dr. H. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent, said the squirrels had killed a number of trees and had caused other damage. The squirrels originally were brought to Salem from Pennsylvania by ex-Governor Olcott.

A bronze tablet erected over the grave of John Templeton Craig, early day mail carrier between western and central Oregon, who died in a blizzard in McKenzie pass in 1877, will be dedicated during the state convention of letter carriers at Bend June 12 and 13, it is announced. The grave is located near the McKenzie highway on the west slope of the mountains.

Owners of cattle running on the Swamp Creek range have lost 15 animals from ticks this spring and the remainder of the stock has been rounded up and treated to protect them from the insects. The ticks gather in knots along the backbone from the head back over the shoulders, cause temporary paralysis and the animal falls to the ground helpless. If the ticks are removed the animal soon recovers.

The federal government has allocated $125,000 for the improvement of the Willamette river between Salem and Oregon City, according to a telegram received from Senator McNary. The original appropriation was $40,000. The increased appropriation will make it possible for the government to build regulatory works, dikes and retaining walls, and insure navigation between the two cities during the entire year.

Members of the old Wasco County Pioneers' association from all parts of the Pacific northwest were in The Dalles recently for attendance at the annual gathering of the organization. Despite a number of deaths during the last year, there are still 698 members on the association's roll. Membership is limited to persons residing in Wasco county prior to 1883, when the transcontinental railroad was constructed.

The Oregon state fair is the first in the United States to require a dairy abortion test for animals exhibited at the fair, according to announcement made by W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian. The requirement becomes effective at the 1930 state fair. Dr. Lytle said that beef animals would not be required to have the test this year as they will be judged in the open as in previous years, and will not come in contact with dairy animals.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH PLANS PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW

Tomorrow night will be church night at the First Christian church and a social program is being prepared by the committee in charge of the arrangements.

The program will consist of a comedy skit, the characters of which are Mrs. Flossie Phillips, Barbara Adams, and Evelyn Harris. Other musical and instrumental numbers are being prepared for the evening's entertainment. Refreshments will be served following the program which starts at 8:00 o'clock.

Social night at the Christian church is sponsored at frequent intervals so that the individual members of the congregation may become better acquainted with one another. Friends of the members are also invited to attend.

Readjustment—New Low Prices

Since last October America has been passing through a period of depression—a condition that has caused unemployment, retrenchment and downward revision of prices. To help this condition, to stimulate industry and to reduce unemployment

The J. C. Penney Company has Radically Revised
Prices Downward
throughout the Store

Store-wide, our counters are packed full of values truly exceptional when compared with prices which were effective last October or even last January. Our No. 449 silk hosiery that formerly sold at $1.49 is now $1.29. Sheets that were $1.29 are now 98c. Our Pay Day Overalls are down from $1.29 to $1.10. You will find in our $19.75 men's suits of today many of the same fine fabrics that were used in making higher priced lines a few months ago.

These new low prices call for quick action. Don't delay. Visit our store at once—convince yourself.
