Mrs. Thomas Driscoll attempted suicide at Heppner. She first tried to take carbolic acid, but was prevented by her husband, and directly afterward took a quantity of rough on rats. A physician was immediately summoned and, by a vigorous use of the stomach pump, her life was saved. Domestic troubles are said to be the cause.

A Swedish officer committed suicide at the Astor house, New York city, under remarkably sensational conditions. He shot himself while detectives were breaking into his room to arrest him for embezzlement. His assumed name was G. Anderson, and his real name was Gustav Rinnblad. He was married and came from a good family. He was paymester of a battalion of the Swedish army.
