

BAPTIST YOUNG FOLK
PLAN SNOW OUTING

About 30 members of the Baptist Young People's Union are planning to attend the annual winter outing to be held at the snow-line on December 25-29. The group will probably go to Belknap Springs for the evening of the twenty-eighth, and proceeding on up to the snow for their outing on the following day.

Wayne Bailey and Robert Cook are making arrangements for transportation. Bernice Cook and Jane Anderson will have charge of the eats, and Roy Carlton, Kenneth Tobias and Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Rolens and son, Robert, will accompany the young people.

Plan Family Reunion—A reunion of the Lansberry families is being planned here for the holidays.

To Entertain—Mrs. William Curtis is expecting to entertain for out-of-town guests on Christmas.

Rainbow Man Here—C. R. Belknap of Rainbow was a business visitor in Springfield Monday.

Christmas With Daughter—Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson plan to spend Christmas day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worwick, on the Lorane road.

Here For Funeral—Eunis Yarnall, private at Vancouver barracks, was here this week to attend the funeral for Silas Yarnall.

Fish on Umpqua—H. E. Gerber, Harry Pandrom, and L. E. Danks spent Sunday fishing on the Umpqua river.

Return from Visit—Mrs. Russell Myers and Lola Thompson returned Sunday from Southern Oregon where they visited with their mother, Mrs. J. O. Orchard.

Son Visits—Robert Rolens, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Rolens is here from Redland, California to spend the holidays with his parents. He is attending the University there.

Parents of Daughter—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spallinger of Oakridge are the parents of a baby daughter, born to them at the Pacific hospital in Eugene on Monday, December 17, 1934.

Three Collect Bounty—Among those who collected the county bounty on predatory animals Tuesday at the court house were Milo Thompson, Vida, on one bobcat; R. N. Vaughn, Fall Creek, one bobcat; and I. H. Stratton, Marcola, two coyotes.

Holiday Guests Are Expected—Among the guests expected here to spend the holidays with Mrs. Emma Olson and her son, Oswald, are her son, Odin, from Bridal Veil, John Hallin and Sam Galloway from Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Lansberry and family from Westfir.

Thurston

The Sunday school is giving a program for Christmas Sunday morning, and the choir is giving a cantata Sunday evening at the church.

George Thompson who has been confined in the hospital for several weeks, where he had his leg amputated after an accident, while hunting, has recovered enough to be moved to the home of a friend in Springfield.

Mrs. Helen Campbell is moving to Signal. She will continue teaching her school at Fall Creek since the death of her husband, Frank Campbell, last week.

Upper Willamette

James Jordan is recuperating after an attack of the mumps.

The Pleasant Hill church held a get-together meeting at the church last Friday. After a program a blind auction was held at which packages wrapped in all conceivable shapes were auctioned off with their contents unknown. The money thus raised will go toward buying new song books.

A Christmas program will be given at the Pleasant Hill church Saturday night by the Pleasant Hill public school and Sunday at the Pleasant Hill church. A tree with exchange of presents will be held at the school house Friday afternoon. The high school will have a tree Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrna Laird returned last Tuesday from Chicago where she attended the national 4-H congress. While there she won 5th place on her dress in the Colton dress project.

She returned from Chicago by way of Arizona and Los Angeles.

The Trent Endeavor society had a party and wicker roast last Friday at the Ernest Wheeler home. On the way home, owing to the dense fog and frost on the windshield, the car driven by Mr. White missed the rattlesnake bridge, landing upside down in two feet of water, pinning Mr. White beneath the car. Clyde Kimball was thrown out of the car, and Emma Lou Baughman and Gene Chamberlain were able to crawl out from under the wreck without assistance. Mr. White had to remain in the water under the car until help arrived. With the exception of a few scratches and bruises no one was hurt.
