Directors Of Lumber Groups Meet In Portland Monday For Convention

Persons interested in the lumber trike situation are now waiting the outcome of the thirty-third emi-annual convention of the Four which convenes in Portland on Monday, May 20.

W. L. Ruegnitz, president of the oyal Legion of Loggers and Lumermen, has stated that it is imposthis to forecast what action the board would take regarding wages. We don't make impossible proniscs," he said, when asked regard ng the new union's demands or 75 cents an hour. The 4L decires at all times that wages shall be the highest the industry can pay, and the only way to determine this is by conference, based on facts.

"Since 1917," he continue1, "the 41, has been assembling ossential facts in regard to the wage cuesion, if lumber markets and production costs will provide higher wage rates, increases will be made. During the course of 17 years' service in the western lumber industry, the 4L has maintained the highest wage schedules in any division of the industry."

The 4L directors, of which 14 are elected by employers, and 14 by employes, will come from the principal lumber producing sections of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California.

hereinafter provided.
