

NOTICE

30.. J. Seavey Bros. 1t

FIVE ACRES-Just south of Booth-Kelly mill pond, all fenced, ideal for chicken or fox farm; 5-room | 1. unfinished house, chicken house and hog house; 2 good wells, spring, some timber; one acre Phone Eugene 137.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed Administratrix of the Estate of Seth M. McPherson, deceased, by the M. McPherson, deceased, by the County Judge of Lane County, Oregon, and that all persons having claims against said estate are hererequired to present the same, sufficiently evidenced, to the un-dersigned at her residence Route 1 Springfield, Oregon, on or before six months from the first publica-tion of this notice, which first publication will be August 3rd, 1933. STELLA A. McPHERSON, Ad-

(A 3-10-17-24-31)

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that Mar-tin P. Olsen, the Executor of the Estate of C. L. Olsen, deceased, has filed his Final Report and Account as such, and the Court has set Sat-urday, the 26th day of August, 1933. at the hour of 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, in the Conty Court Room in the Court House at Eugene, in Lane County, Oregon, as the time and place to hear objections to the same, if any, and for the final set-tlement of said Estate.

MARTIN P. OLSEN, Executor. WELLS & WELLS, Attorneys. (J 27-A 3-10-17-24)

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, Administrator of the estate of MAY BOYLES, Deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same, properly verified and with the vouchers therefor, to the under-signed at the law office of Gordon Wells, Miner Building, Eugene. Oregon, within six months from the date of the first publication hereof. Date of first publication hereof is August 3rd, 1933.

JOSEPH ACHESON, Administrator of the Estate of May Boyles, Deceased. (A 3-10-17-24-31)

Business Directory

Dr. JOSEPHINE C. BRAUN Naturopathic Physician

Phone 91-J Office Hours: 1 to 5 P. M.

Edward C. Privat Watchmaker and Jewele

406 Fourth Street

SPRINGFIELD So. Pacific Watch Inspector First Class Work at Reasonable Prices.

General Law Practice

I. M. PETERSON Attorney-at-Law City Hall Building

Springfield, Oregon

Reliance Life Insurance Co. of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Represented By

E. H. TURNER

Springfield, Ore

POOLE - GRAY BARTHOLOMEW Funeral Directors Formerly Walker-Poole

EUGENE-11th SPRINGFIELD and Charnelton. Telephone 723 Phone 62-J

IT COSTS NOTHING TO FIND OUT. . . .

Unknown to you, your eyes may be defective. The only way of detecting poor sight is by an eyesight examination. Many years of practical experience in optometry assures you a thorough and scientific eye exami nation, and if glasses are not required you will be told so frank-ly when you come to this office. And it will cost you nothing for the examination.

If glasses are needed they will be fitted not only so as to cor rect your vision, but will be at tractive and comfortable as well The charges are very reasonable.

DR. ELLA MEADE Optometrist

HOP PICKERS BOOKS-Printed at the News Office

> NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that Charles Pumphrey, the executor of James B. Pumphrey, deceased, and of his estate has filed his final ac ount and report as such, and the court has set Saturday, the 2nd day of September, 1933 at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon in the Coun-HOP PICKING will start at Hop ty Courtroom at the Courthouse at island ranch, Wednesday, August Eugene in Lane County, Oregon, as the time and place to hear objec-tions to the same, if any, and for the final settlement of said estate. CHARLES PUMPHREY, Exe-

M. PETERSON, Attorney. (A 3-10-17-24-31)

SUMMONS

each week for four consecutive STORY.
weeks in the Springfield News by order of the Hon. G. F. Skipworth, judge of said court, made on Aug-ust 15th, 1933, directing that it be Dated and first published August 17th, 1933.

WHITTEN SWAFFORD, Attorney for Plaintiff. Residence and Post office address: Eu (A 17-24-31-S 7-14)

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR LANE COUNTY.

