The Santiam News

SIXTH SECTION

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Interesting Particulars of Current Even ts in Condensed Form. Every Item Worth Reading.

The Belgian government has made application to a negro contractor.

Saul Parnell, author and philanthropist of Boston, committed suicide by drowning.

The estate of William T. Sharon, San Francisco, valued at $10,000 was distributed by the court.

The United States supreme court has decided that trains cannot operate on Sunday as usual.

Eugene Williams embezzled the city treasury of Seattle, Wash., to the tune of $1,000 and skipped.

Senator Sir Arthur Percy Fitzgerald, K. C. M. G., died in Sir William Hartland, at Gainsville of the Texas and Pacific railroad, in Dallas, Texas, on the 19th inst.

The executive committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen is in session at Cleveland, O., for the purpose of considering the last demand of the men.

Many persons were killed and injured in the recent earthquake in Japan. Among the dead are Count Kabayama, president of the House of Peers, and Count Inouye, minister of finance.

Fourth annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Oregon, will be held at Albany, Oregon, on the 24th and 25th of this month.

Fourth annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Oregon, will be held at Albany, Oregon, on the 24th and 25th of this month.

Mrs. Mary Lease, the well known lecturer, has been appointed by the governor of Kansas to the position of State Commissioner of Immigration.

Mrs. A. G. Spalding, wife of the well known sporting goods man, died at her home in Chicago, on the 19th inst. Mrs. Spalding was a sister of Mrs. Albert G. Mackey, of the State of Australia, who died in Chicago a few days ago. Mrs. Spalding's remains will be taken to Australia for burial