

PLEASANT HILL TO GRADUATE 26

Dean Jewel of U. O. Is Commencement Speaker Tonight; Class Entertained

With a class of 26 seniors, Pleasant Hill will graduate the largest class in the history of its high school tonight when Dean Jewel, head of the school of education at the University of Oregon, delivers his commencement address at the high school gymnasium.

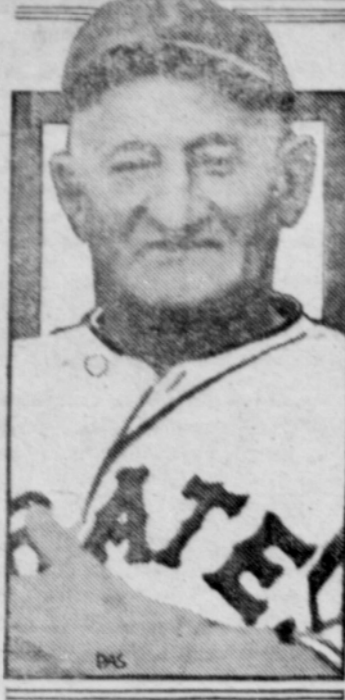

Mildred Swift will be valedictorian, and the salutatory address will be given by Margaret Upton. Roger Fairfield will read the class history, and Robert Hammond will formally present the school cane to the junior class.

Victor P. Morris, of the economics department of the university, delivered the baccalaureate address to the class last Sunday night at the Christian church. The church was filled and all standing room was taken.

Several social affairs have been held recently in honor of the graduating class. Friday night they were entertained with a buffet supper given by Professor and Mrs. Perry Price at the home of Mrs. Art Shough at Thurston. Those present were Evelyn Phelps, Cary Lord, Bonnie Tinker, Zella Mauney, Margaret Upton, Luetta Baughman, Ciella Drury, Mildred Swift, Frances Hunsaker, Cecelia Cruzan, Nancy Barnum, Robert Hammond, Roger Fairfield, Jack Doane, Dale Lindley, James Warren, Harry Barnum and Mr. and Mrs. Price.

Another social evening was spent by the class at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Eberhart in Eugene. Jigsaw puzzles, ping pong, and cards were enjoyed after which refreshments of ice-cream and cake were served.

Flying Dutchman Today

Honus Wagner, baseball hero of another day, is this year again with his beloved Pirates, now in the capacity of infield coach. His first trip around the circuit has been a tour of triumph, fans turning out by the thousands to greet him.

Bakery Offers New Bread Loaf

Installation of Latest Modern Equipment Enables Firm to Make Better Product

An entirely new loaf of bread but still bearing the name, "Quality Bread," is now being produced at the Home Baking company, according to Carl McKee, manager. This is being made in both the white and whole wheat. Another new loaf which the bakery has recently placed on the market is their DeLuxe bread. This loaf is longer and is sliced, and is wrapped in a new waxed transparent wrapper. A similar sliced whole wheat loaf is also manufactured, but is wrapped in the heavier wrapper.

A new machine known as a dough brake is responsible for the great improvement which it has been possible to make in the already popular Quality bread says McKee. This machine rolls and works the dough so as to produce a much finer loaf with a velvety texture.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to visit the modern daylight bakery. There are no regular visiting hours, we welcome an inspection by our customers at any time says McKee who has just had his delivery trucks repainted blue and orange along with his change in manufacturing process.

Under the management of McKee this bakery has made a very unusual growth, rising from a small back-room bake shop to a place among the leading bakeries of the state within a period of three years. This steady growth has made necessary three changes in location during that time until now it occupies one of the finest locations in the city.

The bakery is a real asset to the community also. The products, which include various kinds of rolls, cookies, cakes and other pastries, besides their bread, are now being widely marketed in many of the Eugene stores as well as locally.

WILLIAM THIENES HAS ROLE IN U. O. COMEDY

William Thienes, son of Mrs. Sadie Thienes, route 2, Springfield, appears in one of the principal roles in Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale," being given its final showing by the drama department of the University of Oregon, at the McDonald theatre tonight.

He plays the part of the old shepherd, one of the main comedy characters, in the tragic-comedy. Mr. Thienes is a graduate of Springfield high school, and is at present enrolled in the university as a freshman in the humanities group.

Although this is Mr. Thienes' first important part in a campus dramatic production, he also appeared in a minor role in "Once in a Lifetime."

The leading character of Leontes, king of Sicily, is taken by Charles Shoemaker, Portland, Daisy Swanton, Eugene, as Hermione, queen to Leontes, has the principal feminine role.

RAILROADS OFFERING WORLD'S FAIR TOURS

With the official opening of the World's fair, "A Century of Progress," set for Saturday of this week special interest is being manifested now in the unique accommodation offers being made by the Southern Pacific railroad.

The railroad officials have arranged special one, two, three, four and five day tours which will include all necessary expense items while in Chicago. These accommodations are being sold right along with the transportation tickets making it unnecessary for a visitor to the fair to carry much money for accommodations or service while in Chicago.

Birthday Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Huntly and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Morton were guests Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Thompson of Vida. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Huntly.

TODAY TOMORROW

MOSQUITOES . . . under knife
The first real use ever found for mosquitoes was when it was discovered, a few years ago, at the government hospital for the insane at Washington, that certain common forms of insanity could be cured if the patient had malaria.

Malaria germs are carried only by certain mosquitoes, and insane asylums all over the country began to demand mosquitoes which had been infected by biting malaria patients.