Jessie F. Leep, Nellie R. Leep and Enid E. Ryan, Plaintiffs. vs. Bristow, Mollie Bristow. Frank Bristow, Clara Horsell, Fred Horsell, Blanche Graham, James Graham, Earl Carnahan, Fern Carnahao, well Bristow, Theodore Bristow, Charles Wheeler, unknown heirs of Martha S. Bristow, deceased, unknown heirs of Isaac V. H. persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real proherein, Defendants.

Earl Carnahan, Fern Carnahan and Charles Wheeler, unknown H. Bristow, deceased, also all other persons or parties unknown claim-ing any right, title, estate, lein or

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON. You are hereby required to appear and answer the amended complaint filed against first publication of this summons will take a decree against you ly on the couch. quieting the title to the following She lay in he described real property: half of the Northwest quarter and the West one half of the South-Township 17 South Range 10 West of Willamette Meridian in Lane County, Oregon. and that each of you be decreed to have no right, title, estate, lien or interest in or to the aforesaid premises or any part thereof.

The order directing the service directs publication once each week for four successive weeks and the date of the first publication of this

C. A. WINTERMEIER, Attorney for Plaintiffs. Residence: Eugene, Oregon. (J 27—A 3-10-17-24)

SUMMONS

STATE OF OREGON FOR LANE COUNTY

Jens S. Scott, Minnie M. Scott, Willard L. Cochran, L. Maurie Cochran and C. I. Anderson, Plaintiffs,

L. Z. McVay, John Dewey Campbell. Lois J. Campbell, Unknown heirs of Daniel McVay, deceased, Myrtle H. Adams, R. Jerry Adams, Alfred F. Walker, Halden Walker, Mrs. Halden Walker, Also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right title estate lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint

herein. Defendants. To L. Z. McVay, Unknown heirs of Daniel McVay, deceased, Alfred F. Walker, Halden Walker, Mrs. Halden Walker, Also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property des cribed in the complaint herein, De

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear or answer for want thereof the plaintiffs will said judgment, including interest, take a decree against you quieting attorney's fees, costs of suit and the title to the following described the said Defendants, Lawrence thereof is dated August 2nd, 1933 and directs publication once each for four successive weeks and the date of the first publication of this all persons claiming by, through, or summons is August 3rd, 1933.

C. A. WINTERMEIER, Attorney for plaintiffs. Residence,

Eugene, Oregon. (A 3-10-17-24-31)

ory in a skidding taxicab accident in Chicago. One morning two years later she woke, after a fall from her horse, her memory restored, to find herself, as Frills, the wife of Neil Packard, rich California fruit packer, She determined to tell nobody of her predicament but set about learning what she could of can be cultivated, good road. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE conversation of her friends and let-STATE OF OREGON FOR LANE ters in her desk she gathered that she had been a heartless, pleasure Clarissa Homewood, Plaintiff vs. loving young woman. One letter Boyd C. Homewood, defendant. To Boyd C. Homewood, defender man signing herself, Sophie, blam-IN THE NAME OF THE ing Frills for not giving a home STATE OF OREGON you are here to a baby Sophie was caring for. by required to appear and answer Could it be her baby, Frills wonthe complaint filed against you in dered! She also found herself inthe above entitled suit within four volved in an affair with a man than on this particular night. She weeks from the date of the first named Maitiand. In San Francisco, wanted to forget everything and publication of this summons and if where she went while her husband you fail to so answer the plaintiff was away on business, she met will apply to the court for a decree Robert Ainsworth, a poet whose dissolving the bonds of matrimony work she had always admired. now existing between plaintiff and When Joyce returned home, the de-defendant herein and granting un-cided to be pleasanter to Neil than to plaintiff an absolute divorce Frills had been. But this line was from the defendant; and for the dangerous, too, for Neil was pathe-care and custody of Wallace Dale tically anxious to win back Frill's Homewood the minor child of the love. At his request they call on marriage. This summons is published once adorable. NOW GO ON WITH THE

> "And you live here all alone and write?" asked Joyce.

