SCHOOL TERM IS NEARING FINISH

Five More Weeks of Classwork Confront Grade and High School Students

HONOR ROLL IS GIVEN

Final Six Weeks Period of School Year Features Large Amount of Activity

Just five more weeks of school for Springfield students after Friday. Six weeks examinations have been completed and another honor roll is issued this week. Only one more will be compiled de the present school year.

The final marking period % a busy one for students at the ous schools, especially so at high school where the senior pl. and other graduation prerequisites will precede the commencement ex-have already been concluded for the year and students were presented in a demonstration program at the New Service to Be Available to Methodist church Tuesday evening. Perhaps the least worried group of students in the city are those who passed the state eighth grade examinations recently and who do not have to attend classes unless they care to do so.

Wheaton Made Justice of Peace

Governor Meier Names Local Man to Fill Out Unexpired Term of Fred Walker

C. E. Wheaton, Springfield barber, has been appointed Justice of the Peace for this district by Govrnor Meier. Mr. Wheaton's appointment is to fill out the unexpired term of Fred Walker, who has moved to Portland and engaged in the hotel business.

Mr. Wheaton is qualifying for the office this week and will then be read; to hold court and carry on the duties of the ofice. Due to the last two justices of the peace being a way from the city a great deal, the ourt here has not in recent years been very busy. Many cases orginating here have gone elsewhere y on the duties of the justice take care of all cases arising.
