ssitted A

NOTICE OF FINAL HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the un-dersigned has filed her final account as administratrix of the Estate of Frank W. Shinners, Deceased, and hat the court has set 10:00 A. M. of Friday, Dec. 26, 1930, at the time when at the chambers of the county court in the Court House, in Eugene, regon, the court will take up said final account for examination and allowance and make an order for the assignment of the residue of said estate. All persons interested therein may appear at said hearing and be heard in reference thereto.

BRIDGET SHINNERS. Administratrix. S. D. Allen, atorney for Estate. N27-D4-11-18-25

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that the un dersigned has been duly appointed Executrix of the estate of Abraham Layton, deceased, and any and all persons having claims against the said estate are hereby required to resent said claims, duly verified as lamette St., in Eugene, in Lane County, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated and first published December 18th, 1930.

EMMA LAYTON, Executrix of the estate of Abraham

Layton, deceased.
Address 793 West 5th St. H. E. Slattery, Attorney for Executrix, D.18-25-J.1-8-15

Estate of Charles E. Brattain, Dec'd.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS Notice is hereby given that Elva M

Brown has been by the County Court of the State of Oregon in and for Lane County, appointed Executrix of the last will and testament of Charles E.

Brattain, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to pregent the same duly stated and verified, at the residence of A. E. Wheeler, 710 Lawrence St. in Eugene, Oregon, within six months from this 18th day of December, 1930. ELVA M. BROWN, Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Charles E. Brattain, Deceased. A. E. Wheeler, Attorney.

SHERIFF SALE

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution to me directed, issued out of the circuit court of the State of Oregon for Lane county, upon a judgment entered in said court on 21st day of October, 1930, and docketed therein on the 22nd day of of October 1930, in an action wherein Hugh Edwards was plaintiff and J. H. Heron was defendant, I have levied upon and will sell at public auction the highest bidder for cash, on the 27th day of December, 1930, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the front door of the court house in the city of Eugene, Oregon, the following property, and undivided one half part the following tract:

Beginning at a point 30 links south of a point 7.23 chains east of a stone set in county survey No. 1170 of the recorded surveys of Lane county, Oregon, for the center of section 36 in Township 18 south of Range 4 west Township 18 south of Range 4 words of the Willamette meridian, and run thence east 10.87 chains to the middle after the date of this notice.

CHAS. W. JOHNSON, of the county road thence along the center of said county road as follows, South 5 degrees 32 minutes west 4.74 chains, south 41 degrees west 2.12 chains, south 54 degrees west 2.94 chains, south 56 degrees west 5.00 chains, south 70 degrees west 2.47 chains thence leaving said road and running north 12.71 chains to the place of beginning, situated in Lane lowed.

H. L. BOWN,

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That Maude E. Caley, the executrix of the last will and testament and estate of Edith Caley, deceased, has rendered and filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane her final account and on Sat-urday, the 10th day of January, 1931, at the County Court room in the Court House in the City of Eugene, Oregon, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day has been by order of said Court filed and appointed as the day, time and place for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof. All objections must be in writing and filed with the Clerk of said Court on or before said day and time.

Dated this 11th day of December, MAUDE E. CALEY. D. 11-18-25-J.1-8

NOTICE OF, FINAL SETTLEMENT

Fred E. Lemley, Executor of the last will and testament and estate of Vina by law required, at the law office of McLean, deceased, has rendered and my attorney, H. E. Slattery, 717 Wil-filed in th County Court of the State Ella Kenney, his wife, were defendof Oregon for the County of Lane, 17th day of January, 1931, at the County Court room in the Court House hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day has been by order of said must be in writing and filed with the Clerk of said Court on or before said 1930.

FRED. E. LEMLEY, D.18-25-J.1-8-15

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That Cornelia S. Chase, as executrix of the last will and testament and estate of Henry W. Chase, deceased, has filed her final account in said estate, and the County Court of Lane County, Ore gon has fixed Monday, the 12th day of January, 1931 at the hour of 10:00 Lane County, Oregon as the time and D. 18-25-J.1-8-15 place for the hearing of said final

All persons having objections to said final account are notified to present the same in writing on or before said time. Dated this 11th day of December, CORNELIA S. CHASE, Executrix of Last Will and Testa-nent and Estate of Henry W. Chase, deceased.