> "You forget Claud Alfred," replied Ainsworth with a smile. Claud Alfred Tremayne?

tered items of information, that and sweeping her toward the other this shack was his real headquar- man. leans, St. Augustine, Boston or vari- ice, she remained in her room until ous middle west cities. He had now he had left for the day, pretending Bristow, been at the shack for three months to be asleep when he knocked genand expected to stay until he fin- tly before he finally departed. She ished his present book, which got up as soon as she heard his must start back to Manzanita, that she was simply going for a Ainsworth suggested riding part of long ride. She told herself that it Bristow, deceased, also all other the way with her, to the point was too soon to make another call where he would branch off onto on Ainsworth and that she had no the road to Manana. He saddled intention of doing anything so foolperty described in the complaint Rosita and his own, a strong-look. ish. She certainly did not want him ing dapple gray, who came to his to think she was pursuing him!

heirs of Martha S. Bristow, de-ceased, unknown heirs of Isaac V. look, and Joyce knew that he was hoofs behind her. go to see her.

interest in the real property described in the complaint herein. Deshe said quickly and spurred her that to have to eat lunch alone on so sick of that hideous yellow waved her hand without looking the angels weep!"

dressed again, and ate her dinner.

Southeast quarter of the Northeast quarter and the Northeast quarter of the Southeast quarter of gers, opening the covers, glancing The conversation was kept, as if night and driving back tomorrow? west quarter of Section 12, all in then putting off the delights of tering, impersonal. reading.

sale in foreclosure issued out of the C. Christenson recovered judgment against the Defendants Lawrence Truesdale and Rosie M. Truesdale for the sum of One Thousand 'Two IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ($1,250.00), and for the further sum Forty-two and 46-100 Dollars of Forty-two and 46-100 Dollars ($42.46) as interest thereon, and for the further sum of One Hund-red Dollars ($100.60) as attorney's fees and for costs and disburse-ments taxed at the sum of $24.80. and said execution to me directed. commanding me in the name of the State of Oregon, in order to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorney's costs of suit, and accruing to sell the following described real property, to-wit: The southwest quarter of the northwest cuarter of section 10 in Township 16 south of range 2 west of the Willamette Meridian and also the east half of the southwest quarter and the north-west quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10 township 16 south of range 2 west of the Willamette Meridian, in Lane

County, State of Oregon. The southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10 in Township 16 south of range 2 west of the Willamette Meridian.

order of sale, and in order to satisfy accruing costs, I will, on Saturday, the 9th day of September, 1933, at real property:

Lots one, four and five of Brooklyn as platted and of record in Lane County, Oregon. and that each of you be decreed to have no right, title, estate, lien or interest in cr to the aforesaid premises or any part thereof.

The order directing the service of this entry or the publication.

The property:

the 9th day of September, 1933, at the 9th

County. (A 10-17-24-31—8 7)

Synopsis - Joyce Ashton, poor while she lay and thought about and looked at him, appealing to his together.

Did he sleep on that wide couch difficulty. under the window, or out of doors keeping watch overhead in the deep gust. It was a cheerful, completely like enamel surface was a deep velvet of the sky?

heart, and she cleached her hands suddenly.

She was in love with Robert Ainsworth!

Thank God. Neil was away. Joyce had never valued the luxury of privacy and undisturbed quiet more wanted to forget everything and everybody except Robert Ainsworth.

During the next day, however, the inevitable reaction occurred. Doubts and fears plunged her down disastrously from the heights of exaltation to frequent moods of black uncertainty and hopelessness. Where could this end, this delightful, this miraculous meeting? She stele into her mind the disturbing thought, "But that was why I was Joyce giggled at the fiction of holding Neil off all this time . . . 1 Claud Alfred. Why had she known was waiting for Robert!" How from the first that there was no could she be Neil's wife now?

