Walter Bilyeu returned from Harrington, Wash., last Wednesday, where he has been working this Summer.

R. B. Miller has built a nice new picket fence around his property on the South side, now occupied by Mr. T. S. Coffey.

Crawford & Harnish, the Albany photographers will be at the Scio Gallery Wednesday, Nov. 17, and remain one week.

J. M. Bilyeu this week sold his farm in Jordan, known as the A. J. Shelton ranch, to H. H. Phillips, consideration $1500.

WANTED—All girls to know that Hoe Cake will not make their hands red and rough like common soap as it contains no filling or free alkali.—S. M. Daniel.

Charley Griggs, of Prineville, son of Lawson Griggs, who lives near this city, was home for a short visit this week. He will work in Portland this winter.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Go to O'Briens the cheapest store in Albany.

Mrs. Etta Simpson has returned home from Spicer, where the family have resided during the fall. Mr. Simpson will return to-day.

P. G. Carmical, formerly of Prineville, has purchased the property of Mrs. Lizzie Lee near Scio. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will in a short time return to their old home in Lincoln, Nebraska.

N. T. Higgins, who has been running a large planer in Baker City this Summer, returned home last Tuesday. He says times are good in Baker City. He may return in the Spring.

Ross E. H. will have a shipment of dry goods & shoes from the East soon, having sold and unprecedented lot of goods during the past two months he is forced to re-stock in so short a time.

Red Seal lye is absolutely pure granulated potash in sifting top cans. There is more clothes destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear, as the free alkali rots them, Hoe Cake is pure.—S. M. Daniel.

Frank Munkers, son of Riley Munkers, deceased, and Tom Walker, executors of the estate, were up from Salem the first of the week on business connected with the same. F. M. Munkers, P. O. Smith and T. J. Munkers are the appraisers of the estate in Linn county.

Mr. E. O. Stanton, of Salem, passed through Scio last Sunday, on his way to the new sawmill in the Bilyeu Den, where he will put the timbers and frame work in place for the mill owners, Messrs. Hanson & Landon, of Salem. Mr. Stanton was the contractor and builder of Scio,s new School building.

Save the wrappers of Hoe Cake soap. They are worth a cent apiece. —S. M. Daniel.

Ben McDonald expects to milk thirty cows for the creamery next Summer. He will keep them on his farm in Jordan. There will be others in that neighborhood who will also send milk to our creamery, amounting in all to about 70 cows, as heard from so far. Mr. McDonald will put up a silo and go at the business right.

10 foot roll of Crepe Tissue 20c at Peery & Peery's

Tuesday was a stirring day in Spicer. In the morning farmers of the vacinity began arriving at the Scio Milling Co's warehouse, where most of the wheat raised in that section is stored. In a short time Jno. Simpson, the company's agent here, was busy enough recording sales. During the forenoon several thousand bushels changed hands—more in fact than had before been sold during the entire season, and still the farmers came. This sudden rush of business began to tell on Mr. Simpson's nerves, and soon after noon he stampeded and went to Tallman and began telegraphing to head quarters for instructions. At a late hour this evening, anxious farmers were still haunting the warehouse awaiting his return that they might sell their grain before the "drop," that they believe is coming.—Democrat. Five thousand bushels is the amount of wheat Johnson & Phillips bought at Spicer last Monday.

Caas. Rogers, of Echo, Umatilla county, says that buyers have pretty well cleaned up all of the cattle in his vacinity, young calves having sold for as high as $13 50 a head. Sheep are also in demand, $2 50 a head having been paid for old stock ewes.

Guitar, Banjo and Violin strings at Peery & Peery's.

After all, it seems that Walla Tonka, or William Going, the Choctaw Indian about whom so much was said, because he was peroled while under sentence to be shot to death, went back to Chelsea, I. T., to meet his fate, still lives. A report from Dequeen, Ark., says that Tonka has been granted a new trial, and received the news with Indian stoicism. Tonka, who had played baseball while under sentence, is reported to have said, when he heard the news' "maybe me play more ball now."—Oregonian.

Mrs. Nack has confessed. She lured Guldensuppe to the Woodside cottage, where Thorne killed him.

Will Hang Today.

The Herald says: Theodore Durrant, condemned murderes of Miss Blanche Lamont, and the supposed murderer of Minnie Williams also, was taken before judge Bahrs this morning for the purpose of having the date for his execution reset. His attorneys made a desperate attempt to secure further delay, but Judge Bahrs brushed aside all technicalities objecting to the proceedings, and ordered that Durrant be hanged next Friday.

