Seems to us as though we have heard it said that a rainy Easter was a sure sign that it would rain on the seven succeeding Sundays. Last Sunday, the first one after Easter, was as pleasant and sunshiney as one may wish to see.

Hon Volney B Smith, son of Hon Delazon Smith who was probably the most eminent public citizen Linn county ever produced died at Little Rock Ark., last week. The deceased was a brother of ex-Sheriff Smith of this county.

A teacher in the Jefferson, Mo., school has ascertained that 26 of the 28 girls in her department desire to become teachers. One boy said he would prefer being a farmer, but if that didn't come handy he would like to be a bachelor. Another expressed an ambition to become an engineer, a garbage collector or a Catholic priest. A little girl said that her choice lay between the occupation of an artist or that of an old maid.

Dr. Aiken, formerly a resident of Albany, now living in King's Valley, Benton county, came down from Gates yesterday, where he had been called to treat Mr. E. A. Hester for a cancer upon the nose. He found Mr. Hester suffering from partial paralysis, and had to treat him for that before commencing upon treatment for the cancer. He will return to King's valley today. —Tuesday's Herald.

Farmers, get your cows in shape for the opening of the creamery, which it is contemplated by the management will occur on May 1st. It rests intirely with you now, whether the creamery is made a success or not; for the management intends giving you every cent that the product of your milk will bring, except the absolute cost of making and shipping the butter. There is no reason why the milk of 1000 or 1500 cows may not be converted into butter and a source of profit to the farmer for at least three-fourths of the year.

A dispatche from Salem says: Emma G. Hannah the Linn county murderess, who was transferred from the penitentiary to the insane asilum March 20, does not impress the assylum authorities as being very insane. In fact, Superintendet Paine says she has so far exhibited no evidences of insanity. It is not claimed, however, that she is not mentally unbalanced. There are patients whose periods of insanity are recurrent, and between those periods they are apparantly sane. The Hannah woman has been placed in a ward, where she is carefully watched, and if her present mental condition is maintained, will be returned to the penitentiary.

Homer Davenport has made the Silverton band famous by making a drawing of it for the title page of one of Sousa's "Quicksteps" which was written and dedicated to the "Great Silverton Band." A photograph of the band also appeared in a recent number of Conn's Musical Review.

"The Bloomer dress," says a Western humorist, "is a pair of trousers very baggy at the knees, abnormally full at the pistol pockets, and considerably full where you strike a match. The garment is cut decolette at the South end, and the bottoms tied around the ankles or knees to keep the mice out. You can't put it over your head like you do your shirt, nor around you like a corset, but you must sit on the floor and pull it on just as you do your stockings, one foot at a time in each compartment. You can easily tell the right side to have in front by the buttons on the neckband."—Exchange.

Your editorial in the PRESS of the 15th. inst. had the right ring to it. Let the Populists keep up their organization and let the other fellows do the "coming over." In the days of the Assyrian monarchy, the wealth was collected in the hands of the few. Those few built palaces, gave suppers costing thousands, supported racing, wild beast shows, and became so corrupt that God, in his wrath, blotted the nation out. In the days of Babylonian government, the kings and their retainers, became fabulously rich, having no concern for the mass of the people. Daniel propheсied the downfall of the government, and down it went. In the days of the Roman monarchy the senators leislated only for themselves and their friends and had no concern for nothing but their own aggrandizement; down came the Roman empire. So went the Egyption government during Cleopatra's reign and Carthaginian government. In these days of the United States government we see the same state of affairs that existed previous to the downfall of former great nations. When the wealth of the nation passes into the hands of the few, the rest become disloyal. One half of the citzens of the U. S. are disloyal today. A nation can be strong only as the citizens are loyal. The citizens of this country are becoming disloyal in an arithmetical ratio, about one million each year. President McKinley can no more arrest the march of events than Senator Mitchell can build a railroad to the planet Mars. The absolute remedy is men in congress that do not give a care for the money power and its interests. It is either speedy return of general power to the hands of the people, or a revolution. This government, cannot and will not stand with one-half of the people rebels.

Drowned.

From a private letter we learn that Richard Henry Pollard of Prineville was drowned while attempting to walk a footlog across a stream in that vacinity. The body was rescued by Geo. B. Ray, but too late to be recussitated. Mr. Pollard was a member of the Baptist church was 75 years old at his last birthday and was respected by all who knew him. (G. B. R., will please accept our thanks for the item.)

A Splendid April.

The month just closing has been an unusually fine one. Our farmers, most of them, are through seeding and are now engaged in plowing summer fallow. Fall grain as well as early spring grain looks well and promising. A better prospect for fruit of all kinds in this locality, was never seen by any one. Should our crops, fruit etc., continue as favorable as they now look, til maturity and a reasonable price be realized, we can reasonably expect prosperity to strike Scio sometime this next fall. But, on the account of the present favorable outlook, farmers, do not relax in your energy in the least. With the best of crop returns, and price, we will still be short when settling day comes. Make every edge cut and every turn that will put money in your pockets. It is only the frugal and industrious that win in the battle of life.

Sent To The Asylum.

When Morgan Wassom, who, it will be remembered was given a life sentence in the penitentiary a few years ago, for the crime of murder and whose sentence was commuted to a four years term by Governor Pennoyer, came home, it was thought that he would soon recover his failing health. Such however, has not been the case. He has so continually grieved over the consequences of his rash act, that his mind could not stand the strain. Last week he was examined and committed to the insane asylum and was taken to that place by Sheriff Gaines.

Fearful Catastrophe.

Early Tuesday morning a Portland electric car jumped the rails on a bridge over a slough some twenty feet to the bottom. As a result three of the twenty passengers are dead while all the rest are more or less injured. There was no known cause for the car to jump the rails at this particular place, yet further investigation may show the reason.

Homestead Publication.

Land Office at Oregon City
April 12, 1897.

I Frank Waln of Jordan who made Homestead Application No. 8569 for the South West quarter of Section 34 in Township 10 South of range 1 East do hereby give notice of my intention to make final proof to establish my claim to the land above described, and that I expect to prove my residence and cultivation before County Clerk at Albany on May 24th, 1897 by two of the following witnesses: J. A. Craft, C. T. Craft and John A. White of Larwood and H. E. Barmester of Jordan.

FRANK WALN.

Mrs. A. Iveen, residing at 720 Henry St. Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by EWING & PEERY.

New Barber Shop.

Mr. C. A. Loud, recently of California, has opened a new barber shop near the south end of the bridge in this city, in the Austin building, where you can get a first class shave or a hair cut. The shop is new and everything is neat and clean. Give him a trial.

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton, Ky, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and find it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. For sale by EWING & PEERY.

We want money. Delinquents will please take notice. We will take cordwood, meat, wheat, oats, hay, live stock, threshing machines, steam engines, and, well we would take a little gold if we could get it.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by EWING & PEERY.

Mohair-Goats Wool

Those having mohair will remember that I am going to buy and I will pay the very highest price possible. It is my wish and certainly to my interest that the growers of this community get the top price for their wool—remember that.