Every heart beat was lifting her on as Neil drove his car into the gai-She found out, among other scat. an irresistible wave of longing ters, from which he went away Joyce was in bed before Neil got every few months and stayed in home that night and the next morn-San Francisco, New York, New Or- ing, a little ashamed of her coward-Mary Merz, John Merz, Milton would probably be about two more car roll out of the drive, dressed in her riding habit, and ate a hurried When he reluctantly decided she breakfast. She pretended to herself To Blanche Graham, James Gracell from the far end of the corral. Yet, somehow, about noon she Drawing rein at the parting place found herself at the foot of the Ainsworth gave her an inquiring trail. Suddenly she heard horse's about to ask her if he might not "Hullo," exclaimed Robert Ainsworth, coming up at a gallop. "I The next morning during break-"l'll-l'll come out again soon," was just thinking as I rode along fast Joyce said suddenly, "Neil, I'm horse to a galloping start. She such a day was enough to make Duesenberg. I wish I could turn it Joyce's heart lightened at a you mind?" Joyce rode home in a daze. Me-bound, Deep gratitude flooded her Neil grinned. "Well, I never did you in the above entitled suit with- chapically she undressed, bathed, at this casual but warm reception. After dinner she retreated to her dispelled She was glad, glad, glad "If . . . If I drove the Duesenberg and if you fail to so appear or answer for want thereof the plaintiffs room and settled herself luxurious that she had come! And during the up to the city today, do you think three hours she stayed with Robert I could make the exchange right She lay in her blissful trance. Ainsworth, eating lunch with him, off without too much red tape?" She held both of Robert Ains- helping him wash the dishes, and "Oh, yes, I don't believe you'd at the first sentences, tasting, and by mutual consent, light and ban- I've got a little business to see in

"I've finished Olittering Pave- with you," suggested Neil. She wondered how the shack ments," she remarked in a pause, Joyce sighed inwardly. She did looked at night, what Robert Ains. "But I'm saving The Rose Adobe not want to go to a show. She had worth was doing at that moment a little longer. It's such riches to looked forward to the drive alone, have two books by Robert Ains- a chance to dream uninterrupted. of this summons by the publication thereof is dated July 25th, 1923 and directs publication.

OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION IN FORECLOSURE how I adore your writing. I wish worth at once! You can't think Notice is hereby given that by I could express myself better," virtue of an execution and order of honing he would not think here six hoping he would not think her stupid; "of course, you don't need any Circuit Court of Lane County, Oregon, on the 8th day of August, 1933. in a suit wherein, on the 3rd day of to know how much I enjoy your Walter Price has filed in the Counbooks. Everything you write is so ty Court of the State of Oregon, in satisfactory . . . it has such and for Lane County, his final restrength . . . there always seems of Martha Wallace, deceased, and to be something to bite on." She paused, suddenly overcome by the Saturday, the 26th day of August, futility of her groping for words

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

NOTICE is hereby given that I have in my hands for service an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Lane County, on the 17th day of August, 1933 in a suit wherein C. J. Howe and Sadie E. Howe are plaintiffs and Harold J. Leonard and Marjorie V. Leonard are defendants and which said execution is issued on a decree that is constituted. is issued on a decree that is en-tered of record in said suit on the 15th day of August, 1933 and which said execution orders me, the undersigned sheriff, for the purposes of satisfying the personal decree due the plaintiffs in the sum of $1500.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 8% per annum from April 7, 1930 until paid and the further sum of $150.00 Attorney's fees and costs and disbursements of suit taxed at $24.45, to sell the hereinafter described real property in the manner provided by law. Notice is hereby further given that by virtue of the foregoing I will on Saturday the 16th day of September, 1933 at one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the South and main door of the Lane County Court House in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, offer for sale

Lane County, Oregon, offer for sale

Lots numbered Three (3), and sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder all the right title and interest of the aforesaid defendants and all parties claiming by, through or under them and by, through or under Catherine J. Mil ler, deceased or any of them, in and to the following described real property:

The West sixty (60) feet of Lot seven (7) in Block One (1) of the Lizzie Luckey Addition to Eugene, Lane County, Oregon. Registered Title.