Now the government scientists have found a way to operate on the mosquito, under a microscope, and extract the malaria virus, so they don't have to ship live mosquitoes, which sometime got away and spread malarial fever.

The marvelous thing about all that, as I see it, is not that malaria cures paresis, but that anybody ever found it out and that the human mind has been ingenious enough to find a way to perform such an operation.

USHER . . . . . at White House
My congratulations to "Ike" Hoover, chief usher of the White House, who has just finished his forty-second year of service there. His real name is Irving H. Hoover, and when Benjamin Harrison was president he was a young electrician. Mr. Harrison had, the first electric push-buttons installed in the White House. Young Hoover did the job. They got out of order so often that the President thought there ought to be an electrician on the job all the time. He picked "Ike" and Hoover has been there since.

"Ike" is responsible for all the historic relics in the presidential mansion, for the management of the domestic staff and the supervision of all formal social functions. He receives all distinguished visitors and escorts them to the president. And he is pretty nearly the most popular man in Washington.

SAFETY . . . . . a glass law
Nearly twenty years ago I wrote the first news item in America about a kind of glass for automobile windshields which would not shatter in case of a collision. Since then many manufacturers of cars have adopted safety glass, but only within a very few years.

It has just been enacted into law in New York that after this year every bus licensed in the state must be equipped with safety glass and after next year all cars must be so equipped. A surprisingly high proportion of injuries and deaths in motor accidents come from broken glass. The time will come when no car may be operated unless it has non-shatterable glass all through.

TAXES . . . . . many unfair
The State of New York has abolished all personal property taxes. That is a step in the right direction. Rhode Island was the first to do away with this unfair tax.

I call it unfair because it presses on the poor more than on the rich. The tax assessor can count the farmer's cattle and hogs, his horses and his machinery, but what the rich man has in a safe deposit box in stocks and bonds is out of sight and he can—and does—lie about it.

Revision of all our old tax methods is in the air. I think it is a mistake for a state to impose a retail sales tax, as so many have done lately. I believe in the sales tax, because it bears equally on everyone according to how much he spends; but I think it ought to be a federal and not a state tax.

INFLATION . . . . . how it will help
An inquiring friend writes to ask me how it will benefit the country to have the Federal Reserve banks issue three billion dollars of new money to take up government bonds. The answer is that these bonds are now held by banks which are handicapped by having so much of their deposits tied up in the "frozen assets." If the banks can turn them over for new cash, they can use the new money to lend for productive enterprises. And there is just as much behind the new currency as behind the bonds—that is, the government's credit.

PAINTING . . . . . largest in world
The largest picture ever painted on canvas will be one of the star attractions on the Midway at the Chicago Century of Progress Exposition. It is 402 feet long and 45 feet high and depicts, against a background that shows all the famous battlefields of France, six thousand individual heroes of the World War. Every one is a perfect portrait.

Great French artists who were too old to fight started work on this huge painting while the war was still going on. It was shown to millions in a special building in Paris for years after the Armistice, and has been brought to Chicago for more millions to see.

I hope that everybody who goes to the Chicago Fair will make it a point to see this magnificent picture. And I hope everybody who reads this will go to Chicago this summer. I know of no way of spending a vacation more interestingly and more usefully.

MORTGAGE AID FARM LAW PLAN

Federal Land Banks Have 5-Year Moratorium; Other Borrowers to Get Help

Farm mortgage benefits as well as higher prices for farm products in relation to things farmers buy are provided for in the new Farm Act, according to information released by the Oregon Agricultural Extension service cooperating with the U. S. department of agriculture.

Borrowers from Federal Land banks are to receive a moratorium on payments on principal for five years, plus reduction in the interest rate to 4 1/2 per cent. They also will be helped with interest due which they are unable to pay. There are 400,000 Federal Land bank mortgages in the country with over $1,000,000,000 borrowed.

Aid Bank Liquidation
Farmers who have mortgages with Joint Stock Land banks may also be benefited under the provisions of the Farm act which offer assistance in the liquidation of these banks, provided they reduce their interest rates to 5 per cent and cease foreclosure proceedings for two years.

The act provides help to other farm mortgages through a special bond issue of $2,000,000,000 to raise funds for loaning to farmers who wish to borrow from the Federal Land banks. New loans are to be made on the same liberal terms as granted old borrowers.

May Redeem Lost Farms
Further provision is made to provide funds to enable farmers to redeem farm property lost by foreclosure since July 1, 1931. In fact, this section of the farm act contains provisions through which excessive debts may be cut down, interest rates reduced, payments on principal postponed, foreclosed farms redeemed and other provisions to assist farmers to meet urgent obligations, according to a circular issued by the extension service.

The first part of the measure is the Farm Act proper, or the part that provides for controlling production and increasing farm prices. In this section, congress declared that the present acute economic emergency is in part the consequence of increasing disparity between the prices of agricultural and other commodities. For instance, index numbers prepared by the United States department of agriculture show that for several months farm products have had an exchange value of only half as much as before the war.

Seek Greater Buying Power
Congress declared the policy of the nation to "reestablish prices to farmers at a level that will give agricultural commodities a purchasing power with respect to articles farmers buy, equivalent to the purchasing power of agricultural commodities in the base period"—August 1909—July 1914. "Parity" in exchange value is clearly the goal of the Farm Act. Three production control plans are provided—land leasing, domestic allotment, and marketing agreements. Farmer participation must be on a voluntary basis, with benefits in cash payment provided for those who cooperate. Application is to be gradual at as rapid a rate as is deemed feasible, with consumers interests protected by provisions in the act, according to the Extension Service circular.
