THE SPRINGFIELD NEWS

Springfield, Lane County, Oregon, by THE WILLAMETTE PRESS

Entered as second class matter, February 24, 1903, at the postoffice,

H. E. MAXEY, Editor

Springfield, Oregon. MAIL SUBSCRIPTION RATE $1.75 Three Months One Year in Advance $1.00 Single Copy Six Months

THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1932

PLANT A GARDEN!

The civic organizations of Springfield are going to give prizes for the best gardens and most improved premises this season. Probably there has never been a time when there was a better reason that each family should have a garden than now-a good garden can contribute much to the support of any family.

There are few spots on the globe where a greater variety of vegetables can be raised than in this vicinity. If you haven't a garden plot the city council has volunteered to Getting back to the soil not only helps one to help himself but also elevates depressed spirits. In the garden all men, rich or poor and with every political creed, find a common ground to meet on. Let the garden movement go for-

Congressman Hawley has decided that he will stay on the job in Washington and not come home for the primary election. With Mott, Hulet and Howard after the nomination he probably figures the folks at home will be sufficiently en-

We suggest to the board of higher education and its chairwoman that in the interest of economy the high salaried position of football coach at the two major schools be consolidated. Then the football coach be required to live at Salem so he will not become too close to either school.

In the last ten years government has increased fifteen times as fast as the population. But let's not blame it all onto Washington because the most expensive part of our democracy is the home government in our cities, counties and school districts.

We can see that those consolidated deans are going to be on a hot spot during football season next fall. Waving two sets of colors is going to be like voting dry while drinking a glass of beer.

It seems difficult to believe that with 120 millions to pick from only the most dishonest and unreliable citizens ever get into public office. If true, it sort of reflects on our intelligence and fitness for self government.

'Tis the modern age. At one stroke the board of higher education abolishes the $10,000 Oregon school of journalism and approves the $36,000 state college radio. Both were done, too, in the interest of economy.

An Ohio girl broke her nose while powdering it. Probably the mirror was at fault.

The best safety device is the one above your ears. Use it.

Editorial Comment

BOTH SENTIMENTAL AND SELFISH

Most of the arguments concerning trading at home have been worn out with constant repitition. Yet the subject is still a vital and

During the past few years there have been important changes so much to trade at home as to trade with the particular type of store that they represent. Mail order business has declined and most of the mail order houses have established their retail outlets.

The method of distributing merchandise over the counter, a personal transportation between buyer and seller, was never more firmly established than today. That is a favorable fact for local merchants. The appeal to people to buy at home must be put upon more than mere sentimental grounds, though there is force to the argument of loyalty to friends, neighbors and customers.

Many people in small communities state that they cannot buy as cheaply at home as in some distant point. Sometimes facts bear out this argument. But when people live in a small community they must expect to do business on the basis that is essential to success of business in a smaller town. It is selfish to expect your customers to pay the price that you ask and yet be unwilling to pay fair prices for what you buy of them. Business must be done at a profit. If you get a profit yourself you must expect to pay one to the other fellow.

We are not discouraged about the small town and city. Some folks say that decline of the smaller centers is inevitable. There is little to prove it. Population is not growing as rapidly in smaller communities as in the cities. But the cities have grown to rapidly-too many of their people have no work. Population is no asset unless that population is well employed.

On every hand there is evidence of improvement in small communities. That improvement consists of better streets, schools, highways, homes and stores. And with all of these things there is a most reasoning evidence of community loyalty-a spirit which makes for sound development and for general good will.

When you trade at home you help other people to trade with you. These are both sentimental and selfish reasons for trading with your neighbors.-Herald-Review, Grand Rapids, Minnesota.

DANGER OF WORRY

One of the most dangerous influences seems to be abroad in these strenuous days, and it is growing as our cares increase. I can think of nothing quite so harmful to human well-being as WORRY.

Both worry and happiness are states of mind; but latter is the thing most sought for; men will toil, strive and wreck mind and body in pursuit of that elusive phantom-Happiness. It seems paradoxical, for a man to worry himself insane, in his quest of bliss.