Dated August 17th, 1933. C. A. SWARTS, Sheriff. (A 17-24-31—8 7-14) tolerance and understanding of her iff the hammock under the pines there was no trace of condescen- beautiful car, but entirely unlike with the multitude of stars gravely sion nor mockery nor bored dis- the "Easter Egg." for its mirrorunderstanding, even a grateful blue, almost black. As she came to this thought smile. It warmed Joyce to the tips Three whole days since she had

"Nice girl!" he commented brie

the way if you drive out sometime? to the rustic garage. I'm sort of looking forward to meeting Dickie. You'll bring him sure.

but I can't help worrying about . . . mest satisfactory amount of en- last words. His arms tightened about interrupting you?"

"Forget it! While Claud Alfred's here so I tear off quite a bit each from this lonely spot. twenty-four hours just whenever I feel like it. No particular hurry, either."

She dismounted from Rosita just age. When he joined her and they turned toward the house together, he said, "Been out long, Frills?"

"Why, most all day. It was so lovely and I had my lunch so I kept going farther and farther." "I was sort of hoping you'd feel like a ride with me but-"Oh, I'm sorry, Neil. But I really am tired. I went pretty far." "Want to go over to Paul's tonight?" went on Neil, "he's leaving in a couple of weeks now, he said today. Got most of his plans all made. I'll . . . I'll miss old Paul." Joyce bit her lips and frowned she tried to decide what to do. You go on over to Paul's, Neil. I'm going to be so sleepy from my iong ride that I'd yawn my head ofi. I know, and that would be so annoying to Paul," she said finally. Neil did not urge her and at dinner, after his first few attempts at conversation had met with vague, absentminded replies, he finished the meal in silence. in and get a different one. Would

She smiled happily, all her doubts can do whatever you like about it.'

the city and I'd like to drive up

But after all she owed Neil a debt

Estate of Martha Wallace.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT 1933, at the court room thereof in Eugene. Oregon, have been by the Court appointed and fixed as the time and place for hearing ob-jections to said report and for the final settlement of the estate of said deceased. WALTER PRICE, Administra-tor of the Estate of Martha Wallace, Deceased. WHEELER, Attorney (J 27-A 3-10-17-24)

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

In the matter of the estate of Knute O. Husby, deceased. Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order of the County Court of Lane County, Oregon, duly made by the Hon Fred Fisk, Judge of said Court, on the 16th day of August, 1933, authorizing and directing J. A. Gibson, the Administrator of said Estate, to sell as such Administrator the real property of said Estate hereinafter described, I will, from and after the 16th day of Sept., 1933, at the office of Wells & Wells, Bank of Commerce Bldg., Eugene, Oregon,

Lots numbered Three (3), Four (4) and Six (6) of Section Five (5) in Township Twenty (20) South of Range Eleven (11) West of the Willamette Meridian, in Lane County, Oregon; and Lot number One (1) of Section Six in Township Twenty (20) South Range Eleven (11) West of the Willamette Meridian, in Lane County, Oregon; or so much thereof as may be nec essary. Said real property to be sold to the highest bidder for cash for the highest price obtainable, subject to confirmation by the afóresaid County Court.

J. A. GIBSON, Administrator.
WELLS & WELLS, Attorneys.
(A 17-24-31—8 7-14)

that seemed to grow greater in pro-

"All right," she said. ran into Ross and Clarice Emery. cognized it. Was love always partly Neil suggested their staying up in pain? Alnsworth was speaking, but San Francisco a second night and he hardly heard what he was saymaking a party to go to the theatre

The following day they started left it in the city the last time. I'll back at about noon and drove to He smiled at her and in his smile Manzanita in the new roadster, a something seemed to grip her of her toes, made her feel as if he seen Robert Ainsworth! That was had accepted her as a friend, an the thought which pushed all others equal, not just a girl who might be into the background as they approached Manzanita.

