The Astoria cannery fixed the price at $1 a salmon, and the Fishermen's Union demands $1.15.

The American Historical Society has instituted two libel suits at Portland against the Oregonian.

All the men charged with crime in connection with the labor troubles in the Cour d'Alene are now at liberty.

There is talk of reducing the miners' pay at Namaiito, B. C. The union is very strong there, and a strike is not at all improbable.

Bands of Apaches are away from their reservation in Arizona. So far the Indians are being very saucy.

Governor Murphy of Arizona has vetoed the bill passed by the Legislature extending the time of citizenship from six months to twelve months.

The whiskey smuggling on the west coast of British Columbia is not as extensive as reported. The bulk of it is from Victoria, not the United States.

Reports have been received at Phoenix, A. T., of new and rich placer diggings in the southwestern part of Maricopa county, about thirty miles north of Agua Caliente.

Superintendent Hurley of the British Columbia police at Victoria has decided to go north in connection with the Indian excitement over the alleged Sorrow Island massacre.

The International Nickel Company, which owned the great nickel mine at Kiddlee, Or., has sold a two-thirds interest in the property to an English syndicate for $600,000.

The Bonanza mines in the Harqua Halas, Yuma county, A. T., cleaned up $150,000 as the result of the last month's run. This is the largest chunk of gold ever run into one bar.

During high water on the Gila river a few days ago a large section of the dam of the Gila Bend Irrigation Company's canal, sixty miles southwest of Phoenix, was washed away. The damage is estimated to be not less than $100,000.

Oregon has five live ex-governors, and all are Democrats but one—Hon. Z. F. Moody of Salem. The Democrats are Hon. L. F. Groves of Portland, Hon. W. W. Thayer of Portland, Hon. John Whitaker of Eugene and Hon. S. F. Chadwick of Salem.

In the suit of John Doe against the Watson Mining Company, tried in the Los Angeles Superior court, the court, involving the title to disputed ground in the mining claims at Calico, Judge Ross rendered a verdict for the plaintiff. Several suits are practically settled by this decision.

The advent of a Chinaman at Great Falls, Mont., where a dam is to be opened, caused a mass meeting of laboring men, who sent a committee to consult with the authorities. Police protection was given the Chinaman, but he was forced to forego his design and leave town.

The Planz murder case at San Jose is again before the people in the shape of hints at evidence being found, and that sensational arrests will shortly follow. The theory of suicide has never been popular, the appearance of the clothing and the shoes seem to show that the body had been dragged to where it was found. The murder was committed last November.

The Arizona Legislature has passed a bill which provides that upon the petition of the parents of fifty pupils in incorporated cities and towns a teacher must be employed to teach Spanish. The strongest opposition was from the sections where Mexicans predominate. The ground of the opposition was that the result would certainly be the exclusion of English in many schools.

The great project of irrigating the Mojave desert by means of a mammoth dam to be built at Victor Narrows, on the line of the Southern California railroad, appears to be an assured fact. Documents for the formation of a company have been completed and signed. The capitalists interested are Eastern men from New York and California. The expenditure involved is about $1,500,000.

"There's more whisky on the west coast than in Victoria," remarked Frank Adams, who has just returned to Victoria, B. C., from that quarter. "The Indians are all drunk, and the sealers have a hard time in getting a crew. Whisky is being smuggled in by the ton, and the red men are having a high old time. The whisky is coming from the American side. I never saw so much drunkenness on that coast. There does not seem to be any government control there at all."

While in the railroad yard at Kingman, A. T., Charles H. Reno, a brakeman, observed a runaway engine approaching at great speed from one direction and passenger No. 2 from the other, both on the side track. He quickly sprang to the sidetrack switch and slammed it down, which stopped the engine and somewhat damaged it. The engine had jumped from the cab as soon as the locomotive became unmanageable, but the fireman had remained at his post. The latter escaped uninjured. A purse was made up for the brakeman.

The Chinese Six Companies at San Francisco have issued a new circular officially and openly advising the Chinese to refuse compliance with the Geary law. A translation of the circular is in part as follows: "This registration law is not right. All authorities we have consulted agree to this. We have employed five attorneys to go to Washington at the Supreme Court to fight this unjust law. Wait until May before you do anything. Wait and we will help you. The Chinese Minister has gone to the head men of the government to get decisions, and we hope to get them soon, in order that our people may not be arrested and sent to jail. We ought to do what is right and not pay money for registration, and thus lose our respectability."
