Seven Roaming Girls Make Short Visit in California Enroute to Their Homes Here

Springfield's traveling girls, who have been on a tour of the country, visiting at the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago, Washington, D. C., and other interesting and historical places in the East are expected to return to Springfield Saturday or shortly thereafter according to word received by relatives here this week.

Contrary to a previous announcement, the two automobiles of girls will return together from California. One group having driven to California direct, and waiting for the others who went down as far as Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Included in the traveling party are Miss Eunice Garber and Miss Eleanor Smith, who drove to Vicksburg; Miss Thelma Sweeney, Miss Florence Parvis, Dexter; Miss Ara Nell Arnold, Josephine Hardy, of Astoria; and Lou Nelson of Westfir.

They are selling playing cards in New York for the outdoor playing of bridge. The cards are heavy enough so that the wind will not blow them away.

Marion Talley Back

Marion Talley, Kansas City's Grand Opera prodigy, is back in New York to resume operatic work this fall. She still owns her farm in Kansas, but right now she is more interested in getting and keeping fit, so she skates daily on the roof of her hotel.

POLLARD WRITES OF TRIP TO FAIR

Attitude of Mid-West People Towards Westerners Pleasing to Springfield Party

A very interesting account of the motor trip which Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard and family had enroute to Chicago where they are attending the Century of Progress exposition and sessions of the World Service Commission of the Methodist church, to which Dr. Pollard is a delegate, representing Oregon, is told in a letter received by the News this week.

The party left Springfield Saturday Morning, July 1. They do not say when they expect to return. We quote paragraphs from the letter.

Six Days on Trip

"Well, we arrived in the Windy City Friday afternoon, six and one-half days, 2285 miles via the McKenzie pass and taking the cut-off of 30 miles near Omaha.

"The trip was very pleasant and to our surprise and pleasure it was not very warm, although they told us it just had been.

"Our first night we stayed at Vale, Oregon. We spent six nights in camp grounds, and double cabins cost from $1.25 to $2.00 per night for the five of us. The camps were quite a bit in accommodations and neatness. Our last night's camp, 200 miles from Chicago, was the cheapest and best, known as Uncle Lane's Cabins.

"It was well for us that we took a few cooking utensils along as they do not furnish them as we do in a great many of our Western camps.

"Had very little trouble with car, had to do some changing in climbing the mountains. Had a puncture at Vale just as we drove into camp. The only other trouble was an inner tube tear due to running with too little air. I find you have less trouble with tires inflated well up to the limit as they do not heat so much as when pressure is too low.

Saw Storm Damage

"Just missed a very severe storm by a few hours near Sidney, Nebraska. We stayed overnight there and the next morning we surely saw the effects of the storm on the roads and cornfields. Roads washed out in places, and had to make several detours.

"Then at Elgin, Illinois they had a most terrible storm the day we left town. Saw just hundreds of trees uprooted, houses and barns without roofs, and the cornfields looked like a roller had been used on them. The few stalks left were in shreds due to the large hailstones. The trees for miles around looked like it was December, no leaves.

Roads Found Good

"The roads are very fine all the way.

Pleads Not Guilty

Alvanley Johnston of Cleveland, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, as a director of the Standard Trust Bank of Cleveland, pleaded not guilty to misapplication of bank funds when arraigned.

way. A few points are quite dusty. We left the 30 highway at a point to take a trip through Logan Valley and I must say it was the most wonderful sight. Gorges, mountains, lakes, and the coldest H2O in all the world, so they say. Fishing was fine, but road too hilly. One trip through this mountain is enough for me.

Remembers Western Kindness

"We had a peculiar experience just as we entered Chicago while looking for a certain place to stay the first night. We evidently must have looked like lost people, and then someone drove up and said: 'May I help you out?', and then he took us what seemed miles about Evanston hunting for Nelson apartments. The rest of my party was sure that a gangster had me in tow, and wanted me to ditch him, but I kept on, thinking if he does not find the apartments soon I'll leave him on the next corner.

"Finally we arrived. The man stepped out of his car, and then told his story, namely, that last year he had visited in the West, Seattle and Portland, etc., and hadn't forgotten the many kind deeds the Westerners had done for him, so this was his way of repaying in part. I thought it a fine act on his part as we were total strangers to him.

"We are located half-way between the World's fair and my World Service Commission meetings at Evanston with some Methodist people. The church people are trying to help the visiting members."

CARRIER TO ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

B. G. Sankey, carrier on route 2, out of the Springfield postoffice will take a two-day vacation on Friday and Saturday of this week to attend the Annual Rural Mail Carriers state convention at The Dalles on July 14 and 15. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Sankey. Leroy Nice will substitute during his absence.

CHINA PHEASANTS ARE FREED NEAR THIS CITY

Two dozen pairs of large Chinese pheasants were released east of Springfield Tuesday noon by employees of the State game farm northeast of Springfield. They were part of a group of more than 100 birds released in this county under the direction of the Lane County Sportsmen's association.

The female birds were from the laying stock at the farm, sufficient eggs for reproduction having been obtained before releasing the birds.

Picnic Tuesday— Mr. and Mrs. Lum F. Anderson and daughter, Irene, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and two nephews, and Mr. and Mrs. Thurman F. Howell, visitors from Sulphur Springs, Texas, enjoyed a picnic outing Tuesday.

Nearly 32,000 persons paid $198,259.15 to see Primo Carnera defeat Jack Sharkey for the heavyweight championship of the world. Sharkey received $69,603.34 and Carnera $16,377.28. If the fight demonstrated anything it showed that a man weighing 260 pounds should not be put into the same ring with a man 50 pounds lighter. A giant like Carnera needs to be put in a class by himself.

His father said: "That corn has to be cleaned up. Get in that cornfield." Red rose at 4, plowed eight hours, cleaning the field by noon. Then he pitched a double-header against Albany, shutting them out in both games.

So we congratulate the officers of the Booth-Kelly company for their enterprise and the people of Springfield for their good fortune as the saws hum again in the big lumber plant. May your celebration be most successful.