So impatient was she to be ly. "Strength . . . something to bite A. neworth again that it was not yet on. You couldn't say anything to noon the next day when she arrived please me any better than that." at the entrance to the wood road When she was leaving Ainsworth and guided the new Duesenberg said, "Do you think you can find carefully down through the pines child! 1... I can't keept my hands

When Joyce arrived at the shack found Ainsworth engaged in arm slid about her shoulders, and giving his horse a thorough curry-"Oh, yes, I can find that back ing. He stopped and came to well he bent his head and laid his cheek road and I'll bring Dickie. But . . . come her and Dickie, displaying a against hers as he murmured the thusiasm.

After a stick had been thrown for away I do as I damn' please in the Dickie until the little dog was was married to Nell Packard. Yet matter of visitors. I often work at wears and panting. Robert and even as she forced this undeniable night too, you see. There isn't much Joyce talked. And as usual, the Mrs. Francis Bench of this city fact upon her consciousness, there else that's more tempting to do out world drifted for Joyce far away have received news of the birth of

> Toward the end of the afternoon they happened to be inside the house for a moment, standing in front of the bookshelves while CONSTIPATION 6 YEARS Ainsworth hunted for a volume of poems which he had mentioned and from which he wanted to read to over the bookcase, his eyes running Drug Store.

swiftly over the citles along the portion to her regard for Robert shelves. Her heart filled with sudden pain. She loved him. She adored him! This feeling which To her disappointment Joyce surged through her was the kind fourd that she would have to wait of love she had dreamed about, for a couple of day; in order to obtain which she had wistfully yearned as the car she wanted. And when they a young girl. Instinctively, she re> get it when I go up next week if I can remember to . . . I want to read you the one on the Eucalyptus Grove. You'd like it. . " He turned Joyce looked up into his face silently. His expression changed abruptly. Suddenly he put his hands on her shoulders. "Why don't you bring your aunt along as a chaperone?" he demanded. He was smiling but to Joyce's amazement his voice shook. "You . . . you can't expect me to stay impersonal much longer, you know," he continued. now very softly, "Not while you're off you, you lovely . . . adorable . . . . beautiful-" Very gently his one he drew her close to him. Then around Joyce's yielding form. (TO BE CONTINUED)

Son Born in Montang- Mr. and a son, Gordon Dean, to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Bench, at Billings, Montana, TROUBLE NOW GONE John J. Davis had chronic constipation for six years. By using Ad-Joyce watched him as he bent feels like a new person. Adlerika is quick acting—safe. Flanery's

Save Money On

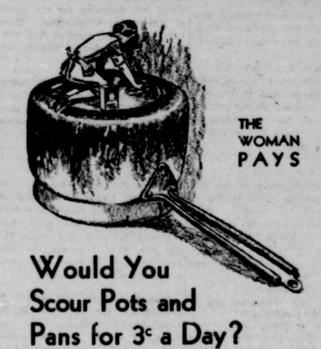

Hop Pickers' Clothing Supplies

SHOES SOX SHIRTS OVERALLS GLOVES

Serve Yourself and Save!

Williams' Self Service Store

EUGENE, OREGON

• THE DIFFERENCE in fuel costs between old fashioned flame cooking and the modern efficiency of electricity will seldom exceed 3 cents a day. The saving in food shrinkage alone will save part or all of this difference, and how wonderful it is to use a fuel so clean that the bottom of your cooking utensils will not soil your finest handkerchief. Cook the modern, convenient, electrical way. Electricity is the per-

MOUNTAIN STATES POWER COMPANY