Officers Chosen

Walter Gossler, president, was re-elected, as were most of the other officers, and committee chairmen for the next year. They are: N. L. Pollard, vice-president; Larson Wright, secretary; Harry Fandrem, treasurer; Frank Rennie, chairman of the fish committee; Kenneth Tobias, rifle and pistol; H. H. Schaffenberg, hunting and shotgun; Donald Toomb, trap shooting; I. M. Peterson, legal; H. E. Maxey, publicity; H. E. Gerber, entertainment; Ray Nott, membership; and C. F. Barber, auditing.

A committee from the rifle and pistol division of the local group will be named when they meet tomorrow night to consider possible means of merging the Eugene and Springfield club along lines suggested Monday by Cliff Baird and has considerable equipment and an outdoor range which they are willing to bring into the proposed merger. The Springfield club has an indoor range suitable for both groups making possible the elimination of the Eugene indoor range which is expensive to maintain.
