

OIL STATION IN CITY TORN DOWN

Standard Oil Plant at Second and Main Streets Disappears During Week-end

Razing of the Standard Stations, Inc. service station at Second and Main streets was completed here this week. Every vestige of the former gasoline station has been removed and the lot very neatly cleaned up. Even a new sidewalk has replaced the long driveway of the station.

The station was built in 1928 for the Standard Oil company and was operated for the greater part of the time by Virgil Jones. Reasons for the action of the owners of the station have not been given to the public, but it is understood that they are following a similar procedure in other places where they have already or contemplate the disposition of properties which they have on leased ground. One station in Eugene was razed last week-end, and another at Creswell has been torn down and moved to Westfir on the upper Willamette highway.

Also scheduled on the program for the evening will be a talk on home improvement work by Miss Gertrude Skow. Lane county home demonstration agent. Miss Skow will talk on the subject, "The House You Live In."

"SILENCE" IS THRILLING MELODRAMA AT REX

"Silence," which a few years ago thrilled Broadway audiences on the stage, has been brought to the screen by Paramount under the direction of Max Marcin, its author, and Louis Gasnier, and will show at the Rex Tuesday.

The thrilling melodrama which has stood the test of time has been filmed with Clive Brook playing the role which H. B. Warner made famous on the stage. Marjorie Rambeau and Peggy Shannon have the chief feminine parts, and handsome Charles Starrett, who played opposite Mariam Hopkins in "Fast and Loose," carries the juvenile role.

"Silence" is the story of a likable and handsome crook whose crimes bring ruin and death to the woman he loves. His daughter, while a baby, is taken from him and brought up in the home of a kind foster-father. Years later, the crook, still pursuing his lawless career, meets his daughter. When the girl is threatened with disgrace and ruin because of her real father's past, the crook, by a great sacrifice, attempts to shield her. Only the girl's great love and courage save him from death.

"HEARTBREAK" OPENS AT REX THEATRE SUN.

Gay Vienna striving bravely to make light of the terrific strain and heartache of conflict serves as the opening setting of "Heartbreak." Fox drama starring Charles Farrell and Madge Evans, playing Sunday at the Rex theatre.

In the formal gardens of Count Walden, where Farrell, as a handsome young American diplomat meets and falls in love with Madge Evans, an Austrian countess, a charity fete for the benefit of disabled heroes in the progress as the picture opens.

Under the vari-colored lights are fortune-telling booths, Punch and Judy shows, a gypsy band in their colorful native dress, strolling Austrian and Prussian officers with beautiful Viennese companions, and everywhere a forced gaiety and laughter meant to conceal the pain in their hearts, that they cannot quiet.

These Girls Are Fashion Experts

HUGH BOWEN PASSES MONDAY MORNING

Hugh Bowen, resident of Route 1, Springfield, died at the Pacific Christian hospital Monday morning following a short illness. Mr. Bowen was born at Monroe, Oregon, March 17, 1873, and moved with his parents to Lebanon a few years later.

In 1906 he met and married Christine Clem. They moved to Alberta, Canada, in 1917, and returned to make their home at Eugene in 1924, residing there until a year ago when they moved to their farm home near this city.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Christine Bowen; two daughters, Mrs. Nels Jensen, Junction City; and Mrs. Claude Bryant, Eugene; one grandson; one sister, Mrs. Effie St. Clair, Cottage Grove, and two brothers, Harry Bowen, Monroe, and Dick Bowen, Minnehick, Alberta, Canada.

Funeral services were held from the Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chapel in Eugene on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Workman of Marcola officiated and interment was made in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.

UNIVERSITY GROUP TO CONDUCT SERVICES

"Light That Saves" will be the subject of the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. Dean C. Poindexter, pastor will preach the sermon. The pastor will also be present at the Sunday school hour for the first time. He has formerly had to conduct services at Coburg during that hour, but has arranged to have Rev. F. S. Clemo go there and preach Sunday. S. Y. Bartholomew will accompany him and they will remain for the Sunday school period following the service which begins at 9:45.

