

OREGON STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Assembled for Information of Our Readers.

The population of Klamath county increased 20,952 in the past ten years, a gain of nearly 200 per cent.

The season for camp fire permits started recently throughout the Crater National forest in southern Oregon.

Approximately 800 persons attended the annual picnic held by the Grangers at Old Culver near Redmond.

The 56th anniversary of the founding of the First Congregational church in Oregon City was observed recently.

Appointment of Theodore Rainwater of Corvallis as deputy state forester was announced by Lyn F. Cronmiller, state forester.

Crater Lake lodge opened for the 1930 tourist season June 26. This year's opening is the earliest in the history of the park.

A rattlesnake measuring over four feet in length and having nine rattles was killed on the hills northeast of Amity one day last week.

The Rogue River box factory burned to the ground at Grants Pass at an estimated loss of $250,000. The origin of the fire had not been determined.

Mayor McAtee of Pendleton instructed police to order all signs at curbs and parkings removed. This is being done in an effort to improve the appearance of streets.

Voters of Eugene approved a levy to raise $25,000 in two years for improvement of the Eugene municipal airport. The vote was 688 for the levy and 643 against it.

Joe Howard, Primeville druggist, has been exonerated in justice court on a charge of taking fish in his hands and killing them with a club, in violation of the state game laws.

Cherry harvesting is at its peak in The Dalles district. The quality of the fruit, particularly in the canning varieties, is said to be extremely high. The fruit is also of unusual size.

Being attacked and scratched and bitten by a flying squirrel was the experience of J. T. Gilroy, Eugene real estate dealer, who was cutting down some trees on a ranch he owns near Creswell.

The Grand army paraded once again in the streets of Eugene as the three-day session of the 49th Oregon encampment drew toward a close. The meeting next year will be held at North Bend.

Details of a proposal for the construction of a $50,000 golf course near Baker have been agreed upon. Contracts will be signed when the new organization has secured sufficient membership.

A juvenile grange has been organized at Boardman. A substantial prize is offered by the Pomona grange to the juvenile grange having the best exhibit at the forthcoming North Morrow County fair.

If indications prove correct there will be about 350 tons of loganberries harvested for shipment from Siskiyou, besides smaller shipments from individual growers who have not contracted their crop.

Worms in poultry have occasioned heavy losses to chicken raisers in the Sheild neighborhood. It is believed that the trouble may be due to over-feeding. The disease is confined to fall grown fowls.

Oregon ranks lowest among all the states in infant mortality, and Portland lowest of any city having 100,000 or more population, as shown by official figures of the bureau of vital statistics of the census bureau for 1928. Oregon's rate is 47.5, which is the number of deaths in 1000 births among children less than 1 year old. Portland's rate is 42.4.

THE MARKETS Portland

Wheat—Big Bend No. 1, $1.07; soft white, western white, $1.05; hard winter, northern spring, western red, $1.02.

Hay—Alfalfa, new crop, $18.50; val ley timothy, $20.50@21; eastern Oregon timothy, $22.50@23; clover, $17; oat hay, $16; oats and vetch, $14.

Butterfat—$7@8c. Eggs—Ranch, 19@20c. Cattle—Steady, good, $9@9.50. Hogs—Good to choice, $13.50@14. Lamb—Good to choice, $7@8.50.

Seattle

Wheat—Soft white, western white, hard winter, western red and northern spring, $9c; Big Bend No. 1, $1.05. Eggs—Ranch 20@20c.

Butterfat—$4c. Cattle—Choice steers, $9@10. Hogs—Prime light, $12.10@12.25. Lamb—Choice, $7@8.

Spokane

Cattle—Steady, good, $7.50@8. Hogs—Good to choice, $11. Lamb—Medium to good, $4@4.50.

Showing a decided increase over previous years, the University of Oregon summer session enrollment at Eugene has reached 562, according to the check made by the registrar's office.

Strawberry growers in the Rogue river district under the Grants Pass irrigation district system are alarmed at the report that strawberry yellow has made its appearance in Josephine county.

There are 240 more farms in Polk, Yamhill and Tillamook counties at the present time than there were 10 years ago, according to announcement made by R. J. Hendricks, census enumerator for that district.

Elmer Hake, Heppner, lighted a firecracker and started to toss it out of a car window which proved to be closed. The firecracker fell back into the car against his knee and exploded, causing severe burns and bruises.

The increase in the price of hops has put new life into the hop industry in Marion county. Some of the fields neglected all spring are now being made ready for a crop. There still is a large quantity of hops in storage that will come in on the new crops.