The patient that I really, down in my heart dread to meet-is the victim of self induced worry. I know of no drug that will help him, and, too frequently good advice slides off him like water off a duck's back. Some, indeed, seem to me to find a sort of suicidal gratification in worry over things that are often not worth crying about. The man who lies awake nights, grows thin, disagreeable, and hard to get along with, will soon develop a hyperacid stomach and very aggravating indigestion. Then he consults the doctor. I have traced many a case of acidosis to plain, old-fashioned worry. It will most certainly undermine the constitution if persisted in. "Having food and raiment be ye therewith CONTENT." What a prescription that is! Unfailing in results too. A contented life is a happy life. It's wise to work while the sun shines, for the rainy day is quite certain to come. But there is no sense in tearing one's system down in a struggle for so-called happiness, which is after all illusory in many cases; simple contentment will turn the trick quicker and better than a cart-load of bromide. Pardon me for writing things that can be understood.

KATHARINE NEWLIN BURT

Fifth Instalment

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY. "How terribly you hate that man," said Jocelyn. She spoke as easily, as lightly as she could. "I wish you'd

"Kent came from my town—Rap-pel. In Illinois. My father was a clergyman there. Kent was ten years older than I. When I got out of the school of mines-mining engineer was my original profession-he got Kent had me sent down to in spect a zinc mine. I went over the mine with its owner, a man named Talley. Came back to Rappel with my report. It was a first-rate mine. A sure-fire investment. Everything the owner had showed me was O. K. I was optimistic and cocksure. Had no reason that I knew of not to be.

"He proposed to sell this mine to his townspeople — my townspeople too—at par, that is, two million dollars for the entire issue. I know now that Algernon Talley was willing to sell the mine to Kent for one million dollara. My report—you see my name, my father's name, was good—was printed and circulated. I was elected secretary of the corporation and consulting engineer. They gave me a small block of stock. I fancied myself suddenly rather a planned a surprise for you. Let's go out. "Nick said."

In a taxicab which it cost Nick some torturing moments to enter, at revelry, predestined victims of the ancient game of Fox and Geese. Lynda was the only woman at the table and these newcomers visibly rejoiced.

"I dare say."

Anteied myself suddenly rather a high mass.

"It is necessary before a stock is actually sold, Miss Sandal, for an officer of such a corporation to make an affidavit to the Secretary of the Commonwealth based on his personal knowledge and setting forth the exact value of the assets upon which the stock is issued. Kent got me to make this affidavit.

"Now, listen closely. The making of such an affidavit, falsely or hecelessly, subjects the maker to fine and to imprisonment.

There was a gray shadow on this young man Lynda drew back all it the in her chair. Something that had been mysterious in his aspect was explained to her.

"That mine turned out to be no good, Miss Harlowe. The stockholders—my townspeople, my friends and my condition?" No."

"That mine turned out to be no good, Miss Harlowe. The stockholders—my townspeople, my friends and my condition?" I've no intention of changing anyvestinest in was prosecuted, found guilty and sentenced to three years in state's prisons.

Lynda spoke with a certain difficulty:

"I understand that you would naturally be tempted to find some such explanation for your own terror ble mistake. But, since I know Mr. Kent very well, I find the whole "Mr. kent very well, I find the whole" Ah, so you do love me a little!

rible mistake. But, since I know Mr. Kent very well, I find the whole story-as you tell it-perfectly pre-Jock was looking at her carefully and coolly. He bowed.

"I didn't suppose you would believe me. I merely wanted to explain to you my hatred of Felix Kent. I hoped that it might damage plain to you my hatred of Felix Kent. I hoped that it might damage him with you."

As he turned to leave he handed her a slip of paper.

"Here is Nick's new address. He didn't like your coming to that other place. You'll come to see him?"

"Yes."