Karris, Smith and Bryson, Eugene, Oregon, Attorneys for Executrix. D. 11-18-25-J.1-8

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the order of the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, as admin-LEWIS H. MOREHOUSE, istrator of the estate of Harry C Jackson, deceased; all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same properly verified to the undersigned administrator at the office of Fred E. Smith, Attorney at Law, 445-6 Miner Build-Administrator. Fred E. Smith, Attorney for Administrator.

D.11-18-25-J.1-8

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT

the undersigned administratrix of the about 12 acres, and all the right, filed her account for the final settletitle and estate which the defendant ment of said estate in the County

> BIRDIE L. ISH, Sheriff of Lane county. N27-D4-11-18-25 L. L. Ray, Attorney for Estate. D.4-11-19

> > Walker-Poole Chapel

Funeral Directors

228 Main St. Residence 125 C St.

Futi Anto Equipment

Lady Assistant

62 M

Wanted Work

The Community Center has the following people listed who need work:

One Painter and Paper Hanger Four Common Laborer One Skilled Steef Sharpener One Stationary Engineer

One Skilled Rock Man Four Women for House Work.

Help the unemployed whenever you an. List your jobs with the Community Red Cross Center at the Chamber of Commerce.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County November 21st, 1930, upon and NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That pursuant to a decree duly given and made by the said Court November 20th, 1930, in a suit pending therein in which Mary Hostick was plaintiff and Carl Marks, H. C. Kenney and final account and on Saturday, the sale was to execution and order of sale was to me directed and cammanded me to sell the real property hereinafter described to satisfy in the City of Eugene, Oregon, at the tain liens and charges in said decree specified, I will on Saturday, the 27th Court fixed and appointed as the day, of One o'clock P. M. at the southwest day of December, 1930, at the hour time and place for the hearing of door of the County Court-house in objections to said final account and Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, offer the settlement thereof. All objections for sale and sell at public auction for cash, subject to redemption as provided by law, all of the right, title and interest of the defendants Dated this 15th day of December, in said suit and of all parties claiming by, through or under them or any of them since the 20th day of November, 1930, in or to the following described real property, to-wit: The North half of the Southeast quarter, and the South half of the Northeast quarter of Sec. twenty-one (21) in Township Fifteen (15) South, Range One (1) West of the Willamette Meridian, Lane County, Oregon, try on excepting therefrom forty two acres sold to D. F. Marks as shown by deed dated April 25th, 1922, and recorded in Book 131, page 616 Lane o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the County Courthouse in Eugene, the water right therein received the water right therein reserved.

Dated this 26th day of November, H. L. BOWN,

Sheriff of Lane County, Oregon. N27-D4-11-18-25 Estate of Elizabeth Morehouse, Deceased. Notice is hereby given that Lewis door and opened it.

4. Morehouse has been by the County Court of the State of Oregon, in and or Lane County, appointed executor the last will and testament of Elizabeth Morehouse, deceased.

the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to present the same, duly stated and verified at the residence of A. E. Wheeler, 710 Lawrence street, in Eugene, Oregon, within six months

Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Morehouse, deceased.

