For sale—One second hand ten horse power engine and an Advance cylinder separator. All in good order. Call on Austin & Probst, good order. Albany, Oregon.

Miss Elsie Martin who has been visiting in California for some months past, returned to Astoria last week, where she will accept a position in the Post Office there.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

John Compton moved from Independence last week, back to his farm Southeast of Seio. He has built a dwelling and barn on his ranch and will reside there for some time to come.

A. M. Mecklen, state organizer of the Woodman of the World, delivered an able address on Woodcraft at the Woodman's hall Wednesday night. The condition of the weather kept many away.

Charley Jeffries brought a sample of wool to town Saturday, that came off a lamb 7 months old, and measured 12 inches in length. The wool resembled no-hair in appearance. The lamb was of the Improved English Cotswold breed.

Ira Richardson, and Tom Phillips, of Jordan, have returned home from their trip to Garfield county. They brought back with them 10 head of horses. Farmers in Garfield county were not done thrashing at the time they started for home, Oct. 1.

W. J. Keeney brought two fine young deer to Lebanon last Thursday and sold them to the butchers. Mr. Keeney and his wife were out hunting on Monday last when they killed four deer. Mr. Keeney killed two and his wife two.

Last Thursday morning as the locomotive on the Seio branch was taking two cars loaded with sheep out to West Seio, for Bill Brenner, the rails spread at the first curve out of town, and dived the tank. It was lucky the accident occurred where it did, for there are some grades on the line that would make such an accident dangerous indeed. As it was some of the passengers were pretty badly frightened.

Rev. Arthur Cann, last night preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the Christian church, after a faithful service here of two years. He has not decided on his future location.—Albany Democrat.

The people of "this man's town" would give him a hearty welcome, should he take a notion to locate in Seio again. His friends here are legion. Mrs. J. B. Fryear, of Black Butte, Crook Co., who lives over the mountains the latter part of Sept. with a two horse team and all alone, started on her homeward trip last Friday, after spending several weeks visiting relatives and friends in the vicinity of Lyons. Stopping at Seio, she bought her winter supplies of our merchants here. She said it seemed almost like getting goods give to her, compared with what she had to pay in Prineville. Mrs. Fryear said she spent the Spring and Summer months riding on the range after cattle, and boasts of being the best lady horseback rider in Oregon of her age, being near sixty years of age. Her niece, Miss Berry, will accompany her on her homeward trip, where Miss Berry will spend the winter.

Our railroad is now at a standstill. Seio flour is working its way into Sodaville.

Miss Edith Peery is teaching in Yamhill county.

Mrs. Mach, of Stayton, is visiting her son, Prof. Mach.

Miss May Morris, of Seio, paid Sodaville a friendly visit last Saturday.

Rev. M. C. Aldridge of this place is preaching in Los Angeles, California.

Rev. L. D. Bach, of Seattle, Washington, has been appointed financial agent for the college.

Miss Magers, of Stayton, now one of the teachers in the public schools of that place, has been visiting friends in Sodaville.

Property is on the rise at Sodaville, since a move has been made to endow the college here, and property is changing hands in a live manner.

Proved Fatal.

A message received from Lebanon last evening stated that Rev. E. C. Wyatt, who was badly hurt in a runaway accident Sunday evening near Plainview, died Tuesday night from the result of his injuries.

The deceased was aged 57. He was the eldest son of Wm. Wyatt, a well known Benton county pioneer and his home was in Philomath. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters.

The exact particulars of the accident which caused his death cannot be given, as he was alone, and did not regain consciousness. He had been attending the United Brethren conference at Waterloo, and on Sunday afternoon had started home in his cart. It is evident that his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing Rev. Wyatt out, and that his foot caught in the cart, causing him to be dragged considerable distance. One creek was literally torn from his face, one ear was torn completely away, the jaw was fractured, and the base of the brain, the doctors say, was injured. There was also internal injuries. It had been planned to attempt a difficult operation Monday evening, but after consultation the plan was given up by the surgeons as impossible.

Turtles

The farmers have been urged to engage in diversified industries and lift themselves out of the ancient rut. John Henderson, of the once proud town of Lancaster, Lane Co., Oregon, has become diversified and has been actively engaged for the last several months in what is known as the turtle industry. He has now in stock a little over 800 full developed turtles in one incubator. John is now exercising his energies in keeping them up to a normal condition, ready for the Thanksgiving market. The market quotations for the average Long Tom turtle is sixty cents per dozen. Just how Henderson caught on to this novel expedient of esturping live turtles is somewhat of a mystery, but that it has been a success is evident from the number of live subjects which demand his daily attention. From the marks and imperfect hieroglyphics carried on some of their backs it would seem that they belong to some prehistoric race. Lancaster is to live in history and turtle soup is to be placed within the reach of all.—Corvallis Times

We know where about a dozen turtles stay if any body wants to catch 'em.

Safe in Limbo.

Joe Dowd who is charged with killing Jim Young, and Frank Isear, who struck Jessie Wheeler with a hatchet, in the drunken row last week on the Grand Round reservation, was arrested and put in jail at McMinnville last Saturday.

Dowd is a young and good-looking Indian, and would easily pass for a white man among strangers. He is peaceful and jolly when not drinking, but when under the influence of liquor is said to be very quarrelsome.

Thos. Large, the big hop-grower of this place, and Wm. McCord have about 15,000 celery plants, which are said to be doing nicely. Mr. Large has been very unfortunate the past few years with his hops, but with his characteristic pluck he tries something else.

This is an opportunity for some one to make money.

RILEY SHELTON, Seio, Oregon.

George M. Pullman, the palace car magnate, died at his residence in Chicago last Tuesday.

A man by the name of Bears was walking from Independence to Yaquina bay, when on the road between Airline and King's valley, on last Saturday afternoon, two men came out of the brush, held him up and robbed him of $10, which he earned drying hops. The robbers escaped on horseback.

Died.

BENDER—In the German Settlement, near Jordan, Tuesday, October 19 1897, A. A. Bender, about 70 years old.

CONN—At Albany, Or., October 19 Mrs. Esther A. Conn, wife of Robert Conn, Age 75.

Stroke of Paralysis

Uncle Riley Munkers was stricken with paralysis at his home near Salem last week. Owing to his advanced age, and other complications, the chances for his recovery are very doubtful. When last heard from, he was suffering no pain, but gradually sinking.

The Liebert Case.

At the time of going to press the jury in the Liebert case stood 11 for conviction and one for acquittal. Liebert appears to take things easy and says he will not be convicted by this jury.

It is thought the jury will disagree.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of grippe, and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the many good recommendations contained therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by PEERY & PEERY.
