One Result of the War.

A delightful old lady of a little town in Nebraska was discovered one morning in the act of killing a chicken.

"Why, Mrs. Brown, I thought that you were afraid to kill a chicken," said a neighbor in surprise.

"Yes, dearie, I did utter be; but since the war broke out I've done it right smart."

"Well, you see, it's this way: I utter think that bloodshed was an awful thing, but since I've been readin' about all them men-killin' in Europe I just get a rooster by the feet, lay his head on the block and say to myself: 'Now, Sarah, 'tain't near so bad as killin' a man. Where's your nerve?' And then I just shut my eyes and whack."—Youth's Companion.

Why He Lost His Job.

Tommy—Wasn't there anything else you could do in the place?
Jimmy—I guess not. Anyhow he said I didn't seem able to do anything else.

Tommy—And what was you makin'?
Jimmy—Mistakes.—Utica Herald Dispatch.

Unprepared.

Representative Augustus P. Gardner said in a preparedness address in New York:

"Can you fight?" shouted one man.
"N—no," another answered.
"Then," shouted the first man—"then come on, you coward!"

To Suit All Tastes.

The following conversation was overheard in a railway train not long ago:

Just as the train was moving from the station two men were bundled into a carriage. Both were of the sporting type and were evidently particularly keen on racing.

"Let's have a look at yer paper, Bill," said Charlie.

"Ere we are, Charlie," said Bill, handing his friend an evening paper.

After a few minutes of silence Charlie remarked sententiously: "Wonderful things, newspapers, aren't they, Bill? They've got so many different sorts of things in 'em—stories, cookery, murders, suicides, racin'—some-thing for everybody, in fact."

"You're right they are, Charlie."

"But what's this 'ere blank space, Bill?" pointing to the blank space reserved for stop-press news.

"Oh," replied Bill, "that's for people who can't read."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

How the Spellbinder Turns the Trick.

Fleeting Fame.

"Fame doesn't last long, does it?"

"What's on your mind now?"

"I gave $500 to a worthy charity and my name and the amount I donated were printed in all the papers."

"Yes."

"And the next day my name was dropped and the sum appeared only in the list of previously acknowledged."

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y.—"For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation."

—Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

War Cuts Phone List.

There are at least 10,000 fewer telephones in London as a result of the war, business firms in hundreds of instances discontinuing the service in the interest of retrenchment. The government, which operates the system, announces that although telephones have been discontinued by the wholesale there has been an increase in the use of electrophones—the instrument which connects the subscriber with the theater and enables people who prefer to remain indoors these gloomy nights of black streets to have amusement brought to their fireplaces.