A. E. Wheeler, Attorney. N27-D4-11-18-25 NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County November 21st, 1930, upon and pursuant to a decree duly given and made by the said Court November 20th, 1930, in a suit pending therein in which Mary Hostick was plaintiff and D. F. Marks and Jennie V. Marks, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That his wife, were defendants, which execution and order of sale was to me county, Oregon, said tract containing estate of J. W. Ish, deceased, has directed and commanded me to sell the real property hereinafter described to satisfy certain liens and late, do you mean? My dear man-" had therein on said 21st day of Octourt for Lane County, Oregon, and charges in said decree specified, I will tober, 1930 or any subsequent date, that Saturday, the 3rd day of Jan on Saturday the 27th day of Decemto satisfy the following sums adjudged to be due plaintiff, $300 damages, $56 Court, in the County Court House, dollars costs of said action, $30 at in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, at County Court-house in Eugene, Lane torneys fees, with interest on said ten o'clock in the foreno n, has been county, Oregon, offer for sale and soul. Do you think I don't underseveral summer at legal rate since Oct by said Court fixed as the time and sell at public auction for cash, sub stand? do you think I'm such a fool 21st, 1930, together with the costs of place for hearing objections thereto, ject to redemption as provided by law, that you can take me in for one minute making such sale. Said sale will be and for the final settlement of said all of the right, title and interest of subject to redemption as by law alestate. all parties claiming by, through or Administratrix of the Estate. under them or any of them since the move a step from him he caught her D.4-11-18-25-J.1 to the following described real property to-wit: tion 21 tp. 15. S. R. 1 W. W. M., Lane County, Oregon, lying east of the County Road, and more particularly described as follows to-wit: Begianing at a point in the East line of drunk—" Section 21, Tp. 15 S. R. 1 W. W. M. Julie la 20.00 chains South of the Northeast corner thereof and running thence along the section line, south 40.00 chains; thence west 10.25 chains to let me spoil this soul-saving lecture. the center of the County road; thence You've mistaken your vocation. You Northerly along the center of the county road to a point due west of the point of beginning; thence east 11.74 chains to the place of beginning; containing 42.00 acres of land in Lane you in a clerical collar, with all the County, Oregon, together with the use of the water from the spring on the land adjoining the above described property in Sec. 21, Tp. 15 S. R. 1 W. W. M. Lane County, Oregon, which said land belonged to Carl Marks as shown by that certain deed dated April 25th. 1922 and recorded in Book 131 page 626 Lane County Deed

Ruby M. Ayres

"With Schofield?"

"That's my affair."

doing exactly as I please-"

astonishing how suddenly the storm

Chittenham was not a conceited man, but by his own love for Julie he measured her love for him, an unhappy love that would give neither of them rest or peace, and could not bring happiness, and realizing this he

"Oh, my dear, it's not worthy of it harder for both than it already me to see you as you were last night

The tender sincerity of his voice

a little and caught at a chair back, but when Chittenham would have gone to her she waved him furiously away.

"Don't touch me. Don't come near

For a moment she struggled hard or self control, then she was erect

"You said when I came in, that once more and facing him defiantly.

this must stop. Well, I agree, and so we'll just settle it now once and for all. And will you please understand, Mr. Chittenham, that you and I are nothing whatever to one another, quiet, almost expressionless.

any vices themselves, have they?"

time,' she said sharply.

desire to sting her.

of your noble sex,"

Julie laughed.

ious to marry me-"

ness of yours-'

lous marriage."

I love talks of rushing into a ridicu-

"The woman you love!" Julie's face flamed. "How infinitely touching! and me yourself. Think of the divine bliss we should experience—think of Julie slipped past him and opened

Bim spoke from the narrow hall

"Julie, dear, Mr. Schofield has just the happy-ever-after ending. . . ."

"Please go,' she said.

rather nervously:

pose."

the man."

But Julie calmly agreed.

suddenly broke out passionately:

night-

had arisen.

-to . . .

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE Giles Chittenham swears to avenge the death of his young half-brother Rodney, driven to suicide by the no-his love. He will make Julie love him, then throw her aside as she threw Rodney. He meets her in Switzerland, goes with her to the hotel on the St. Bernard Pass, and succeeds in winning her love. To his amazement, he discovers that he has fallen overwhelmingly in love with her him self! And he is married, to an American girl with whom he has nothing

Then he discovers that this girl is not the same Julie Farrow who ruined Rodney, but her cousin of the same name. She scorns him when he con-fesses his love and his inability to marry her. They meet later in Lon-Another man, Lawrence Schofield wants to marry her, in spite of

Through his friend Lombard, Giles Chittenham meets the "other Julie," the notorious woman who had ruined Rodney's life. She tells him that she is going to die; the doctors have given her up as incurable and she is leaving England. She is worried about her cousin, the girl Chittenham loves. That Julie-his Julie-is going in fast company, among them a common American girl nomed Sadie Bar-

And Sadie Barrow is Giles Chitten-ham's wife. He did not know that she was in England. That night he meets her at a party at his mother's house. They pretend to be strangers Giles learns that Sadie Barrow, his wife, has gone in for spiritualism and is attending seances by a medium named Chryer.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

A maid tapped at the door and entered.

'Please, Miss Farrow, will you see Mr. Chittenham?"