Merger of the Corvallis State bank with the First National bank of Corvallis was announced by officers of the two institutions. The merger gives the institution a combined bank capital and surplus of $225,000 and resources of about two and one-half million dollars.

A total amount of $122,429.64 will be spent on the county aid market roads in Klamath this year. Of this amount the county will spend $76,319.59, with the state co-operating on market road construction to the extent of matching the county market road appropriation of $46,100.05.

The cost of transporting pupils to the Bend high school during the year just ended was slightly more than 1 cent for each pupil per mile, according to Superintendent Ager. Cost of operating two busses, including interest on the investment and depreciation, was $2657.63.

Union county lamb pool, a new organization with T. B. Johnson of Cove as manager, has 10,000 lambs listed for shipment during the summer. Mr. Johnson reported the first two cars shipped sold 1.0 a. h. Omaha, Neb at $11.50 and $11.50. Four cars of 1036 lambs were shipped recently.

A surly hitch hiker who refused to give his name was arrested near Cottage Grove for smashing rocks through car windshields when autoists failed to stop at his signal. The man was taken to Eugene where Gittfried Thim, who narrowly escaped injury when a missile crashed through the front of his machine, filed charges.

The annual automobile license rush got under way at Salem, with lines of applicants extending from the license counters on the first floor of the state office building out into the street. Motor vehicle plates are now being issued at the rate of approximately 10,000 a day. A night crew of checkers and typists is now employed.

Oregon rural properties again stood the brunt of the state's total fire loss, according to records of the state fire marshal. Statistics for May, 1930 show that 58 per cent of the fire loss, not including Portland, was incurred by properties lying without city limits. The total loss in the state, $477,106, was the heaviest May loss suffered in seven years.

Klamath county has proof that its cowmen still rope steers. Homer Collins of Fort Klamath suffered the loss of the fingers on his right hand while roping. He lassoed a steer on the William Hackler ranch at Fort Klamath. The fingers became entangled between the lariat and the saddle horn. They were smashed so badly that amputation was necessary.

A collision between an automobile and a bear on the Wapinitia cut-off was reported in Bend by Jack Dudley, local business man, on his return from a trip to Portland. The bear started across the road, and before the Bend man could apply his brakes the car and the bear crashed. The bear grunted after being knocked over, then started up a hillside.

When the cloaking of his baby brother, Clifford, only 15 months old, caught fire, Stanley White of Sheridan, aged 4, knew just what to do and so saved the little brother from bad burns or perhaps death. Instead of getting excited and running for help, Stanley quietly patted and rubbed with his hands and soots had the fire out, though Clifford's overalls, stockings and little shirt were charred and one knee was burned.

State highway workmen are engaged in cutting a unit of the Roosevelt highway west of Riverton, toward Bend. The work is for a distance of six miles, and skirts the south bank of the Coquille river for most of the extent.

John C. Moore, 22, Central Point, was killed instantly when his hand came in contact with a high-tension power line hanging close to the ground as the result of a supporting pole being struck by lightning a short time before.

UPPER WILLAMETTE

At the annual high school election held on Monday, June 23, Bert Beaver was unanimously elected director for a term of five years.

All the members of the eighth grade graduating class of the Pleasant Hill public school attended the graduating exercises held at McArthur Court June 24. Many parents and friends also attended. There were four honor students from Pleasant Hill. George Jameson, 96 5-9; Robert Phelps, 35 5-9; Euna Drew, 92 7-9; Howard Ph. As, 92 5-9; Dwight Brown, Lullilo, Perry and Helen Settle were the other members of the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Curtis and children, Merle, Vadeite and Wayne, left last week for eastern Oregon and Idaho to spend the harvest months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tinker and children, Mr. Fred Smith and Mrs. Verna Wiley camped at Swift Creek 25 miles beyond Oakridge from Saturday until Thursday of last week. They found fishing very satisfactory and greatly enjoyed the mountains. Several deer were seen on the trip.

Loganberry and cherry picking has begun in the Pleasant Hill district. Many farmers are cutting hay.

The Pleasant Hill Athletic club defeated the Walker club at a game of baseball last Sunday by a score of 36 to 10. The game was played at Walker.

The members of the Intermediate Endeavor surprised Miss Nancy Barnum Friday night in honor of her thirteenth birthday. About twenty-five young folks were present.

A girls scout troop was organized at Pleasant Hill Monday afternoon June 23 with Miss Erma Laird as leader and Mrs. O. Stutz assistant.

