LOCAL BRIEFS

The two Misses Forrest of the Bologna were trading in town Monday.

S. G. Humphrey came over from Fossil last week to assist his sons with the farming on the Royse Ranch.

Walter Blevins, foreman of the Corn Cob Ranch, and wife were visiting in our burg last Sunday.

P. J. Shaughnessy, the Mitchell Marshall, was in town last week circulating a petition for the recall of County Attorney, J. K. Starr. Quite a number of the voters of this precinct signed the petition.

R. S. Stewart, who is working for Butler Brothers near Richmond, was in town Friday and filed on a Butler Mountain homestead.

Emmit Cochran was in town last Friday in his car. On his way down he picked up C. F. Waters to act as his assistant chauffeur.

R. D. Price has returned from Waterman. He is still somewhat indisposed, but hopes to soon be well enough to resume his editorial functions; as some of our articles do not suit his higher fancies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Younce were in town Sunday. Mr. Younce is the foreman of the Gilman French Company who own large areas of land in this county.

Rev. Lee Davis, pastor of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene at Winlock, came in on the fast mail Friday. He preached for us Friday evening, Saturday afternoon and evening, Sunday morning, afternoon and evening, and Monday afternoon and evening.

Dr. A. W. Tiedemann went to Fossil Tuesday to visit his friend Dr. F. S. McKinzie.

Thomas Marshall passed thru town Tuesday enroute for Mitchell and other out-of-the-way places southwest of SPRAY.

The Geneva Lockes' Co. played to a fairly good house here Monday night.

A cross opposite your name indicates that your subscription has expired and you are cordially invited to send in your renewal.

Miss Loretz, who has been teaching B. F. Sharp's children at their home, has gone to Portland for a two-weeks stay before taking up her work again in the school at Waterman.

The young people enjoyed a few hours tripping the light fantastic after the play Monday night.

D. E. Baxter has gone to Fossil this week to meet a salesman from whom he wishes to make some purchases.

Mrs. Ned Mainord has been on the sick list for a few days, but is improving some at this writing.

William Branson, who underwent an operation a short time ago, is out and will soon be able to resume work.

C. F. Waters had his sheep in town Tuesday night.

Jess Willard won the world's heavy-weight championship last Monday, at Havana, Cuba, from Jack Johnson. Johnson held the lead in the first twenty rounds, but was knocked out in the twenty-sixth.

J. B. Dyer is making some very convenient improvements on his property here. He is moving the old reservoir from near the river and placing it in the northeast corner of his front lot so that he may have plenty of water for irrigating the yard and garden.

Judging from the reports that have been sent out, The Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco is a success in every way. It was announced last winter by some of the leading periodicals of the country that on account of the war the foreign part of the Exposition would be greatly lowered from what it was at the previous expositions. But the European nations are making good regardless of the contentions at home.

After we elect a Republican President and Congress in 1916 it will take one year to clean up the idle factories and pass a tariff law that protects our home industries and labor. It will take us another year to get the country back to where it was when Wilson was elected. But when the Grand Old Party takes hold of the reins the wheels of progress begin to move forward with an ever-increasing speed.

Little Mary, who often appears in Lippincott's Magazine, had been sent to the store to get some fly paper. She was a long time in returning, and her mother began to feel anxious. Going to the door she spied the little girl coming up the street and called:

"Mary, have you got the fly paper?"
"No, mother," replied Mary, "it's got me, but we are coming together."