Julie swung around from the contemplation of her pale face beneath the brim of the green hat which she had picked up from the bed to "No," she said sharply. "I'm just and never have been. If you want to going out. Say I am engaged." "Very good, Miss."

The door closed quietly behind the maid and Bim said a trifle maliciously:

"He will think you are afraid of him, Julie."

Julie's cheeks flamed. "Afraid-!"

"Wait a moment-" The maid, already half-way across the little passage, turned. "Tell Mr. Chittenham I will see him

All persons having claims against in five minutes," Julie said and went back to her bedroom. Chittenham was standig by the mantel-shelf looking at an impressionist photograph of Bim Lennox, but heart, if it is not already broken." he turned at once when the door "Hullo!" Julie greeted him with a casual nod. "What in the world brings you here at such an early hour? I've only just crawled out of bed my self." She spoke rather loudly and defiantly, and she deliberately left the door open behind her. Chittenhom stepped past her and closed it, then he came back to where she stood

"This has got to stop, Julie," he said without preamble. Julie opened her eyes wide.

"Stop?" she echoed blankly. "What has got to stop? my getting up so He interrupted ruthlessly.

"The whole of this miserable, damn able clay-acting has got to stop. You're ruining yourself and me body by all this-this childishness-?"

Before she could prevent him or 20th day of December, 1930, in or by the shoulders, roughly turning her round to the morning sunlight which All that part of the South half of streamed through the window. "Look the Northeast quarter and the North at the stuff on your face? You'd half of the Southeast quarter of Sec. have scorned to use that much two months ago. Look at the life you're leading-when you left my mother's house last night-you were horribly Julie laughed in his face. "Delightfully drunk!" she mocked him coolly. "But go on, go on! Don't ought to have been a low-church par- the door. son instead of what you are-a coward and a cheat. . . . I can just picture old tabbies in the congregation-"

"Julie-!"

driven up-" She wrenched herself free of him. "I'm coming at once." "I object to being called by my Christian name by you. I hat the name anyway. You can keep it for

There was an eloquent silence after the door had slammed behind her, then Bim half shrugggd her shoulders my estimable cousin-she'll appre- and went into the sitting-room where ing? Giles stood staring out of the window. ciate your cave-man attentions and I "Don't be too angry with her, Mr.

Chittenham," she said. "I am so sorry, so dreadfully sorry." He turned and looked at her.

"It's all my fault," he broke out agitatedly. "And there's' nothing I can do to put it right-nothing."

The telephone rang suddenly and Bim went across the room to answer

"Yes? . . . No, Bim Lennox speaking. Oh-yes, Miss Barrow. No, she's just gone out. Can I give her a message? Oh . . . yes, very well-tomorrow afternoon at four."

Bim hung up the receiver and tudned. There was a little angry frown between her level brows. Do you believe in spiritualism, Mr.

already? Well, good luck to her, she's Chittenham?" she asked. welcome. And if you've only come "No." here to behave like a bully you'd "Nor do I, but it seems all the better go-I've a lunch appointment-" fashion just now. There is to be a seance or whatever you call it at your mother's house tomorrow after-"If he was a decent fellow he'd stop noon. That was Miss Barrow 'phoning your nonsense. He'd never have al- She's an ardent believer-" lowed you to do what you did last "She never used . . ." Giles began, then stopped. "You flatter your sex. All the men

"It's all nonsense," he protested in the world could not stop me from angrily. "A pack of charlatans duping a lot of silly women." They faced one another like deadly

"Julie is going, too. They have got enemies, white and shaken. It was hold of some wonderful new medium-" Bim's voice was quietly sarcastic. "They have invited me, but it's not the sort of thing I care about." Chittenham frowned.

at s not the sort of thing any neariny-minded person would care as any may, anu- no paused. At as impossible to ten Bim that his mother had declared she would not mave sume in her house again. "1 you or of our love! Must you make nope you will try and dissuade Miss. sarrow irom going," he added. is? . . . Do you think it's nothing to Dim shrugged her shoulders. you might as well ask me to try and stop Niagara," she said hopelessly. once June has made up her mind lmost broke her down. She swayed nothing will change it." Bim went with him to the door, out after they had said good-bye he nesitated and came back. Miss Lennox-don't leave her if you can help it.'

"You see-" He flushed, and stopped, only to flounder on again.

