LOCAL BRIEFS

Will you miss me when I'm gone. - Greene.

George W. Lee of Hardman, was in town Thursday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Shoun, the 25th Inst., a boy.

Ora Hawk of Lone Rock was in Spray Sunday.

William Templeton who went to Heppner to visit his mother for a few days, returned Sunday.

C. A. Simpson of Kahler Basin was in Spray Sunday.

Rev. D. W. Moore and wife of Winlock, were trading in this burg Monday.

Oscar Mainord and Frank Moore are frequent visitors to town of late.

O. A. Stafford went to Fossil Tuesday and returned Wednesday.

Henry Wilkes came over from his ranch on Bridge Creek and is visiting his brother Harry Wilkes of Kahler Basin.

A. E. Cress has been helping J. B. Dyer with his work this week.

There was a social hop at Henry Hunts place in Hay Stack Friday night.

Joseph Chapman and wife were in Spray Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Isaac Large and Mrs. Kimberly of the Junction, were in Spray Sunday attending church.

Rev. D. W. Moore and Miss Perry will have charge of the school here next year.

Mrs. O. G. Tyler of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Moore of Hay Stack this week.

Rev. Cook, pastor of the Baptist church at Fossil, preached here Saturday night and Sunday.

C. W. McGilvary was in Spray Saturday, looking quite lonesome from some cause, but he might not have been feeling well.

R. E. Wright had the misfortune to get his eye nearly put out, but we did not learn how the accident happened.

Parrish Creek is so low that the J. D. D. Co. will not run their shearing plant this year. They will have their sheep sheared with the blades.

J. E. Mainord who came out from Missouri about six months ago, has decided to remain and has rented Mrs. Croz323 residence property in lower town.

Owing to the shipment having been delayed, C. F. Water's new Ford car did not arrive Wednesday as expected, but will arrive in a few days.

Friday was the last day of the public school at this place, and children and parrents gave the teachers a farewell reception at the school house in the afternoon.

At the present rate land is being taken, there will be no available homesteads, soon, in this part of Wheeler County. Our Commissioner is kept quite busy taking filings and final proofs.

Prof. R. L. Greene started Saturday morning to visit his boyhood home at Greenes Creek, N. C. He is going by Steamer from Portland, expecting to stop a few days at the Exposition at San Francisco, and go from there by way of the Panama Canal.

Miss Dorothy King, primary teacher in the public school here the past year, left Saturday for her home at Fossil. Miss King gave perfect satisfaction, and it is with regret that we learn of her unwillingness to apply for a second term.

Mrs. Nealy Helms who has been in Portland for a few weeks returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Mathena who has spent the winter in Portland returned Thursday.

Miss Hazel Hampton and Miss Ruth Shown of Richmond, were visiting friends in Spray this week.

Mit Leathers came over from Hardman Monday.

Johnie Gates and B. M. Shoun were on our streets Tuesday.

O. A. Stafford is the conductor on our street car line this week, which consists of two horses and a lumber wagon. His passengers are the shearing crew who are taking the wool off the backs of Charles Bockler's sheep at the J. D. D. Co's sheds.

The Misssionary Baptist Association will be held in Spray this year, beginning on Wednesday, June the 9th. The churches comprising this association, will have a full representation of delegates and ministers, and beside the regular business meetings there will be preaching services conducted by the ablest ministers in the district. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

"Huckleberry" Finn, the hero of Mark Twain's story, according to the Chicago Blade, now resides on the McKenzie River in Lane County, Oregon. He is 90 years old and has lived in Oregon for more than 40 years. He got the name of "Huckleberry" Finn while a mate on the Mississippi River during the Civil War.
