SAVE BY NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

It is unanimously agreed by experts that a great amount of money could and would be saved each year if merchants were to confine their advertising efforts solely to news-

Any business, that has within it the germ of growth, can and should spend a certain percentage of its sales ranging from 2% to about 4% for advertising, but the success of that advertising depends to a great extent on how and where it is placed.

Advertising, the story of merchandise or service, is an interesting part of our day's news. It concerns one's needs and one's money. No subject is more vital. And the fastest and cheapest contact between you and your customers is your newspaper-it meets your buyers face to face, at a lower cost per reader than any other medium.

For those merchants or professional people who do not feel qualified to prepare their own advertising messages, we have on hand at all times a splendid supply of expertly planned, written and illustrated advertising material. We can meet the need of any business. The Springfield News furnishes this service to you free of charge.
