BAPTIST CONTEST GROUP BANQUETS HERE TUESDAY ATTENDANCE INCREASED

Norton Pengra's campaign team was adjudged victorious Sunday morning in the eight weeks Sunday school attendance contest which has been conducted at the church during the first two months of the year and which ended Sunday morning. Wilfred Cook captured the losing side of the contest.

Leaders of the contest had agreed that the winning group should have a chicken dinner at the church and that the losing side should eat beans at the same time and place, but members of the winning side suddenly became generous and offered to share their chicken if the others would share their beans. As a result the entire group enjoyed a chicken and bean dinner Tuesday night.

More than 1000 points were secured by the winning side in the contest. Their opponents were not far behind, having well over the 900 mark themselves.

The total attendance Sunday morning was two hundred and sixty-eight. This was the largest attendance recorded at the Sunday school for many years. One member of the losing side was credited with bringing twenty-seven alone. Mrs. M. A. Rice was secretary of the contest.
