KEEP OUT RUSSIAN LUMBER.

Congressman W. C. Hawley told the sawmill workers in Springfield Saturday that not a foot of Russian lumber should come into this country because it was all being produced by penal workers. Without stampage or wages Russian competition would be ruinous to the industry in the Pacific northwest.

Mr. Hawley told the lumber workers that the $1 tariff on lumber might be increased to $1.50 a thousand feet, under the flexible provisions of the new tariff law. While this was not sufficient he said that he believed that lumber would come into its own again when once world conditions returned to normal.

All the country east of the Rocky mountains, with a few exceptions, is against a tariff on lumber and this is the first time in 17 years there has been any duty on lumber. After the defeat of the lumber tariff in the senate only the fact that Congressman Hawley was chairman of the conference committee made it possible for any tariff to be included on lumber at all.

DON'T MAKE ROOSEVELT'S MISTAKE

Bolting the Republican ticket was the greatest mistake in his public career and one he much regretted Theodore Roosevelt told friends before he died. He repudiated the Republican party which had bestowed honors upon him and ran for president as an independent. Later he deeply regretted it.

If you are a republican and are thinking of voting for an independent candidate ask yourself when you get in the election booth November 4, "Isn't this independent candidate making the same mistake of Theodore Roosevelt?"

GRANGE BILL UNSOUND

We have the word of Judge Lawrence T. Harris that the Grange power bill will allow taxation of people without their consent, and that it may pledge their property for the payment of bonds without their consent. And finally that the Grange bill is not necessary to secure rights for a country district to go into the power business but that it can be done by the passage of a law creating a power district as has been done for road, and school districts. We have faith in the ability of the former supreme judge to interpret this bill. His analysis convinces us that the proposed bill is dangerous legislation. If the country people want to go into the power business we favor giving them the right through the passage of the proper law by the legislature.

Cottage Grove is working for a better road down the Umpqua via Drain and the further improvement of the Reedsport harbor. This is a splendid undertaking. We can not have too many good roads and deep water harbors. They are not in competition with each other but an aid in the successful use of each other, for they stimulate transportation, trade and industry. Cottage Grove is only 50 miles from deep water on the Umpqua.

Vote "No" except two is our advice on the thirteen measures. Repeal of the irrigation district bond interest and the extension of the soldiers' bonus loan are the only two worthy of a "Yes" vote in our opinion.

PROSPERITY VS. DEPRESSION

PROSPERITY is up for election, running to overthrow DEPRESSION.

It's for the people to decide which will be chosen. Every man and every woman is privileged to ballot—every day.

DEPRESSION has no rightful place with a hundred and twenty million people, exchanging goods and services—capable—accustomed and willing to work—more highly skilled than other peoples—leaders in efficiency and progressiveness—backed by the vast natural resources of the United States. When we make it possible for the man who works to have a job we make it possible for him to buy food for his family and so help all business, including that of the farmer.

The rest of the world is of small importance compared with that free market of 120,000,000 people—homogeneous—of like tastes, habits and aspirations—living under the same laws—free of trade barriers. Foreign trade may be troubled by tariffs and revolutions, but at their peak our exports represented only five and a half billions of dollars of gross business in a year out of a total American income of ninety billions.

Stagnation of circulation is what's the matter with agriculture and with Business. Everyone can help to get that circulation moving again.

Government can't make Prosperity—alone. Bankers and other business leaders can't make Prosperity—alone. It's the people, united in opinion and purpose and courage, who determine Prosperity. They can elect it—none other.

Ballots that will be validly counted for PROSPERITY are of many kinds. Some one of them every man and woman can cast. For example:

Help a deserving man or a woman to get a little paying work—or, better, a regular job.

Spend wisely and not too timidly, and anticipate scheduled expenditures so far as is practicable.

Turn the deaf ear to false, malicious rumors; and don't repeat them, if you do hear them.

Be willing to pay a fair price. Don't take advantage of the other man's necessity. Recognize that he has as good claim to a fair profit as you.

When a vampire that fattens on the miseries of others shows up, help to make him unpopular.

Discourage calamity howlers.

Keep business moving evenly, and remember that, to the average man, his job is his particular business. When possible, reassure him against fear of losing it.

Save, but save wisely, not in fright. Invest for the profit that sound enterprise pays and for the added profit that will come after the hysteria of pessimism has passed.

It is a wise policy of the highway commission and the bureau of public roads to push road maintenance and new construction wherever practicable this winter. It provides employment for otherwise idle labor and also will mean that highways will be in better condition during the traffic season next summer. More employment, less detours and bad road will surely result.

The independent candidate would like to assume the responsibility for getting a tariff on lumber. There is but one man responsible for a tariff on lumber after the schedule had failed in the senate and that was Congressman W. C. Hawley, chairman of the conference committee. On him should be bestowed whatever praise there is for the actual passage of the bill with a $1 per thousand on lumber.

Dr. J. C. Booth Stands By County Agreement

It is Linn county's time to elect a joint-senator for Linn and Lane according to the "gentleman's agreement" between the two counties of this district. Dr. J. C. Booth, of Lebanon, republican candidate for joint senator, was a visitor in Springfield Saturday and stated that this was his real reason for being a candidate. Next time it will be Lane county's turn and then we will support a candidate for this county, he said.

Dr. Booth was born in Iowa, on a farm, in 1872, and educated at Haze Dell Academy and Iowa state college. He taught school in Iowa and Oregon, coming to this state in 1896. He was graduated at Oregon University twice. He has since been practicing medicine at Lebanon for 30 years. He served with the famous 2nd Oregon volunteer regiment in the Philippines and in the 27th coast artillery in the World War as captain.

Since the war he has organized a hospital company with rank of major. He is a member of the Methodist church, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, I. O. O. F., K. of P., Moose, M. W. of A.

Dr. Booth says that he will accept the vote of the people on amendments at the coming election and regard it as a mandate for his guidance. He believes in education, municipal ownership, laws for health betterment, in the same laws, better traffic laws, and law enforcement.

DRAMATICS SCHOOL TO TEACH PLAY DIRECTING

Plans for a training school in dramatics to be held in Eugene on November 3, 4, 5 and 6, are now being formulated at the office of Miss Gertrude L. Skow, home demonstration agent for Lane county who is working with Arnold D. Collier, county club leader in organizing the training school which is the first of its kind ever to be attempted in the county.

The school is being sponsored by the extension division of the Oregon State College. The work will be carried on under the direction of Mr. Knapp, who has been with the National Playground and Recreation association of America for some time, and who is a specialist in training leaders for directing plays.

The entire enrollment for the school is limited to 40, and the enrollment for each community will be limited to two representatives. The training given will be valuable in Four-H club work, community clubs, and farmer organizations.

Play directing will be the feature of the course. Such things as make-up, costuming, lighting, scenery, and the preparation of a dramatics program will be taken up.

The temporary hours for the meeting have been set for 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, and from 1:30 to 3:30 each afternoon. Definite information as to the place and time of the meetings will be sent to all who enroll.

The last day on which enrollments can be made is Wednesday, October 29. They should be sent either Miss Skow or Mr. Collier.
