

FORD EXHIBIT TO BE HERE APRIL 13

Public Invited to View Demonstration Models at Anderson Motors Salesroom

The new Ford automobile will be brought to Springfield for its initial showing in this city next Wednesday, April 13, at the salesrooms of the Anderson Motors Inc. It was announced today by John W. Anderson, local Ford dealer. Only the V-8 model will be shown at this exhibition.

A great deal of enthusiastic comment has been heard since details of the new Ford and pictures of the fourteen models have been made available to the public.

The new Ford is large, roomy, fast, powerful and alert. Its V-8 cylinder motor develops 65 horsepower and is capable of 75 miles per hour. The cylinder blocks and crankcase are cast in one unit giving exceptionally rigid engine construction.

Other new improvements of the latest Ford car include down draft carburetor system, automatic spark control, two water pumps, improved hydraulic shock absorbers, new design rear spring, larger braking surface, and a synchronizing transmission unit.

The new Ford eight weighs slightly more than the former Model A car.

This would be an acreage about the same as in 1929. The principal increase is expected to be in Colorado and Michigan, with more moderate increases in Indiana, New York, Minnesota and Idaho.

LESS CHICKS HATCHED; BUTTER MARKETS DOWN

Peak in Coast Egg Production for Year Reached Says Extension Market Report

Fewer chicks hatched by western hatcheries, Pacific coast egg production at its peak and a break in coast butter prices are events featured in the weekly market news summary from the O. S. C. extension service.

Commercial hatcheries in the western states hatched fewer chicks during December, January and February than a year ago, according to government reports, but there was some increase in hatchings in the eastern states. Bookings for March and later delivery were reported 3.7 per cent lighter than a year ago for the whole country and down 8.4 per cent in the western states.

Although the peak in Pacific coast egg production was reached during the week ending April 1, coast markets held fairly steady. Storage of eggs by first receivers became heavy but large speculators were not in the market. A heavy consumptive demand for the United States as a whole helped to reduce the necessity of storing. With receipts of butter at coast markets heavier than during recent weeks and a lessened demand following Easter, prices along the coast broke sharply lower. Portland jobbing prices on 92-93 score declined two cents to a level of 23 to 24 cents on April 1. At San Francisco, 92 score declined three cents and stood at 20 cents wholesale April 1.

DOCTORS HIT AT ACTION OF STATE

Attempt of Accident Commission to Name Physicians for Workers is Opposed

The arbitrary selection of a group of doctors in any county to handle all cases coming up under the jurisdiction of the State Industrial Accident commission such as has been done in Klamath and Lake counties was hit Monday evening at a meeting of the Lane County Medical society which passed a resolution denouncing this action.

Such action is plainly unjust as each individual worker pays for this service and should be allowed to secure the services of the physician he or she desires, says members of the society in Klamath and Lake counties there are about 30 practicing physicians and only ten of this number are named in the list of the state commission.

Feeling that Lane county was one of the larger industrial units of the state and that should the movement in southeastern Oregon be upheld this county might be singled out for such action in the near future led to the passage of the resolution which reads as follows:

"WHEREAS; it has come to the attention of the Medical Profession in Lane county that the State Industrial Accident commission has, after some investigation, seen fit to limit the number of licensed physicians in certain counties who will be allowed under their authorization to take care of State accident cases, and whereas, we believe this ruling is unfair to the workingman, employer and physician, be it resolved:

"That the Lane County Medical society go on record as being absolutely opposed to the action of the State Industrial Accident commission of Oregon for the following reasons: That the order is arbitrary, contrary to the spirit of the Workmen's Compensation act, un-American, unjust to the workingman in removing his full right of choice of his physician, embarrassing to the employer, and unfair to the physician in that it forces an unethical attitude and denies them the right to exercise the privileges granted them by the State of Oregon as duly licensed physicians and surgeons. And be it further:

"Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Oregon State Medical society, and all its component societies, the American Medical association, Northwest Medicine, the Governor of the State of Oregon, and the State Industrial Accident commission."

Suggested Planting Plan--Lane County Relief Garden

Here's a suggested planting chart for a 'Year-Round' vegetable garden which is being sponsored by the Lane County Court and various civic organizations in different cities. The chart is mapped out for a plot of ground the size of an average city lot. Dates following the names of vegetables indicate the approximate time of planting. The dates will vary with the sections of the county in which the garden is to be planted. The plan has been devised so as to allow for canning and storing of sufficient produce for a family of four.

Where the piece of ground of the required size, 60-100 feet is not available it is suggested that the potatoes be eliminated first and if the plot is still not large enough the corn be eliminated. Those wishing to add to this plan might plant pumpkins in the first two plantings of corn. Where more land is available two rows of dry beans should be planted.

Relief workers in all parts of the county are convinced that a well planned garden can supply the family with sufficient garden produce to last the entire year. Year around garden plans and plans that are adjustable to the number of persons in the family are available and may be secured from the county agricultural agent. The year around garden program carried on in several communities under the direction of the county home demonstration agent demonstrated their practicability this past year.

The plan of relief gardens was adopted by the Lane County Agricultural Council and a special committee from that organization was appointed to consider it from a county wide view point. Local committees are rapidly attacking local problems. Assistance in making possible the securing of seeds, suitable land and where necessary giving of information regarding culture practices applicable locally only are among the services of the local committees.

In Springfield the city council has offered the free use of all vacant lots owned by the city to those who will plant a garden and take care of it.

U. O. LAW STUDENT GETS VALUED SCHOLARSHIP

A Sterling fellowship in law at Yale university, carrying a stipend of $1400 for the school year 1932-1933, has just been awarded to Edwin D. Hicks, graduate of the University of Oregon law school in 1929, and at present district attorney for Grant county.

Hicks made a remarkable record during his college career, graduating and passing the bar examination just before he came of age. That fall he ran for district attorney of Grant county, and although he had not been able to enter the primaries, enough voters wrote his name in so that in running as a Democrat he defeated the incumbent. When he took office he was the youngest district attorney in the United States, and it is believed that he still holds this honor.

Hicks will leave for Yale this fall. He expects to return to Oregon following the completion of his studies and will resume the practice of law here.
