CITY BOOKS WRONG

since December 23, 1909.

"The following statement of tax levies from the years 1916 to 1935 inclusive with the exception of the year 1924 shows that there has been levied an amount of $484,541.32. This amount included fund to pay the interest on the bonds outstanding and it is reasonable to believe that the collections received from liens on city property together with the interest that has been paid to the town, would have retired the major portion of the indebtedness and the town would not at the present time face a bond issue of $125,550.56, together with the warrant indebtedness of approximately $26,000.00."

Statement of Tax Levies (1916 to 1935 inclusive except 1924)

| Year | Levy and Anticipated Revenue |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Budget for 1935 | $ 33,620.38 |
| " 1934 | 36,996.29 |
| " 1933 | 43,958.28 |
| " 1932 | 32,411.74 |
| " 1931 | 31,465.22 |
| " 1930 | 28,899.24 |
| " 1929 | 28,500.90 |
| " 1928 | 31,362.40 |
| " 1927 | 29,729.00 |
| " 1926 | 28,424.00 |
| " 1925 | 26,087.00 |
| " 1924 Information not available | |
| " 1923 | 22,068.60 |
| " 1922 | 16,048.00 |
| " 1921 | 15,810.00 |
| " 1920 | 15,000.00 |
| " 1919 | 17,000.00 |
| " 1918 | 14,954.27 |
| " 1917 | 15,305.00 |
| " 1916 | 16,910.00 |
| Total | $484,541.32 |

Besides this $484,541.32 levied in taxes which carried large budget items for bond retirement on $222,828.45 worth of bonds issued since 1909 there has been collected or lost by tax sale all but $19,733.90 on bond liens. With this relatively small sum to be collected the city still has $125,000 in bonds outstanding. While no adequate explanation has been made for this wide difference it seems apparent to present city officials that many thousands of dollars of bond lien money, which should have gone to pay off bonds, have been used for other purposes when budgets were exceeded.

Mr. Breeze supports his statements with long lists of bookkeeping errors which are too numerous for us to print but can be seen by examining the report on file at the city hall.

SONG HITS FEATURED IN "GOLD DIGGER" FILM

Swanky Chorus Girls Illustrate Songs in Warner Brothers Gold Diggers Of 1935

Illustrating in picture, lyrics and melody the story of a sophisticated Broadway dawn, when the show-gal and play-boy start for their homes to get some much needed sleep just as workaday Manhattan is awakening to the rattle of milk bottles and the roar of morning trains—such is the "Lullaby of Broadway," song hit of the musical comedy spectacle "Gold Diggers of 1935," which comes to the McDonald theatre Sunday.

There are two other important songs in the show—"The Words Are In My Heart," a love-ballad in waltz time, and "I'm Going Shopping With You," a rhythm number. The ballad, "The Words Are In My Heart," is sung by Dick Powell to Gloria Stuart, with whom he falls in love in the plot. Dick also sings "I'm Going Shopping With You," to Gloria.

There is an all-star cast in the picture, which includes besides Dick Powell, Gloria Stuart and Winifred Shaw, Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Glenda Farrell, Frank McHugh, Hugh Herbert, Joseph Cawthorn and a chorus of 300 beautiful girls.