A special treat is in store for the evening service. A group of the young people of the Wesley Foundation at the university will be here and will have charge of the Epworth League service at 6:30. They will also provide the evening program. This will consist of music and discussions of life in foreign lands by some of the foreign students on the campus.

Give Him a Ticket

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Baugh Had Been Married Fifty Years; Friends Congratulate

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Baugh of Thurston, Sunday observed their Golden Wedding anniversary with a large noon dinner for immediate members of the family, and the afternoon and evening were given over to meeting their many friends and neighbors who gathered to felicitate the early Lane county settlers.

Mr. Baugh presented his wife with a gold ring in commemoration of their fiftieth anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Baugh were married on January 2, 1882 at Rappah, Nebraska. Mrs. Baugh was formerly Miss Rita Stanble. She was born in Wisconsin in August 1859. Mr. Baugh was born in September, 1859, being just one month older than his wife. He was born in London, England.

The couple came to Oregon in 1903 from Hyamis, Nebraska, and have resided on their farm near Thurston since that time.

Two children, Ray Baugh, Thurston, and Mrs. William Culver of Eugene, and two grandchildren, Harry and Ella Baugh, are living and were present Saturday.

MANY WILL ATTEND ENESCO CONCERT SUN.

Special Admission Set at 25 Cents For General Public; Reserved Seats Sell For 50 Cents

Thousands of Lane county people will be given an opportunity Sunday afternoon to hear Georges Enesco, world famous Rumanian violinist, when he appears in concert at McArthur court in Eugene at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Associated Students.

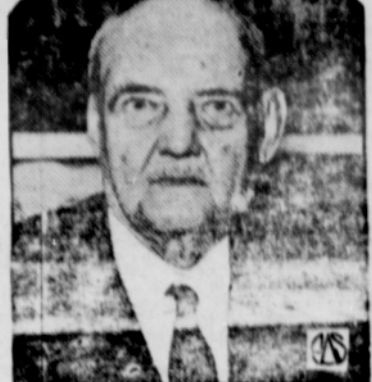

Of special interest to local people will be the announcement that the concert will be open to the general public at an admission charge of 25 cents and 50 cents for reserved seats. A large number of Springfield people have indicated that they will take advantage of this unusual opportunity.

Enesco is scheduled to arrive in Eugene late Saturday night direct from New York where he landed from Paris Monday. He is making his first Pacific coast appearance in Eugene, and will go to Portland Monday where he will appear with the Portland Symphony orchestra that evening as guest artist.

Enesco was a child prodigy. He was entered in the Vienna conservatory at the age of seven. At eleven he won first prize in violin composition in the conservatory. He has written a great deal of violin music and was made court violinist under Queen Carmen Sylva and continued in this capacity under Queen Marie of Rumania.

This is the first of a series of talented artists to be brought to Eugene during the winter and spring season by the Associated Students.

REED-REAGAN TO TUSSLE FRIDAY

Pete Becker Meets Wisconsin Boy in Forty-Five Minute Preliminary Event

The many Springfield sport fans who saw the Robin Reed-Pat Reagan wrestling match at the Eugene armory last week were pleased this week when they heard the announcement that the same two gentlemen will be given another chance to show their stuff.

Last week Reagan was pitted against Reed, present holder of the World's welterweight belt, in a belt contest. He could not make the 145 weight limit demanded by the champion and he refused to post the belt under other conditions. The match was held but the belt was not at stake.

Reagan complained that the weight imposition was a handicap to him and the wrestlers have agreed to battle again Friday night at catch-weight without posting the belt. Reagan hails from Casper, Wyoming, and Reed makes his home at Reedsport.

Pete Becker, Salt Lake City fighter-wrestler, and Jimmie King, Wisconsin lad, will appear in a fast 45 minute preliminary event. This is King's first visit to Eugene. Both are reported to be tough and rough and the match should be interesting.
