

FIGHT BETWEEN A SHARK AND A TIGER

THE YARNS OF BILL

BY ARMI-

The yarn today is about an adventure I won't soon forget. At th' time it happened I was one of th' crew of th' ship, Flyin' Cloud, bound from Calcutta to Boston. In a cage on deck was a savage tiger bein' shipped to th' zoo in Boston.

One mornin' as th' skipper was walkin' th' quarter-deck he saw a shark swimmin' alongside. Orderin' one of th' men to bring th' shark-hook and a piece of salt pork, he also had a tackle rigged to hoist Mr. Shark aboard if he was caught.

Well s'r, th' shark was hooked and hauled up above th' deck in short order. Th' tiger must have smelled th' shark for he let out a roar that scared th' men holdin' th' rope fastened to th' shark. Down came that big fish on top of th' tiger's cage. There was a crash and th' next minute th' tiger leaped out on deck. In just about three seconds all hands were in th' riggin'.

Before th' tiger could get his bearin' th' shark whacked him with his tail alongside th' head. Then around th' deck th' two of em flopped and scratched, th' tiger yowlin' like a big tom-cat and th' shark clashin' his teeth. Quicker'n a wink th' shark grabbed th' tiger's paw. Wow, what a scratchin' and yowlin' there was then.

When we saw that th' tiger couldn't get away we hopped to th' deck and had him tied up in no time, and then we killed th' shark. After we'd bandaged th' tiger's paw we fixed up his cage and locked him up again. Later, when he was in th' zoo, people came to see th' tiger that had fought with a shark.

World Color Printing Co., St. Louis, Mo.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS! -ONE REEL-

I'M SURPRISED AT BILL KOOFUS. WHY?

I OFFERED TO BUY HIM A DRINK AND HE REFUSED IT. MY GOONNESS

TEZZER.- HE TOLD ME HE STOPPED DRINKING. MY! OH MY! WHY?

HE CAME HOME UNDER THE INFLUENCE AND HAD A TERRIBLE SHOCK. A SHOCK?

YES INDEED! HE THOUGHT HIS NEW BABY WAS TWINS.