You see, it's all my fault-all my cursed stupidity." 'i know. Julie told me.

"She told you?"

"Yes."

"And I suppose you think . . . what hear the truth I even rather dislike do you think?" Bim smiled. you. However foolish you once

"it would be so easy for me to say thought me . . Oh,, I'm not shirking the memory, if you are-' she broke that I think you behaved like a knave -so easy to rail at you, but I don't out as he would have spoken. "I am quite willing to admit that for one night, just a few hours-I let you nothing ever seems to go quite right think I rather liked you. Don't blame for any of us, does it?-at least that me for that. It was the snow and the is my experience. We can only just She made an impetuous rush to the wind, and being up there so far away go on-hoping that something will from every one . . . In the morning turn up to straighten things out, and it had all gone, and as I said then, it so seldom does. I often wonder we had come back to earth again." if it isn't because we lack courage." Her voice was studiously cold and "What do you mean?"

"I mean courage to face facts and "You will make your name a by. see things as they really are-" She word, even amongst these-these ridic- looked away from him. "Mr. Chittenulous people you call your friends." ham, you know Julie doesn't really . . . "And that, of course, will break my hate you-"

She laughed rather sadly. "I suppose I ought not to have told Julie sneered. "It matters so much what people like Doris Gardner and you that, but I can't bear to see her Sadie Barrow say . . . They haven't as she is now, so reckless, so broken . . ."

"A least Sadie does not drink," She stopped, afraid she had said too Chittenham interrupted unthinkingly. much, and for a moment there was a He saw the sudden look of angry profound silence, then Chittenham suprise that flashed into Julie's eyes. held out his hand again. "Thank you," he said. "You seem to have found out a great deal about Sadie in a short As Chittenham walked away from

'One does not have to be either thing. He would ask Sadie to divery quick or very inquisitive to find vorce him. out such a thing," Giles answered. "As If Julie still loved him . . . in his a matter of fact I find her very charm- heart he was sure that she did, and the flat he made up his mind to one ing," he added with an almost childish nothing else mattered. He had promised to lunch with his mother, but in his eargerness he for-"So do I. She and I have a great got about it, and went straight to the deal in common. Chiefly our dislike hotel where Sadie was staying.

She was out and they did not know "Schofield always excepted, I sup- when she would be back. Gffes left a message asking her to ring him up. He waited till six o'clock and rang "Lawrence Schofield certainly ex- up Julie's flat.

"No, Julie is not in. She rang just cepted. He is a great friend of mine he is rich, and moreover he is anx- now to say she was dining out and not coming home to change. I think "You don't care two straws about she is with Mr. Schofield still."

Giles hung the receiver and turned "On the contrary, I care a great away. He was powerless, and yet he many straws. Not that it is any busi- knew that he could never be content to let things remain as they were. "It is my business when the woman He must see Julie again, somehow . . . Some one tapped at his door.

"Mr. Lombard to see you sir." "Counfound! . . . Oh, well, show him up." what a pity you are not free to marry Lombard seemed nervous and apologetic. "I say-" he broke out suddenly. "I'm in the devil of a fix-" Chittenham looked up.

"Money?" "How did you know?"

(Continued Next Week) Teacher-"If Columbus were alive

today, wouldn't he be looked upon as a remarkable man? Jimmy-I'll tell the world. He would be 500 years old.

Boxcar Bill-Why is Archie stand-

Sidedoor Sam-They're playing his Alma Mater.

Boxcar Bill-What is that? Sidedoor Sam - The "Prisoner's

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

General Law Practice

I. M. PETERSON

Attorney-at-Law

City Hall Building Springfield, Ore.

D. W. Roof JEWELER

Repairing a Specialty Springfield, Oregon

Lane County's Oldest Breeders S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS SPRINGFIELD OREGON

Phone 31-F-14

NELSON LEGHORN FARM

Sutton Building

ATTORNEY AT LAW

FRANK A. DE PUE

NOTARY PUBLIC Springfield Oregon

Dated this 26th day of November, don't-she . . ." 1930.

H. L. BOWN, Sheriff of Lane County, Oregon. Nov.27-D.4-11-18-25

are-" Giles said savagely. Julie shrugged her shoulders.

"She's a braver woman than you