

It says here by Prof. Arthur Moss, der eminent French child specialist, about der lack of firmness in parents, recently. Some things vot hits der nail right smack on der point.

The Outline of Oscar

DER COLLAPSE OF DISCIPLINE, ALREADY

Absolutely I agree mit der author of diss work on behaviorism, dot in der younger generation dere iss too little respect for authority, und dot firm discipline iss necessary during der formative years!

und in der meantime

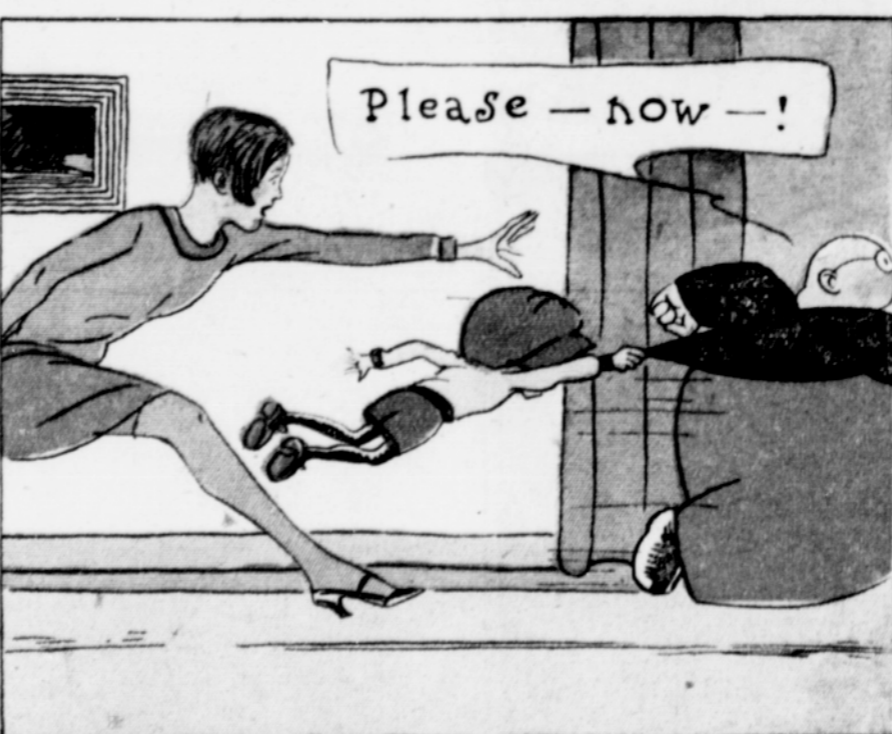

Dorothy! Horace! Get to work! I want you to finish raking diss yard at vunce! Und I want —

You-want-what!?!?

Get him!

Please — now —!

Ooooh — shtop diss! I neffer said it! Please! I cant shtand diss tickling bissness! — Ooooh please dont do diss! D-o-n-t! I take it back! — Ooooo-oo!

WAITIN' FOR WIFIE -

LOVA MIKE, LILLIAN, — COME ON, COME ON. — I'M ALL READY.

GOONESS ME, ARE YOU EVER COMING?

WAIT'LL I BRUSH MY COAT.

OH, IT'S ALL RIGHT.

NO IT AINT! IT'S FULL OF FUZZ. — THIS COAT CATCHES EVERYTHING.

THERE YOU GO, EXAGGERATING AGAIN -

IT DOES! IT CATCHES EVERYTHING.

GET OUT. — IT HASN'T HAD MEASLES OR WHOOPIN' COUGH -
