QUACK DOCTRINE

Wide-spread conviction that there can be no further progress or expansion in business and industry and that the available jobs must be divided up appears everywhere and is influenced by the administration's policies.

Any doctrine that denies progress in this country is defeatism. To follow such a policy means we must accept lower standards of living, forego all luxuries and many necessities.

Just why progress should halt at this particular point is neither apparent nor reasonable to us. We have faith that education, science and invention if not smothered with false doctrines will continue to create more and more jobs in the future as in the past.

Curtailing production by quotas, raising prices artificially to cover the cost of least efficient operations as is now being done in Oregon by the lumber code, taxing the consumer to pay former producers to exist in idleness, destroying food and clothing while many people starve in rags, and providing unstable mediums of exchange is all part of this unnatural doctrine of defeatism.

To follow this non-progressive practice means that it will become harder and harder to make a living and that more and more people will be out of work.

When the initiative of employers, investors, buyers and sellers is stifled there exists a condition no government can solve. Lack of confidence dwarfs business and shrinks payrolls and no amount of government work supported by high taxes can overcome this condition.

The sooner we realize there is no political panacea for all our economic ills and that only hard work unhampered by dumb rules is the way we can return to prosperity the better off we all will be.

WILFRID PERCY TYSON

In the passing of Wilfrid Percy Tyson, the mayor, Springfield loses a staunch friend who always had the best welfare of city and its people at heart.

A week ago to the hour as this is written he stood at our elbow discussing some practical solution for local unemployment this winter.

Mr. Tyson approached all human problems with sympathy and understanding and year after year went about in relief work before state and federal agencies took over these obligations.

WHO IS BENEFITTED

Farmers in many sections of the country including Lane county have voted not to again participate in the hog and wheat reduction programs. They are not satisfied with being paid to curtail production and are doubtful of its benefits.

MCCORNACK FOR SENATOR

Elwin A. McCornack is the joint-senator on the Republican ticket for Lane and Linn counties. He has served two terms in the house and thoroughly knows the state problems. He is conscientious, honest and safe.

DOUBLE PAY CHECKS

Here's a new and nifty political argument: The supporters of General Martin in Portland are now urging that people owe him the governorship because he finally relinquished his $500 a month pension after people began to kick about his receiving it in addition to his $10,000 salary as congressman.

Chairman Henderson of the republican committee in a recent speech said:

"The fact is that General Martin did receive both pay checks for 16 months of his term in congress—$500 per month as a retired army officer, and $833.33 as his monthly salary as a congressman. He drew both checks as long as he could.

"Now the General comes before the people on that sort of a record to preach economy in government, consolidation of bureaus and the making of savings on every hand. In the circumstances I am justified in saying that the General's economy tears are not shed over appropriations for retired army officers who happen to be elected to congress. Nevertheless the taxpayer must provide the money for both the checks he drew until the administration's economy measure was adopted and which cut off the $500 retired pay.

COUNTY TREASURER GIVES WARRANT CALL

Grace Schiska, Lane county treasurer, this week is calling all general fund warrants to and including number 2329 dated April 30, 1934, and county road fund warrants up to and including number 4442, dated through July 31, 1934. Those warrants were called for payment as of Tuesday, October 23, 1934 at the office of the County Treasurer. Interest ceases on that date.

The county treasurer now holds many warrants which have previously been called and on which interest has ceased, but which have not been presented for payment. Several of these are held by Springfield people says Mrs. Schiska, who urges that they be turned in for payment at her office.

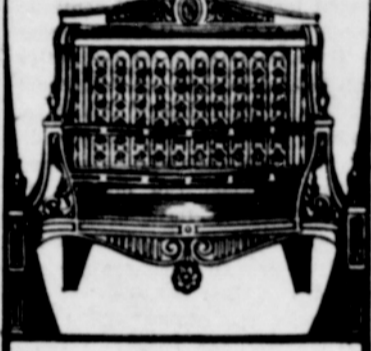

PRISCILLA MEMBERS MEETING IS TODAY

Mrs. William Curtis will entertain at her home this afternoon at 2:30 for members of the Priscilla club. The meeting has been planned to be held at the home of Mrs. Merle Casteel, but the place has been changed.

Return from Coast—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Turner returned Monday evening from the coast where they watched the bad storm which raged the first of the week. They spent a week on their outing.

Foods We Must Have

America's best foods are milk, butter and cream. Ask anyone who has traveled in the Orient what foods they missed most and they will unhesitatingly tell you milk, butter and cream. Americans are fortunate in having an abundant supply of fine dairy foods at reasonable prices.

Our modern creamery insures you the best, handled under scientific and sanitary conditions. We are proud to serve you with life's most necessary foods.

Master Candy Makers

Americans eat more candy than any other nation. That is all because throughout the land this country has more fine candy makers and sellers than any other country. In Springfield Eggimann is the fine candy maker and seller—a profession built up by a lifetime of work, study and experience.

When you buy candy at Eggimann's you know it is fine candy—delicious and pure.

EGGIMANN'S

Why I Will Vote For I. M. PETERSON For Recorder

- 1. He is the best fitted man for the position. 2. It has taken time and expense to train him to handle the city's business ably and efficiently. It will again take the same thing to train a new man. 3. His program is to get the city out of debt and reduce taxes. He has planned wisely and diligently to bring this end about. 4. He is public spirited—active in the Lions club, chamber of commerce, American Legion and other welfare organizations. 5. A vote for Peterson is a vote for GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Prohibition Means "Back to Bootleg Control"

VOTE PROHIBITION DOWN AND GIVE STATE REGULATION A FAIR TRIAL

You Can't Prohibit The only thing prohibition could do in this county would be to make the county both unlawfully and lawfully wet and make law enforcement practically impossible.

Dry Laws Can't Work The law specifically prohibits the arrest of any citizen who cares to make home brew or cannot touch either the liquor or its owners. Why Enrich Racketeers Since the law would close both state liquor stores and licensed establishments retailing wines and beers, it can readily be seen that prohibition would give the bootleggers a practically clear field.

STATE REGULATION

- 1. Is making big gains for actual temperance. 2. Is driving bootleggers out of business. 000 to state and county for old age pensions, mother's aid and unemployment relief. 3. During 1934-35 is contributing $1,500,000 to state and county for old age pensions, mother's aid, and unemployment relief without cost to taxpayers. 4. Is Oregon's only source of relief money to match federal relief funds. 5. Is steadily strengthening law enforcement. After first of year a large number of irresponsible operated retail beer establishments will be out of business. 6. Is reestablishing respect for law and is ending prohibition's fourteen years record of lawlessness, ill will, intolerance, and hypocrisy.

VOTE AGAINST PROHIBITION

—and against return to bootlegging and all its proved evils. Vote against prohibition that would force forfeiture by the county of its share of old age pensions and unemployment relief funds, and destroy the good already accomplished by the state's liquor control law.

State Control is Winning

Since the state liquor commission took over the sale of hard liquor a year ago and control of the manufacture, distribution, and sale of beer under license, it has reduced bootlegging by fifty per cent. Its next problem is to run out the disorderly retail beer and wine operators and support responsible retailers. The State liquor commission has already announced this policy and has publicly stated that it will not renew many licenses in the state upon their expiration December 31 of this year.

Support the state law and law enforcement by voting down prohibition!

VOTE 307X and 309X AGAINST PROHIBITION AND GIVE THE STATE LAW A CHANCE
