LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

All roads day-to-day. Dr. J. L. Hill was in this city today. Cow feed is now in great demand at the Scio Roller Mills. Mr. C. E. Loud, the new barber, is first-class and no mistake. Dr. A. G. Prill, when in Portland last week, purchased a bicycle for his wife. J. C. Simpson is over looking after matters at the Spicer warehouse this week. Don't believe what people tell you today, nor more than about half you say yourself. An infant child of John Garland's is said to be beyond hope of recovery with an attack of pneumonia. The aged parents of J. N. Morris, who live at Lebanon, attended the funeral of their daughter-in-law, of this city last week. G. W. Phillips (Wash) is at Ashland, trying the curative qualities of the mineral springs at that place, for rheumatic troubles. Scio is still waiting—only waiting for that prosperity that was promised with the introduction of the McKinley administration. May 1 is the time now set for starting up the creamery. If the spring, bad weather continues to that time, a later date will probably be set. All empty houses in Scio now with one exception, have occupants. There is also a prospect for an increase in the number of business houses. The rite of baptism, by immersion was administered last Sunday by Elder Hanlman to four little girls, none of whom were above 12 or 13 years old. Mrs. T. W. Dilley and family will today join the husband and father at Corvallis, taking their household goods with them. The Press follows them. Doctor Prill having located in Scio, can be found at his office, in the building formerly occupied by Dr. Hyde. Calls promptly attended, day or night. The month just closed has been about the stormiest and most disagreeable month of March, Oregon has ever experienced. So says the oldest inhabitant. The weather clerk evidently has over supply of cold, stormy, snowy weather on hand and is endeavoring to unload the whole business in the month of March. Bring your old leaky silver watchcases to A. W. Hagey and trade them for new nickel ones. He can save you 25 per cent on all kinds of watches and jewelry. Asa P. Hiron and Miss Washburn were married in this city several days ago. We should have noticed the fact last week, but the particulars were not given us, nor as yet for that matter. Thirty-three persons came over from Scio Monday, of whom thirty were ladies representing the youth and beauty of the city. Indeed it was a delegation that no city need feel ashamed to send anywhere—Telescopo. T. J. Munkers has a Jersey bull that at times becomes rather obstreperous. He is not at all particular with whom or what he has a fight. Mr. A. Loxton can relate quite an interesting experience with him if he will. The Brownsville Times is continually finding fault with the present county government because it does not patronize the Times with legal advertisements. The Times ought not to expect patronage when it was for sale during the campaign to the highest bidder and was bought by one or two republican candidates. Sheriff Gaines does right to give the sheriff sales and the delinquent tax list to popular papers. The general taxpayers do not pay the bills. At all events the Times was not particularly favorable to Mr. Gaines' election.

Albert Cole made a business trip to Albany last Sunday. A daily mail service has been established between Lebanon and Lebanon. O. D. Austin, of Salem and Lynn Jones, of Oregon city, were in Scio a few hours on last Sunday. Albany talks of erecting a barrel and stove factory. A San Francisco firm will take the entire output, if erected. Scio people are only waiting for good weather and prosperity. The first is expected while the last is only hoped for. Mr. and Mrs. Lee, who helmed the property of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Morrison arrived in this city last week bringing with them a carload of furniture and household belongings. A special session of the A. O. E. U. lodge of this city was held last Tuesday night, at which time the degree of "equal rights" was conferred upon ten victims that the G. D. C. had obtained. The high winds of last Thursday did no damage, in this vicinity, to speak of. We hear of some fencing blown down, trees blown across roads, etc., but no buildings are injured so far as heard of. E. C. Lord, who lately arrived in this city from Southern California, has leased the Austin building on the South side and will conduct a barber shop and cigar and confectionery store therein. It was intimated to us a few days ago, by an Albany citizen that it was likely that another of the prominent merchants of that city would soon be numbered among the victims of the gold standard. The force of public opinion in European countries is gradually forcing the "powers" to abandon the position taken by them to protect Turkey in her atrocious treatment of Christians and which is being resisted by Greece. The Daily San Francisco Examiner states editorially that Portland is to have a new morning paper with full telegraphic service and that it will be called "The Tribune." This would indicate that probably the Examiner will be interested in the venture. Gladstone, England's grand old man has written a very strong argument against the action of the European powers in the Turkish and Greek war. He scores the powers unmercifully for aiding or protecting the bloody Turks in mass-merciless Christians. The effort is to be made to apply the "gold law" to the United States senate in the same way that Carl Reed now rules the house of representatives. The senate has prevented the enactment of many unjust measures, but very few if any laws that are demanded by the people generally, are prevented. Should the American senate be placed as nearly under a one man power as the house of representatives now is, the sum of American liberty and prosperity will soon have set forever. A Sensible Wedding. McMINNVILLE, Or., March 29.—Miss Nettie A. Olds, a well-known scullion of the Pacific coast, was united in marriage yesterday to W. E. Haight, of Loxa, at the ceremony was a quiet one, and strikingly characteristic of the religious convictions of the contracting parties. Justice of the Peace A. W. McPhillips, of this city, pronounced the simple ceremony, which was after this fashion: "Miss Olds and Mr. Haight, will you take each other for man and wife?" "We will." They were then pronounced husband and wife by all legal authorities. There were no particular preparations. The bride was dressed apparently in her every-day gown, and the groom was in his second best. The ceremony was meant to convey the impression that all useless form was to be forgotten, the event being celebrated in a common-sense, common-place manner. Miss Olds will retain her own name in conjunction with that of her husband, and will be henceforth known as Mrs. Nettie Old-Haight. Accidentally Shot. From a private letter we learn of the death of Johnny Prime, an old time Lien county boy, which occurred at Colusa, California, and was caused by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was carrying. The shot took effect in his side and death resulted in a short time. This is the third boy of this family that has met death from accidental causes. Johnny was the youngest son of Martin Prime who was well known in this county a few years ago. (W. F. D. will please accept our thanks for the item.—Ed.) Patronize your home paper. A Valuable Fruit Paper. As fruit is rapidly becoming the leading industry of the Northwest, and as this county can easily get to the front ranks if the farmers will only take hold and push things, we have made arrangements to do far more than our share toward pushing the county forward in this respect and will do more if the farmers will show the proper spirit of enterprise. There is now published at Portland, not only the most valuable but the only fruit paper of America which admits no reading matter to its columns except that relating to fruits—their culture, care, marketing, etc., presented in such a form by the prominent fruit writers of the Northwest and America that none can read and study it without becoming proficient fruit growers. We will give this fine 32-page paper free for one year to all subscribers of the Press who will pay their back subscription and one year in advance, or to new subscribers who pay one year in advance before July.
