

THURSTON

The measles are making another run in Thurston. Some of the latest victims are Frank and Harold Rennie, James Edmiston and Harvey Calvert.

The play, "Leave It to Dad" which was given by the high school last Friday evening was well patronized.

Mrs. Laura Hadley from Hadleyville visited her mother, Mrs. Ellen Needham, a few days ago.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the Thurston hall last Wednesday evening to consider sending the high school students to Springfield to school.

Mrs. Charles Grant enjoyed a visit last week with her sister and family from Idaho.

daughters, Veda and Elva, and Mrs. Martha McKinney motored to Signal last Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lum Mays.

Mrs. Blanche Wise from Eugene spent the week-end in Thurston. Ralph Bonney, who is working at Oakridge spent Sunday with his wife here.

Hugh Doolittle visited relatives here last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society is meeting with Mrs. Roy Edmiston for an all-day meeting on Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Grant enjoyed a visit last week with her sister and family from Idaho.

MCDONALD AUDIENCE TO SEE "BACHELOR FATHER"

Opening Friday for two days at the Fox McDonald, following the run of Marion Davies in "The Bachelor Father," which closes on Thursday night, John Gilbert in "A Gentleman's Fate," will be the main talkie attraction in Eugene this week-end.

"A Gentleman's Fate" offers Gilbert his first virile role, in a romantic adventure in the underworld, and to say that he rises to great heights, both as a fighter and lover, is putting it mildly, according to advance reports.

A superb cast is seen in support of the popular star, Leila Hyams, of "Part Time Wife" fame playing opposite, with Anita Page, Louis Wolheim and Marie Prevost featured.

Incidentally, "A Gentleman's Fate" is the final appearance of Wolheim on the screen, his untimely death having deprived the talkies of one of its best liked actors, and a veteran of the stage.

Wolheim's role in "A Gentleman's Fate" is said to equal his characterization in "All Quiet on the Western Front," for which role, as well as his original creation of Captain Flagg in the stage version of "What Price Glory," he will long be remembered.

FAIRBANKS IS "REACHING FOR MOON"; COLONIAL

A new Douglas, or better, the Douglas the world knows in his zipping mood, a laughing, up-and-going actor-athlete brimming with enthusiasm, pep and bon-homme is to be found out at the United Artists Studios these days. It is the same Doug who brought a boundless energy and a desire to know things onto the old Triangle lot when he was making his motion picture debut in such high-tension entertainments as "The Lamb," and "His Picture in the Papers."

The man who has immortalized dynamic force in the movies and is a symbol of the phrase, "perpetual motion" feels that he is once again at the beginning of a career. The attitude of Douglas Fairbanks the first, is that there is plenty to learn about the new medium, talking pictures, which he claims is unlike either the stage or the silent screen.

Doug has just completed "Reaching for the Moon" which comes to the Colonial theatre on Sunday for a big run. It is the first picture he has made in years in which he does not officiate as producer.

Mistress—I hope you are habitually truthful, Mabel.

New Girl—I am on my own account, ma'am. I only tell lies to callers for the family.

And now, as we are about to close, may we suggest that even Jonah wouldn't have had so much trouble had the whale kept his mouth shut?

When I see a man who exhibits bad taste and bad judgment in everything, I know that he is a person of iron will. Bulldog resolution has made him what he is—a perfect fool.

"Are your fond of bananas?" asked the young lady of the young man, who was a little deaf.

He looked puzzled, then replied: "No, I prefer the old-fashioned night shirt."

"Afraid of stomach gas I lived on soup for 5 months. Then I tried Adlerika and now I eat most anything without any gas."—Mrs. A. Connor.

Adlerika relieves stomach gas in TEN minutes!... is on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing old poisonous waste you never knew was there. Don't fool with medicine which cleans only PART of bowels, but let Adlerika give stomach and bowels a REAL cleaning and get rid of all gas! Flanery's Drug Store.

"THE PAINTED DESERT" WILL BE SHOWN HERE

Framed against the colorful background of rainbow-hued sands and towering peaks, "The Painted Desert," Bill Boyd's new Pathe picture, comes to the Bell Theatre on Sunday for three days.

Drama, thrills and romance are packed into this exciting saga of the old west.

Concerning the rivalry of two hardy pioneers dating back to the occasion when an orphan child came into their lives and because of jealousy broke up a strong friendship, the story is conspicuously marked by gripping drama and stirring adventure.

Tonight is the last chance local people will have to see the Alaskan salmon story film, "Silver Horde," with Louis Wolheim.

"Beyond The Law" will play at the theatre on Friday and Saturday.