District Attorney Barnes appeared before Judge Bahrs yesterday and stated that he had received notice that the supreme court of the United States had affirmed the decision of the lower court in the Durrant case. Judge Bahrs thereupon made an order directing that Durrant be brought before him this morning in order that a new date might be set for carrying out the sentence already imposed upon the condemned murderer. It was rumored last evening that Friday next might be selected for the date of the execution. The events of the day have confirmed that rumor, as above related.

There's no filling or free alkali in Hoe Cake soap.—S. M. Daniel.

Hypnotism.

The Salem Journal says that McEwan, the clever Scotchman is at Salem. All day last Wednesday, he had a young man hypnotized and sleeping in Mr. G. W. Johnson's show window. Taking a case of pins that had been rendered chemically pure and heated red hot in an alcohol lamp, and taking up a fold of young Feller's cheek, he run the pin through his body as cooly as if it were a piece of raw beef. The crowd outside the show window gasped and shuddered as he pulled the pin out. Feller's face never trembled and no blood followed.

Another Big Strike at Quartzville.

The latest news from Quartzville are that the Lawler company has throwed up the job, and have turned the mine and mill over to the men, and they are going to run it for what there is in it. (which won't be much.) The miners have employed Mr. Lawler as superintendent of their newly organized company, and they will continue to run the mill and mine as long as there is any pay in it.

A New Potato

Jack Miller, of Shedd, left at the Herald office Wednesday a sample of a new kind of potato, not only new in the ordinary sense, but entirely new, insomuch as it seems somewhat strange. Who ever heard of an evergreen Irish potato? This is what Mr. Miller claims for his new variety of potato, and the samples left at the office show no signs whatever of the recent hard frosts. That is not the only strange or new thing about this novel potato. While they bear an underground potato like other and common kinds, they also have a potato above the ground on the joints of the vines. Mr. Miller will investigate this new potato and propegate it.—Herald.

RILEY SHELTON,
Scio, Oregon.

They have a very awkward man in Tennessee. He accidently shot a dog lately. In explaining the accident to the owner, he shot him. In showing the coroner how the thing happened, he shot that officer. The other day they liberated him for fear he would try and explain it to somebody else.

Miss Jennie Smitson who had the accident at Springfield, from which she suffered the amputation of both legs, one below and the other above the knee, was awarded $10,000 damages. The audience present liberally applauded the jury for the verdict.

Pneumonia is thinning out the siwash population along the Okanogan river, on the Colville reservation. Six or seven of the Indians have died of the disease recently, and others are doomed with it, and are not expected to recover.

THE WONDERS OF SCIENCE.

Lung Troubles and Consumption Can be Cured.

An Eminent New York Chemist and Scientist Makes a Free Offer to Our Readers.

The distinguished New York chemist, T. A. Slocum, demonstrating his discovery, of a reliable and absolute cure for consumption Pulmonary Tuberculosis and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest diseases, stubborn coughs, pulmonal affections, general debility and weakness, loss of flesh, and all conditions of wasting away, will send THREE FREE BOTTLES all different of his New Discoveries to any afflicted reader of the SCIO PRESS writing for them.

His "New Scientific Treatment" has cured thousands permanently by its timely use, and he considers it a simple professional duty to suffering humanity to donate a trial of his infallible cure.

Science daily developes new Wonders, and this great chemist, patiently experimenting for years, has produced results as beneficial to humanity as can be claimed by any modern genius. His assertion that lung troubles and consumption are curable in any climate is proven by "heartfelt letters of gratitude," filed in his American and European laboratories in thousands from those cured in all parts of the world.

Medical experts concede that bronchial, chest and lung troubles lead to Consumption, which, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death.

Simply write to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New York, giving post-office and express address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Sufferers should take instant advantage of his generous proposition.

Please tell the Doctor that you saw his offer in the SCIO PRESS.

YAQUINA BAY.
Many Attractions, etc.

Greatly reduced rates are now in effect from Albany, Corvallis and all Southern Pacific points to Yaquina Bay and Newport.

It may be added that, in addition to many natural advantages as a summer seaside resort, the Seaside Educational Association will open on August the 2nd at Newport, in the new auditorium built especially for this purpose, and continue in session for 5 week, thus affording to students, teachers and others a rare opportunity for combining study with pleasure. For full in formation as to Special Courses, apply to Mr S. G. Irvin, President of the Association, Newport, Ore.

The large and commodious tug "Resolute" is again in service on Yaquina Bay, and will take fishing or other parties to sea and return. The fare for the round trip is only 50 cents.

The Second Regiment Band and Orchestra has been engaged for the season, which will give daily concerts on the beach and furnish music for the evening hops.

Every possible convenience has been arranged for the comfort of guests, and the rates at the hotels are very reasonable.