Marcella and Felix both returned to town. On his first evening with Jocelyn, Felix proved a very entertaining lover. Jocelyn in a green gown had so shining a loveliness, so proud a grace that the man's glory in possession induced him to take her out, to let the world of other men gloset enviously at what he had so quickly, so easily, won. In his great smooth-running limousine he carried her off, unchapteroned, to the theater, to supper, danced with her. And Jocelyn rewarded his open and most gentle seeming worship once with a look so deep, so loyal and so lovely that for an instant the soul that was torpid in him came to painful life and he dropped his eyes, feeling a warmth that was not possessive, not even passionate, cross his face.

Jocelyn creame back would be not only torture but death by torture and the proper only to you for you fall to you for whith min."

"In love—with him?"

"You did not say that before. Nick. You said that he was not the had a poor outlook on life and the had a poor outlook on life and the proper of the prop

Two 4-H clubs in the Walker disfor parents, club members of the the Walker district.

WALKER FOUR-H CLUBS | district. The Early Risers Camp FINISH PROJECT WORK Cookery club with five members consisting of Robert Sears, Lynn Jackson, Mildred Lindsay, Alvin trict completed their work and held Loyal Workers Sewing club had Johnson and Vivian Fountain. The their Achievement program Friday, five members, Vivian Fountain, Lu-March 18. The program consisted cile Schooling, Dorothea Wright, of a business meeting, songs, club Mildred Lindsay and Gladys Walkyells, demonstration together with ley. The leader of the clubs was an exhibit of work was prepared Mrs. Bernice Fountain, teacher in

Easter Will Be Complete...

If you have a box of Eggimann's candy just packed to the brim with all the goodness that youngsters and oldsters can demand. There are boxes and boxes of all kinds of assortments.

Made of the finest and most wholesome materials our candy is most delicious for Easter.

EGGIMANN'S

ward, even of that sentimentality of an over emphasized dislike. She "Oh that! How little yo ward, even of that sentimentality of an over emphasized dislike. She had freed herself too from sentimentality toward Nick; but not of her taffection. The first deed of her release and her enrichment would be lease and her enrichment would be Nick's rescue.

The "swell joint" was really the ward not of ferry deliverage.

"I dare say."

I had made a straight report on a good mine. I believe, Miss Sandal, that any other engineer would have handed in just such a report as that was. Kent was forming a corporation to take over this mine. Capitalized it at two million dollars.

"He proposed to sell this mine to "He proposed to sell this mine to his townspeople — my townspeople lamp.

"I'm going to be fool enough to take you home," asserted Jock.

Lynda had met on her first visit: James Drury and Gustav Lowe, looking extraordinarily sleek and solid and greeting her with a good deal of startled gallantry. Jock rose, looked her in the eyes, smiled with ed eyes upon him beseechingly.

"We mustn't quarrel."

"Ah, so you do love me a little! I'm not angry now, nor hurt. Only. Lynda, don't try to change me. I'm bent into this shape; not a pretty one, I grant you. My life is beut. It took much pain of fire and hammer and great pincers to get me here. To get me back would be not here. To get me back would be not only torture but death by torture. You see, I give myself away to you.

77 E. BROADWAY

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR RESIDENT OF COBURG

Jesse Ovley Wolf, 67, died at his home at Coburg last Thursday. H was born at Nashville, North Carolina, on May 2, 1864, and has lived in Coburg since 1900. He leaves his widow; a sister, Mrs. Mary Margaret Hayworth of Harrisburg four nephews and a niece. He was a member of the Presbyteria: church and of the Coburg I. O. O. F.

Funeral services were held from the Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chape in Eugene Monday afternoon at S o'clock with Dr. E. V. Stivers offi clating. The Coburg I. O. O. F. lodge had charge of the services at the graveside. The funeral was to have been held Saturday, but was postponed because of the high water.

Mr. Wolf operated a stage line between Coburg and Eugene at the time of his death.

MRS. SOPHIA WERNER OF MARCOLA DIES FRIDAY

Mrs. Sophia Werner, 65, died at Marcola Friday night after an illness of three years. Mrs. Werner came to the United States from Germany where she was born on August 7, 1867, and has lived a Marcola since 1913. She leaves her husband. Samuel Werner, two daughters, Mrs. Carrie Russell, San Francisco, and Mrs. Christina Belum. Marcola: two brothers, and one step-sister in Germany and two grandsons.

