OVER SUMMIT ON SKI PROPERTY OWNER CAN PAY ONLY SCHOOL TAX

L. C. Moffitt, county school superintendent, this week called the attention of taxpayers to the fact that under an opinion handed down February 15, 1933, by the attorney general it is permissible for a taxpayer to pay a school tax levied by a local school district without paying any of the other taxes of the same year charged against the same property. Mr. Moffitt thinks this opinion may prove a possible solution for keeping some of the schools in the county in operation.

Douglas Tournament Starts: Winner to Meet St. Mary's, Lane "B" League Victors

Just two more basketball games and Springfield high school's basketball season will be over for the season. Coach Marion Hall will take the local boys to Roseburg tonight and the school officials are trying to advance the date for the final game with Eugene from March 3, to Saturday night of this week or Monday of Next week. The game will be played on the local gymnasium floor.

Springfield will probably lose both of these games, but she has climbed out of the cellar position by defeating Cottage Grove. The Roseburg squad puts up a formidable defense and offense on their home floor which only Eugene high has been able to break. While here last week they defeated Springfield 32-16 in a rough game. The score stood 13-10 for the visitors at

ONE GRADE OF BUTTER

Only one grade of butter put out under the "Maid-O-Cream" label is This information is announced by the creamery which this week received a number of inquiries as to whether butter being sold locally in blind wrappers was made here. The Springfield Creamery adheres to the policy of making only one grade of butter which carries both the "Maid-O-Cream" label and the creamery name. Because of the excellence of its butter and its refusal to put out cheap brands, the local creamery has developed a wide trade throughout this part of Oregon as well as on the Portland and Seattle markets.
