CHURCH CONCERT SUNDAY

A large audience was present at the Christian church Sunday evening for the pre-sermon concert given by the orchestra and vocalists. A very interesting program was given and was well received. The first part of the program consisted of two numbers by the orchestra under the direction of Dallas Murphy. They were: 'Barcarole" and "March Company A. This was followed by a vocal solo, Thou Art My God", sung by Veltie

Pruitt, minister of the church. Other numbers on the program were two vocal duets by Veltie Pruitt and Mrs. Roland Moshier, "Won't You Set Us Free" from the New World Symphony by Dvorak and Felton, and "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" by Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Ambrose and Felton, sung by Veltie Pruitt. These last three numbers were sung with an instrumental obligate played by Dallas Murphy, Jim MacManiman, Dean Beals, and Wm.