Funeral services were held from the Poole-Gray-Bartholomew chapel in Eugene Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery west of Eugene.

LIVESTOCK MEMBERS TO HOLD MEETING

A meeting for all of the livestock club members in northern Lane county has been arranged for Fri day night at the old city hall at Junction City. The meeting is called for 7:30 P. M. and arrangements are being made by the Love Lake

Motion pictures and film strips on subjects relative to the different projects in livestock club work will be shown and a general discussion of all livestock projects will follow Due to the nature of the meeting only livestock club members are

DEPRESSION CAMPAIGN

tional service club are joining hands with many other organizations in waging an active campaign against the economic depression

The latest activity of the Lions group is the publication of a pamphlet setting out facts and figures s well as suggesting methods of improving individual business en

Return from Portland- Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fandrem returned Monday from Portland where they have been visiting for several days.

Easter Apparel Bargains! DRESSES

Groups from $3.95 up. All Sizes.

HATS

New Spring Styles $1.00

HOSE

$1.00 up. Kayser FANCY NET HOSE For Only $1.00

Save Money at

LADIES SHOP

42 West 8th Avenue We Give S. & H. Green Stamps

Pre-Easter Sale FOOTWEAR

Big Saving

Women's Children's Men's $1.39 $1.78 $1.78

Williams' Self Service Store

EUGENE, OREGON

In the Service of the Neighborhood

Like a handy switch for an electric light, and like many other modern conveniences, your druggist occupies a unique position in modern life-whether real-

The druggist and his store are always in the service of the neighborhood. It is the market place for the thousand and one little things that are needed or wanted-usually in an emergency.

Ketels Drug Store

Springfield In the New Store

SPEED-POWER

Violet Ray and General Ethyl gasolines have them both. More complete combustion—that's the secret of the extra burst of speed that these double-powered, anti-knock gasolines give you.

The gasoline that takes you the fartherest is the

"A" Street Service Station

5th and A Streets

THE STRANGE CASE of MRS. GREEN

ON Monday afternoon Mrs. T. N. Green left her hos at exactly 2:30 to go shopping. During the afternoon reliable observers saw her in various stores do It has been established that she did not start for hos until 5:45 that afternoon and that she entered the door of the Green residence at 6:10.

At 6:15 Mr. Green arrived from the office. At 6:25 Mrs Green served a dinner consisting of a roast, baked post-toes, freshly baked apple pie and a number of other thing

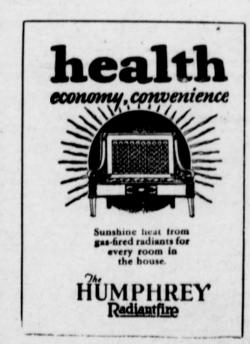

Mrs. Green has no maid. What could her secret be? Operatives studying the case report that immediately prior to her departure, Mrs. Green placed these foods in the oven of her range. They declare it to be an Electric Range, for she set a time device and left with a satisfied look on her face. They further declare that the range automatically turned itself on at the hour Mrs. Green set it for and the food was properly cooked without any assistance whatever from Mrs. Green.

Your dealer has an Electric Range on display exactly like Mrs. Green's. He will be glad to explain to you how easily the results credited to Mrs. Green may be performed in your own kitchen. Fee him today.

Mountain States Power Company

Save Fuel These Cool Mornings ...

Simply turn on your RADIANTFIRE. If you don't now own a Radiantfire, you're missing a comfort you deserve. Radiantfire throws radiant heat sufficient to heat an unusually large room-consumes but a small amount of GAS per hour, and saves you fuel. No need to bother lighting the Furnace.

Special Radiant Fire Offer

Beginning Today We Offer for

Down-Balance in 12 Monthly Payments

ANY RADIANTFIRE YOU MAY CHOOSE -A STYLE AND SIZE FOR EVERY NEED

NORTHWEST CITIES GAS Co.

Eugene,

Springfield