They held their first meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jordan when eight more girls joined making 23 girls in all. Three patrols were formed. Officers, Patrol 1, lead-Baughman, scribe, Florence Jordan; patrol 2, leader, Lorce Laird, assistant, Lucile Jordan, scribe, Emmylou Baughman; 3rd patrol, leader, Iris Wallace, assistant, Annette Maltau, scribe, Bonnie Jeanne Tinker. Mrs. C. E. Jordan has given the girl scouts the little cottage on her ranch as their scout home and the girls are planning to paper and paint it and fix it up in the inside for club rooms. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 7:30.

The next meeting of the Pleasant Hill Ladies club will be held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Lattin Wednesday, July 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps and family plan to spend July 4 at Roseburg with Mrs. Phelps' sister.

Spent Sunday With Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Louck and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Louk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, at Creswell.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That the undersigned, as Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph H. Jackson, deceased, has filed her account for the final settlement of said decedent's estate in the County Court for Lane County, Oregon, and that Saturday, the 2nd day of August, 1930, at the Court Room of said Court in the County Court House, in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, has been fixed by said Court as the time and place for hearing objections thereto, and for the settlement thereof.

RUHAMAH R. JACKSON, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Joseph H. Jackson, deceased.

L. L. RAY, Attorney for Estate. J8-10-17-24-31

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for Lane County, upon a decree of foreclosure and order to sell real property, in the suit of Otto Lydy against Charles E. McDonald, as administrator of the estate of John McDonald, deceased; Charles E. McDonald, deceased; Muriel McDonald, husband and wife; William R. McDonald, single; W. D. McDonald, single; Katherine H. Jones, A. D. Jones, wife and husband; Dorothy Snyder and Elmer M. Snyder, both single; whereby I am commanded to sell the real property herein-after described; which decree was entered on the 26th day of June, 1930, and whereby I am required from the proceeds of such sale to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $572.53, with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum from date thereof and the further sum of $75.53 costs, disbursements and attorney fee, with the costs on execution and expenses of making such sale:

I will on Saturday, the 2nd day of August, 1930, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the southwest or main entrance to the County Courthouse in Eugene, Oregon, offer for sale and sell in one tract at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, subject to redemption as by law provided, all the lots numbered 1, 2, 3 and 4 in Block number 2 of C. Cole's 2nd addition to C. Cole's Plat of Marcola, as platted and recorded in Lane county, Oregon.

H. L. BROWN, Sheriff of Lane County, Oregon. J8-10-17-24-31

THURSTON

Mr. Wrigle who bought the George place several months ago sold out to Mr. Smith from Los Angeles last week. He took possession last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weaver motored to Cottage Grove last Sunday and visited their uncle, Mr. Moore, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henson motored to Klamath Falls where they spent several days visiting Mrs. Henson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrington. They returned home last Tuesday.

Mrs. Baker from Grants Pass and Mrs. Thompson and daughter from Eugene visited Mrs. John Edmiston Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Conley is very ill at the Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene.

Mrs. Margaret Engles has been in the hospital in Eugene for several days with infection in her foot caused by a cut.

Mrs. Baker and niece, Miss Angie Hawkins spent the week-end in Junction City visiting relatives.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. James Hill Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baugh from Dorena spent last Sunday at Walter Platt's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rennie spent the week-end on the coast. They visited Waldport and Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heersma from Minnesota, who are touring the west, stopped over the week-end with their aunt, Miss Heersma of this place.

Mrs. Green from Veneta is spending some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parrot.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edmiston and daughter, Leone, and Mrs. Fred Russell are entering the business college and Miss Maude Russell is entering the beauty parlor to learn the trade.

Miss Hazel Edmiston left Wednesday to join her brother, Loren, in Oakland, California. She expects to be gone several weeks.

Leslie Peterson and mother from Salem spent Saturday at Lawrence Gossler's.

Morris Brown is cutting wood with his drag saw for John Edmiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl from Harrisburg have moved on the John and Albert Hart ranch.

CELEBRATE THE 4th IN EUGENE. At the Fox McDONALD. The COHENS AND KELLYS in SCOTLAND. FRIDAY SATURDAY. FOX REX. KEN MAYNARD. "THE SONG OF THE CABALLERO".

Even Robinson Crusoe Advertised. When he was exiled on an island, one of his first acts was to advertise for help. His advertisement was not a newspaper ad but an outdoor form of publicity. The Springfield News. "The only Newspaper in the World that is Dedicated to the Interests of Springfield People."

Vertical strip of small illustrations and text: KIN O'Y BAI GAI, HOW DO YOU PLAY THAT? YOU PLAY IT WITH A HOSE, GOSH! IT'S MORE NC THAN A F DEPARTM, POP THIN IT'S A FO BALL, HE'LL N GIT GAY ME PHE, GRAND CALED GAM.