LOCAL BRIEFS

Wheat & Barley - B. & O.

George Perry of Lone Rock was in town Monday night. He is going to the McDuffy Mineral Springs to take treatment for rheumatism. He informed us that he lost about 336 head of sheep last winter by drowning.

John A. Britt of Alder Creek was in town Tuesday.

E. B. Enyart and family were down from their ranch a few days this week taking chiropractic treatments and having some dental work done.

Dr. F. E. Jackson the dentist is still here and it you have any dental work to be done it will pay you to see him before he leaves.

Tom Hoover was in town Sunday transferring a band of sheep which he had purchased from Ed Templeton and sold to others.

C. W. Templeton and wife were in town Sunday and Monday.

T. J. Mote of Kahler Basin was a town visitor Monday.

Lanie Kelsay was in town on land business Monday.

Claude Norris went to Arlington last Friday in his Ford to take some passengers who wished to catch an early train east.

F. M. Templeton and family were in town in the Studebaker Monday.

P. H. Peters was in town this week selling some horses to Andy Wilson of Fossil.

Oscar Kelsay and Prof. H. J. Simmons were in town Monday.

C. F. Putnam of Monument was in town Sunday.

Ed Templeton has sold his sheep and is now harvesting his first crop of alfalfa.

W. E. Wiglesworth was here Saturday receiving a band of sheep which he had purchased from Tom Hoover.

The mail is again being hauled by horse power as both the cars were needed on the Mitchell line.

F. M. Gilliam of Fossil came over on the stage Monday to show the new stage driver, Walter Nicholas, the way to Spray.

Lloyd Matheson was here last Thursday.

F. G. Shoun was in town Tuesday night with a bunch of mutant sheep he is taking to Portland.

Stewart Grant was in Spray Wednesday on business.

Dr. Hodgen has gone to Winlock. J. B. Dyer and Prof. Greene took him over in Carsner's Ford car.

Quite a number of wool teams loaded at the shearing plant last Sunday and are now on the road to Condon. They will bring back freight for our merchants and farmers.

William Shaw was recently killed by a train at Dayton Wash. He was a son-in-law of William Hawes of Kahler Basin. The cause of the accident is unknown to us. Mr. Hawes and children, D. A., J. G. W., Mrs. E. R. Moore and Mrs. C. C. Austin went to Condon Monday to attend the funeral as they intend to bury him there. Mr. Shaw was once a resident of Kahler Basin living where C. A. Simpson now lives.

Miss Goldie Vanbibber of Monument was here Sunday on land business. She has been engaged in school work for some time and is considered one of the best educators in this part of Oregon. She has, however, decided to quit teaching for a while and try farming. Miss Vanbibber is an accomplished musician and has made many friends in the State and we prophesy for her success in any undertaking.

I have on hand at my garage in Spray, Gasoline, Zeroline Oil, Cupgrease, Transmission grease, Transmission Lubricant, Three in one hard oil, Puritan motor oil and Pure oil.

J. B. Dyer.

NOTICE - Strayed from the Canyon Creek range about last October, one black three-year-old gelding, branded TF connected on the left Stifle. I will pay a reasonable reward for information leading to its whereabouts.

RULES GOVERNING EXHIBITS.

1. Any child may make as many different exhibits as he or she desires, but only one entry for each prize.

2. In gardening, a child may have the ground plowed by some one else, but all the planting, care, harvesting and preparation of the produce for entry at the fair must be done by the child in whose name the entry is made. Lambs and pigs must be taken from their mothers not later than two weeks after birth, and thereafter the child who enters the lamb or pig must take all the care of it. If a child desires to exhibit chickens, he or she must set the hen, and after hatching take all the care of the hen and chicks. All entries must be accompanied by a certificate signed by the child's parents or guardian to the effect that the article exhibited is in every sense the child's own production, according to the intentions of the fair, which is to encourage the boys and girls to raise and make the articles by their own efforts, subject to these rules.

3. Every boy and girl in School Districts 1, 2, 4, 9, and 16, who is under 21 years of age is eligible to enter these contests. Class A will include all over twelve years of age. Class B will include all twelve years of age and under.

4. All entries must be made on blanks which may be had at the COURIER office. No entrance fee will be charged. Exhibits must be listed by 9 A. M. on Fair Day.
